Third Sunday of Lent
March 24, 2019

“Leave it another year while I hoe around the fig tree and manure it; then perhaps it will bear fruit.”

1. Throughout our lives we are faced with situations like the man with the fig tree. When were you recently faced with a challenging situation that required your patience and nurturing?

2. What are some “fruits” you need to cultivate more carefully in your life? What is keeping you from being productive?

HUGS from God

Looking for something worthwhile to do for Lent? It's the perfect time to get out the yarn and come to the Hugs From God meeting this Wednesday, March 20th, at 7:30 p.m. We meet downstairs at the church in room 1. We knit and crochet prayer shawls and baby blankets to give to others who need a "hug from God." All you need is the desire to help and we'll teach you how!

Garden Ministry

Mother’s Day Plant Sale Fundraiser pre-order order forms are available at the main office.

You can select all the flats of annuals and herbs and hanging plants you need for your garden and gift giving. On May 4th and on May 5th only Hanging baskets and planters will be available for last-minute purchase. Full color pictures of each plant are available on Good Shepherd website.

All proceeds will be used to continue projects on our landscape. Pre-order forms must be submitted to the Parish office by April 1st with full payment (cash or checks made out to Good Shepherd).

To order online and pay with a credit card visit www.goodshepherdrcchurch.org/plant-sale.html.
Good Shepherd Parish will have a Ministry Fair to highlight the many ministries and activities the parish provides. Please prayerfully consider signing up for one of the groups or ministries. This Parish Ministry Fair will take place the weekend of Saturday & Sunday April 6/7.

Tables will line the entrance way. If possible representatives or information sheets will be available to answer any questions you may have about the ministries and activities at the parish.

I always cherished my parish growing up. I grew up in St. Edward's in Syosset. My mother helped in the school, had taught Religious Education, while my day served on the school board, Reader and Leader of song at Mass. During the year we all took part in the various parish activities. I was an altar server and worked in the rectory. I especially enjoyed CYO baseball and basketball. The coaches were an important part of my life. I would see them in my later years as a priest and bishop. They gave of their time and faith and instilled great values. The CYO and Hockey program here does the same.

Here at God Shepherd our young people and adult community can participate in so many wonderful ways. On Sunday and during the week. Don't miss out. There is something for all of us here at the parish that we can take part in.

God Bless you,

Bishop Coyle

Welcoming All - Awakening Faith - Serving Others
Give up gossiping for Lent, Pope Francis suggests

Pope Francis gives the homily as he celebrates Mass at the Parish of St. Crispin in a suburb on the outskirts of Rome March 3, 2019. (CNS photo/Paul Haring)

ROME (CNS) — Lent is a good time to concentrate on fighting the urge to gossip about others and instead trying to correct one’s own faults and defects, Pope Francis said.

Reciting the Angelus prayer at noon March 3 with pilgrims in St. Peter’s Square and visiting the parish of St. Crispin in Labaro, a suburb on the northern edge of Rome, later that afternoon, Pope Francis focused on the line from the day’s Gospel: “Why do you notice the splinter in your brother’s eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?”

“We all know it usually is easier or more comfortable to notice and condemn the defects and sins of others rather than seeing our own with that kind of clarity,” the pope said at the Angelus.

The pope returned to the passage during his parish visit, telling parishioners that Jesus “wants to teach us to not go around criticizing others, not go looking for others’ defects, but look first at your own.” If someone were to say, “but, Father, I don’t have any,” the pope said he would explain that “I assure you if you don’t notice you have any here, you’ll find them in purgatory! It’s better to notice them here.” Unfortunately, he said, people seldom stop at just noticing others’ defects, something “we are experts at.” What almost always happens next, he said, is that “we talk about them,” not telling the person to his or her face in a way that could help the person improve but indulging freely and happily in gossip.

“It’s something that because of original sin we all have, and it leads us to condemn others,” the pope said. “We are experts in finding the bad things in others and not seeing our own.”

Speaking the Sunday before Lent was to begin, Pope Francis said it would be great if everyone tried during Lent to reflect on Jesus’ words to see the faults only of others and on the temptation of gossip. Catholics should ask themselves, “Am I a hypocrite who smiles and then turns around to criticize and destroy with my tongue?” He said. “If, by the end of Lent, we are able to correct this a bit and not go around always criticizing others behind their backs, I assure you (the celebration of) Jesus’ resurrection will be more beautiful.”

The pope began his parish visit by meeting children who had recently received their first Communion or were preparing for first Communion and those who recently received confirmation or were preparing to be confirmed.

The young people asked him questions, including about how to be good and resist temptation.

The way to resist the devil, Pope Francis said, is to pray to Jesus and to his mother and to talk to one’s parents, catechists or priests when temptation is lurking.

Prayer and talking to someone good and wise also is important when trying to make a decision, he told them in response to another question.

On Sunday, March 10th, one of the members of the RCIA, Jennifer Giaramita, began the final step in her preparation to become a full member of the Body of Christ. She participated in a Parish celebration for sending catechumens forth for recognition by the Bishop. Jennifer, along with other members of RCIA, Corrine, Stephanie and Daniel, Jennifer’s family and RCIA Team Leaders, Al and Debbie gathered at St. Anne’s Church for a beautiful ceremony celebrated by Bishop Barres. Please keep Jennifer in your prayers as she prepares to receive the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil.
