A Message from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

The week of January 11 we return to "Ordinary Time" on the Church calendar.
Green vestments are worn to symbolize hope.

I know these are not ordinary times for us in our daily lives. We take each day, one day at a time....

We continue to faithfully endure the challenges that have come our way.
We pray for healing and a resolution to the challenges of Covid.

Thank you to everyone for your ongoing support for the parish.
We are all grateful for those who were able to support the parish especially at Christmas.

I will again energetically apply for the Payroll Protection Program Loan to compensate for the loss in collections and other parish revenue. We utilized this loan last year and met all of the parish expenses. I pray we can secure this new loan for the present fiscal year.

In January we especially honor the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. We pray our Nation will continue to strive each day for respect for all.

In January we also seek a change of heart for our country with an increased Respect for Life in all stages and an end to abortion.

Every person has great dignity as a child of God!

God bless you always,

Bishop Robert J. Coyle

"The Sunday of the Word of God"

"The Sunday of the Word of God" will be celebrated the weekend of January 23 and 24.

The parish will have a special Holy Hour on Saturday, January 23 in the main church at 12 Noon to 1 pm. The Holy Hour will have quite time to pray before the Blessed Sacrament, Scripture and song, the Rosary and Benediction.

May each of us prominently display a Bible in our homes and read a daily section of Holy Scripture every day.

My parents display my great grandmother's Bible in the Living room and the family Bible records all celebrations of the sacraments and major family events at Church.

God bless you,

Bishop Robert Coyle

Called to be Church
Ordinary People Connecting Life & Faith

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 17 , 2021
John 1:35-42

"When Jesus turned around and noticed them following him, he asked them, 'What are you looking for?'"

1. If Jesus asked you today, how would you answer his question, "What are you looking for?" — in your life, in your community, in your church, in your God?

2. Andrew went and got his brother. How are you at inviting others to follow?

OUR PARISH
VISION STATEMENT
Welcoming All...Awakening Faith..
Serving Others...

OUR PARISH
MISSION STATEMENT
We, the disciples of Jesus Christ who Worship at Good Shepherd, accept the privilege and responsibility of supporting one another in love and service, of giving witness to the Good News of salvation, thus enabling others to experience the loving presence of Our Risen Lord..

Good News!

January 17, 2021
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)
1 Sm 3:3b-10, 19; 1 Cor 6:13c-15a, 17-20; Jn 1:35-42

Today we focus on our call from God. Both Samuel and Jesus' disciples were called. Unfortunately, not everyone realizes he or she has been called to be a disciple. Pope Francis insists that by virtue of baptism we are all missionary disciples. What does this mean? What does it ask of us?

Today's readings set the stage for our consideration of discipleship. They tell us several things. As with Samuel, the invitation from God can be unexpected, for it can occur in the very ordinary events of life. Perhaps, like Samuel, we don't hear the call because the event is so ordinary. Maybe we need someone to open our eyes to God's presence in the ordinariness of life. But what do we expect a call from God to be? A thunderclap? A blinding light? Actually, when we realize we have been called by God, it is like a crash of thunder or a blinding light.

Intrigued by Jesus, the disciples wanted to hear more, and so they followed him. Frequently God speaks to us through the lives of other people. When we see goodness in them we too want to be good, to do good. This might prompt us to share what we have, to comfort those who suffer, to forgive those who have offended us. We may not yet know how to do it, but such goodness can touch us deeply. Do we listen, like Samuel? Are we open, like the disciples?

Renovations

Please pardon the mess and dust…

Ceiling tile replacement work has begun in the Daily Chapel.

Thank you for your patience during this time.

Construction will be ongoing for the next several weeks.

The Church of the GOOD SHEPHERD 50th ANNIVERSARY 1970 - 2020

As we celebrate our Jubilee Year, we invite you to share with us what Good Shepherd means to you. Please email a very short statement to the main office goodshepherdstaf@aol.com and it will go online in our e-bulletin and in our printed bulletin in the coming weeks and months. Thank you.

Parish Social Ministry

Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services , please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

Food Pantry

Please call 585-4544 and leave a message if you need assistance.

ATTENTION: We would like to thank you all for your generosity in donating to our food pantry throughout the year. Currently, due to an abundance of supplies from you and a large donation from a local supermarket, our pantry is completely full. For that reason, we respectably ask that you stop food donations at this time. When supplies run low, we will once again request items in the bulletin.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang

The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will not be meeting until further notice.
Please hold all donations. Thank you!

Senior Group

Even though we have suspended meetings for a while, please remember to keep all members in prayer as some are going through some tough times.

We wish a Happy Birthday this month to Marsha G. 1/1, Peggy R. 1/2, Melinda R. 1/3, John C. 1/3, Joan Z. 1/6, Richard S. 1/7, Ruth A. 1/7, Marietta G. 1/10, Cecilia S. 1/12, Nick G. 1/13, Peggy A. 1/15, Marie W. 1/21, Ray M. 1/22, Barbara K. 1/24, Barbara P. 1/24, Vincent M. 1/24, Nancy T. 1/27, Regina A. 1/27, Annmarie I. 1/30, and Stella S. 1/30.

We wish everyone a happy, healthy and safe New Year to all and look forward to meeting again.
