FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Sisters and Brothers of the Parish of the Good Shepherd,

Each Sunday, after the homily which usually focuses on the scripture readings for the day, we pause for a moment and then we stand to make or to say aloud our Profession of Faith. In a very simple and clear way, we declare publicly what we believe as the most basic statements of Our Catholic Faith. The Profession of Faith is commonly known as "The Creed". It comes from the Latin word "Credo" which means, "I Believe". This meditation can be a great help for us as we approach next week's Solemnity of Christ the King.

On Sundays we have the option of proclaiming the "Apostles' Creed" (usually during the Lenten and Easter Seasons) or the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed which we know as the Nicene Creed. The "Apostles' Creed" was not written by the twelve apostles, but was probably part of an Oral Tradition believed to be the FIRST collection of statements declaring what the Roman Church set forth for the early Christian Community of Faith. The "Nicene Creed" derives its name from the Council of Nicaea (325) which became the 'standard' of basic or core Christian Beliefs. The Council of Nicaea was the first time that bishops from the entire Church were called together in what is called an Ecumenical Council to define the teaching of the Universal Church.

Why do I bring this to your attention? Simply because, as in all things we can sometime come to the point of merely saying the words without the real power of commitment or understanding. It came to me as our Confirmandi were practicing the renewal of their baptismal vows, that we all (myself included) should take a step back to truly think about the power and magnificence of our statements. There are 12 statements of faith within then Apostles Creed which may have helped found the early belief that each apostle contributed one statement.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, creator or heaven and earth. What a powerful beginning statement in this age of religious unbelief.
And in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord. Here in simple words we proclaim Jesus Christ The Son of God-an amazing statement when we stop to consider what we are saying.
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary, A powerful statement in three thoughts: that this Son of God was conceived through divine power, of Mary's perpetual virginity and an early Trinitarian Profession.
Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; The Son of God truly suffered death and was consigned to the grave – no fakery as some accused in those first years of Christianity.
He descended into hell, on the third day he rose again from the dead; we believe that Jesus went to gather all the worthy souls from the beginning of creation, not just those after his death; that he truly rose from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; references to Christ's own words in the passion accounts of the gospel.
From there he shall come to judge the living and the dead; Matt:25.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Third Divine Person of the Blessed Trinity.
The holy, catholic church, the communion of saints; the profession that the church itself is holy and universal – catholic/universal meaning that the church can only be One and that there are those saintly souls who have attained God's kingdom.
The forgiveness of Sins; the reason Jesus suffered and shed his blood on the cross.
The Resurrection of the Body; the promise of Easter for us
And life everlasting, Amen. What we all hope for through our belief.

Lectors

Are You Interested in Becoming a Lector?

Lectors are liturgical ministers whose principal duty is to serve the community by proclaiming the readings from Scripture during the liturgy. A thoughtful and prayerful presentation by the lector helps open the hearts of the community so that the Holy Spirit may speak to each one present.

Any Confirmed adult or teen who feels called to proclaim the Word of God to his or her fellow congregants may participate in this ministry after training.

If you would like to come forward and offer your service in this liturgical role, please contact the parish office at (631) 588-7689 and leave a message for Georgiana Hadden, the coordinator. Thank you!

November 21, 2021
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (B)
Dn 7:13-14 / Rv 1:5-8; Jn 18:33b-37

Your Majesty. This is an interesting form of address. It is not really a title like Queen or Lord. Nor does it identify a function ascribed to royalty, as does ruler. It refers to a status of excellence. It belongs to the position of royalty itself rather than the person in that position. Just what is majesty and why do we attribute it to some people? Originally people believed that royal individuals were descendants of the gods. This probably explains the notion of royal majesty. The readings for today's feast show that Jesus turned the ideas of kingship and royal majesty upside down.

The son of man in Daniel was a heavenly being upon whom "dominion, glory, and kingship" (7:14) were bestowed by God. The kingship of this figure is universal and everlasting. In the Gospels, Jesus frequently identifies with this title. When he does so, he is making a claim about his identity. The passage from Revelation depicts Jesus like this son of man, a heavenly being who comes "amid the clouds" (1:7) as "the ruler of the kings of the earth" (1:5).

In the Gospel scene, Jesus is interrogated about his identity. He insists that his kingship springs from love and service, not power and force. It's clear that his royal majesty flows from who he is, not from any political position he might hold. To call him king, as we do with today's responsorial psalm, was a very dangerous political statement for his early followers, for it claimed that Jesus is Lord, not Caesar.
