FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Deserts come in all shapes and sizes. For Noah, it turned out to be a desert of water, an endless, dreary expanse. For Jesus, it was also without end, one of rocks and sand; it was a harsh existence. In our lives, deserts might be a debilitating illness, a dried-up marriage, grief over lost love, a job that seems to tax our sanity, or a childhood scarred by abuse. Not long ago, the world found itself in a pandemic desert. For many, it was one of cabin fever that isolated us from family and friends. Deserts are not alluring places. They are places from which we tend to run.

Some people deal with the inevitable deserts of life by becoming angry; others grow bitter and turn inward; others blame God and walk away from faith. Yet deserts can also be the very forces that reshape lives. With nothing else to distract us, in the desert we come face to face with ourselves, with who we really are and whose voice it is that we follow. There we take a stand on life, as Jesus did. It was the Spirit that drove Jesus into the desert, and it was there that he realized the future to which he was being called. So also with us. Deserts become places where we discover what God is asking of us and where we need to go, all discoveries that may otherwise never have occurred. In some strange and curious way, then, deserts may be blessings in our lives. ●

We begin the Holy Season of Lent on Wednesday, February 14th. These 40 days are a time for all of us to be on a Lenten journey to Holy Week and Easter.

Ash Wednesday Masses will be held at: 9am & 12 Noon.

There will be prayer services at: 3pm, 4:30pm, 7pm

Lenten Guidelines

- 1) Abstinence on all the Fridays of Lent, and on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday
  - No meat may be eaten on days of abstinence.
  - Catholics 14 years and older are bound to abstain from meat. Invalids, pregnant and nursing mothers are exempt. (Fish is the usual substitute meal)
- 2) Fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday
  - Fasting means having only one full meal to maintain one's strength. Two smaller, meatless and penitential meals are permitted according to one's needs, but they should not together equal the one full meal. Eating solid foods between meals is not permitted. Catholics who have reached the completion of the eighteenth year to the beginning of the sixtieth year are bound to fast. Again, invalids, pregnant and nursing mothers are exempt.

The Transfiguration

Jesus took Peter, James and John up a high mountain.

Begin at the bottom. Find the path to the top.

HIS WORDS.
YOUR JOURNEY.
TOGETHER.

Pope Francis has defended his controversial decision to let priests bless same-sex couples

The Vatican's declaration restated traditional church teachings that marriage is a lifelong union between a man and woman. But it allowed priests to offer spontaneous non-liturgical blessings to same-sex couples seeking God's grace in their lives, provided such blessings aren't confused with the rites and rituals of a wedding.

Pope Francis acknowledged, in his first comments since the uproar, the “resistance” the decision has generated. He said “Sometimes decisions are not accepted, but in most cases, when you don't accept a decision, it's because you don't understand” The danger, he said, is when people don't understand and refuse to enter into a “brotherly discussion” and instead harden their hearts, resist and “make ugly conclusions.”

Pope Francis said “The Lord blesses everyone.”

How open am I to “brotherly discussions” that make me uncomfortable or challenge previously held opinions?
