Good News!

February 11, 2024

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46 / 1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1 /

Mark 1:40-45

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

As a child, were you teased, bullied, chosen last for a team? Did you feel apart from the in-crowd? If so, in various ways this treatment may have kept you from being fully engaged with the larger community, possibly continuing to scar you in even your grown-up world.

In 2021, the news media reported that a Louisiana cemetery refused burial for Darrell Semien because he was black. Though he had served his community as a deputy sheriff for fifteen years and had helped raise seventy-two foster children, none of that was of any significance. After the news broke, the cemetery quickly lifted its whites-only stipulation, but the damage had been done. In so many ways, we continue to exclude others from the human community, even in death.

Our Sunday Gospel tells of Jesus curing a leper, enabling the man to again become part of the community. Even more startling, by touching him, Jesus himself became “impure,” and thus isolated himself from the community, thereby switching roles with the man. Bringing others into community even at a cost to ourselves is divine.

Such compassion is exemplified when people work to reform prisons, seek to integrate immigrants into national life, give voice to the voiceless, improve mental health care, strive to alleviate paralyzing poverty, and more. The world witnessed compassion at its finest during the COVID-19 pandemic when medical personnel worked to heal the sick, even at the cost of isolating themselves from their own families. Compassion toward those in need is holy. ●

We begin the Holy Season of Lent on Wednesday, February 14th. These 40 days are a time for all of us to be on a Lenten journey to Holy Week and Easter.

Ash Wednesday Masses will be held at: 9am & 12 Noon.

There will be prayer services at: 3pm, 4:30pm, 7pm

Lenten Guidelines

- 1) Abstinence on all the Fridays of Lent, and on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday
  - No meat may be eaten on days of abstinence.
  - Catholics 14 years and older are bound to abstain from meat. Invalids, pregnant and nursing mothers are exempt. (Fish is the usual substitute meal)
- 2) Fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday
  - Fasting means having only one full meal to maintain one's strength. Two smaller, meatless and penitential meals are permitted according to one's needs, but they should not together equal the one full meal. Eating solid foods between meals is not permitted. Catholics who have reached the completion of the eighteenth year to the beginning of the sixtieth year are bound to fast. Again, invalids, pregnant and nursing mothers are exempt.

HIS WORDS.
YOUR JOURNEY.
TOGETHER.

In “Laudate Deum” (Praise God) Pope Francis challenges the U.S. and the world in new climate change document

Pope Francis challenged world leaders to commit to binding targets to slow climate change before it's too late, warning that God's increasingly warming creation is fast reaching a “point of no return.”

Pope Francis delivered a moral imperative for the world to transition away from fossil fuels to clean energy with measures that are “efficient, obligatory and readily monitored.” He said “what is being asked of us is nothing other than a certain responsibility for the legacy we will leave behind once we pass from this world.”

How can we meet our moral imperative to leave behind a better world now and in the future?
