Hand Crafted Chocolates for St. Valentine's Day!

Good Shepherd's Women's Auxiliary Fourth Annual Handmade Chocolate Sale

Please stop by the GSWA table in the Narthex the weekend of February 9 & 10 after all Masses (or until we sell out) and pick up something sweet for your sweetheart. There's something for everyone.
Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang

During the month of February, the Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on February 2nd and February 16th. We begin at 8:30 am.

Our mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve.

For our sandwiches, we need donations of latex-free medium and large size gloves, jelly, creamy peanut butter, paper plates, plastic spoons and knives, paper towels and sandwich-size folder over bags. You may drop them off at church (label for the PB&J Gang) or bring them with you.

If you come to volunteer bring one loaf of white or wheat bread with you.

For our wash-up kits, we need donations of sample-size soap, shampoo and lotion, individually wrapped hard candy, new or gently used washcloths/towels, and sandwich-size ZipLoc bags.

Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine.

We look forward to having you help us to help others. Dates are subject to change due to winter weather conditions.

Parish Outreach

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the parishioners for their kindness and generosity helping others over the holiday season, to the Good Shepherd Women's Auxiliary and Knights of Columbus for hosting the children's Christmas party and to those who organized and distributed the items to Sachem Adult Home residents. This parish has always had a strong history in reaching out to all and the spirit continues to grow. Thanks again.

Senior Group - Tuesday wasn't as bone chilling as the weather on Monday but still cold causing us to have a lesser than average turnout. We hope all stayed warm and cozy. Please join us after the 9:00 mass for coffee, cake, conversation and company. All are welcome.

Food Pantry - Thanks to your generosity, our pantry is full. Thank you for your generosity.

A Statement from the Catholic Bishops of New York State

Words are insufficient to describe the profound sadness we feel at the contemplated passage of New York State’s new proposed abortion policy. We mourn the unborn infants who will lose their lives, and the many mothers and fathers who will suffer remorse and heartbreak as a result.

The so-called “Reproductive Health Act” will expand our state’s already radically permissive law, by empowering more health practitioners to provide abortion and removing all state restrictions on late-term procedures. With an abortion rate that is already double the national average, New York law is moving in the wrong direction.

We renew our pledge to offer the resources and services of our charitable agencies and health services to any woman experiencing an unplanned pregnancy, to support her in bearing her infant, raising her family or placing her child for adoption. There are life-affirming choices available, and we aim to make them more widely known and accessible.

Our Governor and legislative leaders hail this new abortion law as progress. This is not progress. Progress will be achieved when our laws and our culture once again value and respect each unrepeatable gift of human life, from the first moment of creation to natural death. Would that not make us truly the most enlightened and progressive state in the nation?

“Aquaman” – We were briefly introduced to this DC Comics superhero in “Batman v Superman: Dawn of Justice” and again in “Justice League”. Now, this first full-length feature tells the story of Arthur Curry, aka Aquaman, this half-human, half-Atlantean, who must battle a half-brother he has never met to save the kingdom of Atlantis and ultimately, the surface world he knows as his home. Basically, the theme is the familiar, good vs. evil, love of family, and doing the right thing regardless of the consequences. This epic superhero movie with its spectacular underwater scenes, is funny and silly and entertaining. Jason Momoa is larger than life as Aquaman. Pure, old-fashion entertainment. Go, have fun and enjoy it.

“Welcome to Marwen” – This film is based on the true story of an artist who loses his memory and the ability to draw after being severely attacked by a group of men and left to die in the middle of the road. In order to cope with this trauma, he creates a miniature WW II village in his back yard, which is populated by dolls that are based on the different real-life characters that live in the town. Although Steve Carell turns in a terrific performance as the lead character, it doesn’t seem to be enough to redeem this movie. Surprisingly, the fault rests on its usually more than capable director and co-writer, Robert Zemeckis. Too much time was spent on the make-believe village and its characters. We do understand that it is this village that helps him to survive each day. However, it made for a very off-centered script and lacking film.

“Mary Poppins Returns” – Charming sequel to the 1964 classic, Mary Poppins returns to assist the now grown-up Michael and Jane Banks, as tough times during the Depression-era has bestowed upon their family. Emily Blunt is lovely as Poppins and Lin-Manuel Miranda is terrific as Jack, the local lamplighter. Well directed and co-written by Robert Marshall and a solid musical score penned by Marc Sherman. Glad to call this a “sequel” and not a “remake”, for no one could ever replace Julie Andrews and Dick Van Dyke. But as a sequel, it is an enjoyable film for the entire family.

“Bumblebee” – In this sixth installment of the Transformers film series, it’s 1987 and Bumblebee the Autobot, finds refuge in a California junkyard. Still mourning the death of her father, Charlie finds the scarred and broken Bumblebee and the two form an unbreakable bond. You might be wondering how they can still produce these ridiculous movies about alien robots that morph in and out of the shape of cars. Well, this just might be the best film in the series. Why? Because it has such an emotional appealing story line. Great script written by Christina Hodson. Well directed by Travis Knight. With a stellar performance by Hailee Steinfeld. Not sure if you can give an award to a Autobot, but if you could, Bumblebee certainly deserves one.

“Second Act” – After years of hard-work as a Store Assistant Manager, Maya looses a well-deserved promotion to someone with a college degree. Her friends create an embellished resume online and Maya gets the dream job at a prestigious cosmetics company. One thing leads to another, deceptions pile up and a surprising secret is revealed. We have seen this story before and know its ending. Surprisingly, however, this film is well done. With a good cast and solid performances, it’s worth a look.

“The Upside” - This is a remake of the 2011 French film, which was based on the real relationship between a disabled man and his caregiver. Phillip is an extremely wealthy quadriplegic and Dell is a parolee who is desperately trying to have a relationship with his son. The unlikeliest of friendships, two lost souls who need each other and by finding each other, help each other to live life to the fullest. Excellent film. Bryan Cranston is phenomenal. Kevin Hart is just outstanding. Both give extraordinary, sincere performances. There is great chemistry between these two actors. With a terrific supporting role by Nicole Kidman. Well directed by Neil Burger and fine writing by Jon Hartmere. One of the best films of 2019. You will laugh out loud and then, you will cry out loud.

Support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps our Church to encourage and provide the opportunity for tomorrow’s priests to discern their vocation. When a priest is ordained… when a person becomes a deacon or lay minister – your gifts have helped in their formation.

Ordained in 2014, Fr. Joseph Scolaro answered the call to serve when he began the program of priestly formation at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in 2010. Today Fr. Scolaro is the Pastor of Notre Dame in New Hyde Park.

“I know first-hand how important the Catholic Ministries Appeal is. It helped to support my formation and gave me the freedom to really focus on my studies. Now as a priest in the Diocese, I feel blessed that God has chosen me to make the Body and Blood of Christ present on the altar and to bring that gift to the people, bring God to the people – the same people who helped to bring me to this point by their support.”

Please consider donating to the Appeal and a difference in someone’s life.
Thank you!
