A Message from the Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

I pray everyone had a blessed St Patrick's Day and St. Joseph's Day. We give thanks for the Saints who inspire us and the heritage and faith of our ancestors.

I pray you are having a fulfilling and meaningful Lent. Spring has begun now on the calendar. We pray too for a springtime and renewal for the Church. Please pray especially for the Holy Father, Pope Francis and our local bishop John.

God bless you,

Bishop Coyle

Good Shepherd Ministry Fair - April 6/7

Good Shepherd Parish will have a Ministry Fair to highlight the many ministries and activities the parish provides. Please prayerfully consider signing up for one of the groups or ministries. This Parish Ministry Fair will take place the weekend of Saturday & Sunday April 6/7.

Tables will line the entrance way. If possible representatives or information sheets will be available to answer any questions you may have about the ministries and activities at the parish.

I always cherished my parish growing up. I grew up in St. Edward's in Syosset. My mother helped in the school, had taught Religious Education, while my day served on the school board, Reader and Leader of song at Mass. During the year we all took part in the various parish activities. I was an altar server and worked in the rectory. I especially enjoyed CYO baseball and basketball. The coaches were an important part of my life. I would see them in my later years as a priest and bishop. They gave of their time and faith and instilled great values. The CYO and Hockey program here does the same.

Here at Good Shepherd our young people and adult community can participate in so many wonderful ways. On Sunday and during the week. Don't miss out. There is something for all of us here at the parish that we can take part in.

God Bless you,

Bishop Coyle

Called to be Church
Ordinary People Connecting Life & Faith

Fourth Sunday of Lent
March 31, 2019

“My son, replied the father, you are with me always, and everything I have is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice! This brother of yours was dead and has come back to life. He was lost, and is found.”

1. The father shows loving patience. Speak of an experience from your life when you had to wait patiently. How did that make you feel?
2. Describe a situation in your live when you found it difficult to ask for forgiveness.

Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang
The next meeting of the Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be held on April 6th. This will be the only time that we will be meeting during the month of April. We begin at 8:30 am.
Our mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve.
For our sandwiches, we need donations of:
  - Creamy Peanut Butter
  - Jelly

If you come to volunteer, bring one loaf of white or wheat bread with you.

We are very low on the supplies that are needed for our wash-up kits! Can you help?
For our wash-up kits, we need donations of:
  - Sample-Size Soap
  - New or Gently Used Washcloths/Towels
  - Sandwich-Size ZipLoc Bags.

You may drop your donations off at church (label them for the PB&J Gang) or bring them with you. Thank you!

Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine.
We look forward to having you help us to help others.

Senior Group
We have several trips planned for the upcoming months and are looking forward to them. Join us as we meet after the 9:00 mass Tuesday mornings. All are Welcome.

Easter Donations
Parish Outreach is now accepting donations for Easter.
There will be a table in the Narthex beginning this weekend.

Food Pantry
We are low on Laundry detergent, children's cereal, dish liquid, pasta sauce, women's deodorant, pancake mix & syrup, canned fruits. Thank you for your generosity.

Friendship Garden
Friendship Garden is a place where women come to share love and laughter. We meet each Thursday morning at 10am in Fellowship Hall. Everyone is made to feel welcome. We share our stories of life, faith and our crocheting and knitting skills. We are always ready to support any needy cause within our Church community. So if you need a place to just be, come join us! We would love to have the chance to meet you!

The Catholic Faith Network (CFN) will be airing the Mass of Installation of Bishop Robert J. Brennan as the 12th Bishop of the Diocese of Columbus, Ohio. The Mass will air live on Friday, March 29, 2019 from St. Joseph Cathedral beginning at 1:30PM ET and will rebroadcast later that evening at 8PM ET. The Catholic Faith Network (CFN) is available on Optimum channel 29/137, Verizon FiOS TV channel 296, and Charter Spectrum channel 162/471 throughout the New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut area.

"This spring, couples that have been married fifty years or more will be honored at a Mass on Sunday, May 5, 2019 at the Church of St. Rose of Lima in Massapequa. Mass will begin at 2:30 pm. Registration forms and complete instructions can be obtained at the rectory. Registration must be received by the Office of Faith Formation by April 15, 2019. If you have any questions you may call 516-678-5800, extension 506."

Donate to help bring water to the people of Africa

12 million people are without clean water for everyday use. Working in conjunction with Water Aid, Luke Solak is looking to raise a $6,000 donation in order to assist the people around the world to gain access to localized and clean water.

To donate to my fund please visit - https://us.wateraid.org/fundraiser/1659795

This weekend March 23/24, there will be a raffle in the Narthex to support this cause.

3 tickets - $10
8 tickets - $20

Thank you.
AT THE MOVIES with Donna…

“Alita: Battle Angel” – This futuristic action adventure is adapted from a series of graphic novels written by Yukito Kishiro. It’s the 26th Century and Dr. Ido finds a damaged Alita in a scrap yard and takes her home to his clinic. She restores her to life but she has no memory of where she was and how she came from. Eventually, she will come to know herself as a warrior and have to decide between her past life and the new found family she has grown to love. Scripted by James Cameron and directed by Robert Rodriguez, the expected video-game action sequences are delivered. However, I found the heart-warming relationship between Ido (wonderfully played by Christoph Waltz) and Alita more interesting.

“Fighting With My Family” – Based on the true story of a tight-knit British family obsessed with wrestling, the WWE to be exact. Written and directed by Stephen Merchant, this is a funny and surprisingly, touching film. It’s a story of family and the love and support they have for each other. And it’s also the story of how an outcast who doesn’t fit in can beat the odds and win it all on sheer determination. Great cast with a terrific turn by Vince Vaughn as the team coach.

“The Lego Movie 2: The Second Part” – Part 2 takes place 5 years later, and the people of Bricksburg face a new threat when invaders from outer space attack. All your favorite Lego characters are back, Emmett, Lucy and Batman, just to name a few. The only difference is, in Part 2, we see the “Lego world” early on and that makes for more of an unrealistic story (if that’s possible). Adults will get a laugh at the Bruce Willis Lego who pops up in the airshaft, which really isn’t meant for the young kids this movie is supposed to attract.

“Captain Marvel” – The newest Marvel superhero film follows the story of Carol Danvers, a Kree warrior from planet Hala with memories of a previous life as a U.S. Air Force pilot. Stranded on Earth and being followed by her planet’s enemy, Carol uncovers the secrets of her past while becoming Captain Marvel. Action-packed. Funny. Heartwarming. Terrific. Well-written and directed by Anna Boden and Ryan Fleck (co-written with Geneva Robertson-Dworet). In this movie, we meet Nick Fury, perfectly played by Samuel L. Jackson and get to enjoy watching him transform into this character we have become so fond of in the Marvel Comic movies. Brie Larson is outstanding as Captain Marvel. Great chemistry between Larson and Jackson. Go, sit back and enjoy. You’ll be looking forward to the next installment and spending more time with these characters.

“The Kid” – In this fascinating story, a young boy’s desperate attempt to save his sister from his villainous uncle leads him on a journey that crosses paths with Sheriff Pat Garrett and the infamous outlaw, Billy the Kid. Excellent film! So well-written by Andrew Lanham, that it could very well have happened as written. Top-notch directing by actor-director Vincent D’Onofrio. Jake Schur, as the young boy, gives a heart-breaking performance. Dane DeHaan’s Billy the Kid was spot-on, there were times you actually felt sorry for him. And this has to be one of the best performances by Ethan Hawke. His portrayal of Garrett is so authentic. Then, there is Chris Pratt, as the uncle. Surprisingly, he plays a very good bad guy. This movie is about the bonds of family and the choices we make in life. There is a thin line between becoming an outlaw or to have the courage to take the high road and become a good man. The film contains some violence and bloodshed, but if you like the movies and if you are a fan of the western, then the choice is clear. This one’s for you. “It doesn’t matter what’s true, it matters the story they tell when you’re gone.”
