FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Church of the Good Shepherd,

THE LORD JESUS IS RISEN! ALLELUIA! HE IS TRULY RISEN! ALLELUIA!! ALLELUIA!!

The Christmas Celebration of the birth of Jesus may be the most joyous and festive season of the year, but the Easter Celebration is the most important. It was why Jesus was born; that he should suffer and die for the forgiveness of sins, to be buried and on the third day, be raised from the dead in victory over sin and death.

Easter is the feast not only of Jesus rising from the dead, but of the promise of our sharing in that resurrection on the Last Day. What a glorious and joyful thought. Yet, I think we've been so beat up over the past few years that some of the spiritual glow we know we should be feeling at the end of the Lenten Season is somewhat diminished. Covid, in all its variations, has taken the lives of millions of people around the world and has sucked the joy out of so many of our lives. The Russian invasion of Ukraine has made us nervous about what this warmongering leader might still threaten. Inflation has robbed us of any feeling of security, stealing from us in both an economic and psychological way.

With all this occurring, how do we find our joy in the Easter Celebration? Where do we turn? I think the answer comes from our own life experience as much as from our trust and faith in God.

Consider how much joy the birth of a baby brings to our families. There is a long time of waiting and preparation once the beautiful news of the pregnancy is announced. There is a time of nervous anticipation as the time for the birth draws nearer and nearer and finally, there is that agonizing pain in that time of labor for the mother to bring forth new life. And when that mother holds her baby in her arms for the very first time, when she looks upon the face of the infant she has carried within her (with all the former memories and pains of morning sickness, the bloating, the back-aches), she literally does forget about all she's been through, for the joy of seeing and holding this new life. Nothing else matters except this little baby and she wants to share the wonderful news of this gift of new life with everyone.

I believe this is how we should look at the Easter Mystery and the Easter Celebration in the midst of our current time of trouble. Nothing else truly matters except the meaning of Jesus rising from the dead; that no matter what else, all the pains and sorrows we've experienced in so many different ways, are indeed the "labor pains" of the Kingdom of God. Those pains and sorrows can be intense. With Jesus, we suffer; the torments of life can be overwhelming and may even cause us to cry out, "Why have you abandoned us?" Yet we know that there is a sense of triumph, even on the cross when Jesus says, "Father into your hands I commend my spirit." With his last breath, he trusts in His Father. With Jesus, even now, we trust that we hold a hidden glory, through our baptism, the life of God, which is our personal invitation to trust in the Easter Mystery and in this mystery of faith, we commend our spirits. We remember that "if we have been united with Christ in likeness to his death, so shall we be united with him in likeness to his resurrection." (Romans 6:9)

Easter is that day, that 50 day season, when we joyfully shout out our good news of new and eternal life like any new mother. Just as the moment when the Angel Gabriel received the profound "Yes" from Mary to become the Mother of God, Easter is God's profound "Yes" to us as the loving Father of Humanity. Easter, therefore, also needs to be our personal and profound "Yes" to heaven and earth that no matter what troubles might assail us, no matter what sorrows might assault us, we have the knowledge, we have the certainty that if we have died with Christ, we will rise with Christ. So, bite the ears off of that chocolate rabbit, have a few extra jellybeans, gather around the table with family to celebrate with joy God's ultimate gift – Eternal life with Jesus.

Divine Mercy Sunday

WHAT IS DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY?
As you enter the Blessed Sacrament Chapel, you probably noticed a painting of Jesus with pink and white rays emanating from his heart with the words set at the bottom of the painting – JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU

Almost 100 years ago, a nun in Poland, now Saint Faustina Kowalska was given messages from Jesus concerning God's Divine Mercy. In obedience to Jesus, she wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's Mercy.

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple – God loves us. God wants all of us to recognize that His Mercy and compassion is greater than our sins. In this way, God again, desires the conversion of the sinner, not the sinner's eternal death. Our Father asks that we turn to him with trust, receive his mercy and let it flow through us to others.

THE 2ND SUNDAY OF THE EASTER SEASON IS THE UNIVERSAL CELEBRATION OF GOD'S DIVINE MERCY AS PROCLAIMED BY SAINT JOHN PAUL II.

The Divine Mercy message is simple and be remembered and practiced in this way.
A – Ask for His mercy. God wants us to constantly approach him in prayer, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour out his mercy out upon the whole world.
B – Be Merciful; in receiving God's Mercy, extend this love and forgiveness to others.
C – Completely trust in Jesus; the more we open our hearts and lives to Him with trust, the more we can receive.

On Sunday 24 April at 2:30pm in the Church– we will pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the reception of a Plenary Indulgence.

For more information go to https://www.divinemercy.org/message which will lead you to additional sites for devotion and spiritual reading.

Second Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy) (C)
Acts 5:12-16; Rev 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19; Jn 20:19-31

Take My Word for It This is easier said than done. Growing up, we insisted on doing things ourselves, learning from our own experience, developing a sense of our own ability. We soon came to know that there are times when we should—in fact, we must—take someone else's word for something. If we refused to do this, we might be called a "doubting Thomas." Is that fair to us? Is it fair to Thomas?

As today's Gospel passage reports, gathered in a room, several disciples of Jesus experienced him truly among them. Thomas was absent. When the others told him what had occurred, he refused to take their word for it. To believe, he also would have to experience Jesus. It is unfair to credit them with faith and label him a doubter. After all, their experience probably convinced them, an event Thomas did not enjoy with the other disciples.

The point of this story is not Thomas' eventual visit by Jesus or his subsequent profession of faith. Rather, it is the source of such a confession. Thomas was unwilling or unable to accept the truth of the resurrection unless he saw Jesus and touched him. Jesus told him: "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed" (John 20:29). Blessed are you and me, who have come to know Jesus and the truth of his resurrection on the word of others—our parents and teachers, pastoral ministers and friends, those who have come to know him and who witness to this in their lives.

The Chosen - Season 2

The Chosen Season 2

Come Study the Chosen with us! We will provide insights to prepare you to view the program like never before!

Imagine you could see the life of Jesus through the eyes of the people that walked on Earth with him – the disciples, Mary his mother, the Pharisees, the children, those he healed. What would that look like? Now you can experience it!

The Chosen is the first-ever-multi-season TV show about the life of Jesus. Created outside of the Hollywood system, The Chosen allows us to see Him through the eyes of those who knew him.

The Chosen stays faithful to the Gospels and at the same time tells us a story that is in between the lines of scripture. This T.V. series brings to life those people that are mentioned in the Bible, using the historical context of life at the time of Jesus. The series does not contradict scripture, but instead puts life around it so that we as viewers can imagine, "What was life like with Jesus." It really could have been this way.

We at Good Shepherd believe that as you encounter the characters in The Chosen each week for the next eight weeks, you will build a new curiosity about the life of Jesus and those that followed him when he walked the earth.

Our hope is that as our church encounters the characters in The Chosen, we are able to relate to them, leading us in a closer relationship with Jesus, our Lord and Savior.

The Chosen is a fresh look at the Gospels for those who have been reading the stories for years or for those who are just curious about who Jesus is and was.

Join us, starting on Thursday April 21st at 7 PM in the Fellowship Hall. There will be a second showing each week on Fridays at 9:45AM starting April 22nd in Fellowship Hall for those who cannot attend the Evening session. We will meet for eight weeks to watch the entire first season. We will also be able to discuss each episode with our fellow parishioners, in small group settings using scriptural references. We hope you will take this journey with us.

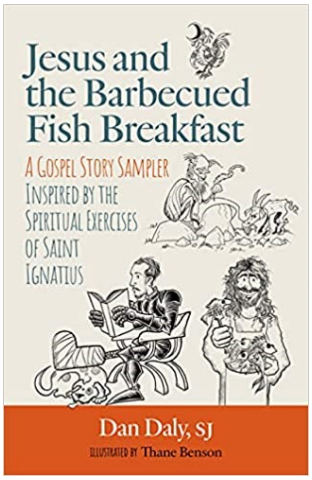
"JESUS AND THE BARBECUED FISH BREAKFAST"
BY DAN DALY, SJ

Was there ever a time in your life when you were so focused on tomorrow that you forgot to appreciate today?

What is your favorite Gospel story?

Where might someone see faith, hope or love in your life?

"Jesus and the Barbecued Fish Breakfast" by Dan Daly, SJ is a book of Gospel stories inspired by the spiritual exercises of St. Ignatius. Along with whimsical illustrations, this book will guide one in understanding the Gospel stories more fully as well as encounter Jesus through His storytelling.



Each chapter recounts an event in Jesus' life or one of His parables as told from the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. The narratives are connected to stories in our lives, what the Gospel accounts mean for us, and provides reflection questions for personal or group discussion.

There will be an opportunity to participate in the discussion of this book either in the morning or evening. Meetings will take place on Tuesday mornings from 10:00-11:30 on May 3, 10, 17, 24, 31 and June 7, and on Thursday evenings from 7:00-8:30 on May 5, 12, 19, June 2, 9, and 16.

To register please call Mary Ann O'Connor, 631-834-4188.
This book can be purchased on the Amazon website.

Easter 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Christ is Risen, Alleluia!

Every Easter, as we celebrate our Lord's victory over death, we delight in the consolation that all is restored through the Resurrection, and we ponder God's relentless invitation to live the divine life given at baptism.

This is the good news of our faith: Christ has conquered death and we are invited to life. This good news needs to be heard time and again. Even when things are bleak, we remember Christ is victorious and that we have been invited to witness to his victory. As Pope Francis says:

"Where all seems to be dead, signs of the resurrection suddenly spring up. It is an irresistible force. Often it seems that God does not exist: all around us we see persistent injustice, evil, indifference and cruelty. But it is also true that in the midst of darkness something new always springs to life and sooner or later produces fruit. On razed land life breaks through, stubbornly yet invincibly. However dark things are, goodness always re-emerges and spreads. Each day in our world beauty is born anew, it rises transformed through the storms of history. Values always tend to reappear under new guises, and human beings have arisen time after time from situations that seemed doomed. Such is the power of the resurrection, and all who evangelize are instruments of that power."[1]

We know well the bleakness that can overwhelms us. How good it is to recall God's goodness! The Risen Lord moves through the locked doors of fear to lead us, to lead our families and to lead the world to peace. May we never forget God's triumph over death and our baptismal call to be an instrument of that power. May we show the Risen Lord to all we meet.

This Easter, as we rejoice in Christ's Resurrection, let us remember especially those who suffer in Ukraine and the millions who have been displaced by that tragic war. Together, we pray that the Risen Christ bring light to their darkness and give them peace.

Be assured of my prayers for you in these holy and joyful weeks.

Happy Easter!

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
