A Message from the Pastor

Happy Easter!

Dear Friends in Christ,

I wish you a blessed and Holy Easter.

On behalf of the priests, deacons, Sister Ellen and the entire parish staff we extend to you our prayers and blessings.

May this Easter Season be a time for all of us to reflect on the promises of Jesus to one day share with Him Eternal Life!

Our lives are directed towards spending eternity with Our Lord in Heaven. The many powerful Gospel readings that testify to His Resurrection continue to encourage us and give us Hope!

Again, Happy Easter to you and your family,

Bishop Coyle

Good News!

April 28, 2019
Second Sunday of Easter or Sunday of Divine Mercy (C)
Acts 5:12-16; Rev 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19; Jn 20:19-31

We're not defined by our weakness, but created for greatness! Look at David, Paul, and the sinful woman. David was an adulterer and murderer, yet he wrote Psalms and was Jesus’ ancestor. Paul killed one of the first deacons, Stephen, yet became the greatest apostle to the Gentiles. The sinful woman’s misdeeds were public, yet what is most remembered is her repentance and love.

Sin is not the last word. God’s recreating mercy is. God's mercy asks for a response so all that transformative power can be unleashed in us. The only thing that stands in the way of God’s renewal rushing in and totally transforming us is our own lack of acceptance.

Sin wants to stand in the way of this good news. The evil one tries to convince us that we are too sinful; that salvation and happiness might be for others, but certainly not us.

But David, Paul, and the sinful woman didn’t let that sinister message sink in. David was moved to repentance by Nathan’s words. Paul accepted that he wasn’t saved by his religious fervor or condemned for his errors. He was saved by letting Christ’s merciful love embrace him. The sinful woman refused to be defined by her poor choices. She tearfully made penance at Christ’s feet, and this act of her brokenness gave off a consoling aroma that filled the house.

Let the power of Christ’s love be unleashed in you by forgiving yourself and others. Then your weakness will be the first step toward the greatness God has in store for you.

First Communion

First Communion is one of the three sacraments of initiation. The process of preparation for 1st Communion is our opportunity to help children to form strong life long habits as Catholics.

Initiating people into the faith community is a major focus of parish life.

It is at liturgy that children see and experience the faith of the parish community. The full, conscious and active participation of all the faithful forms them to live out the true Christian spirit. All of our liturgies need to express the strong Catholic faith of our people who live to worship God with thanksgiving in their hearts.

On the weekends of April 27/28, May 4/5, May 11 (Sat), May 18/19, and June 1 (Sat) our youngsters will be celebrating their First Communion at the 5PM Mass on Saturdays and at the 10AM and 12Noon Masses on Sunday.

Please welcome them as they come to the Table of the Lord.

Let us pray for each child:

“May you always know the peace of Jesus, the light of His love, and the joy of His life within you.”

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang
The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on May 4th and May 18th. We begin at 8:30. Our mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve. The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang needs your help! We are very low on the supplies that are needed for our wash-up kits! We do not have enough towels or soap.

Can you help?
For our wash-up kits, we need donations of-
Sample-Size Soap, New or Gently Used Washcloths/Towels
Sandwich-Size ZipLoc Bags, Individually Wrapped Hard Candy

For our sandwiches, we need donations of: Creamy Peanut Butter and Jars of Jelly
If you come to volunteer, bring one loaf of white or wheat bread with you.
You may drop your donations off at church or bring them with you. Please label them for the PB&J Gang.

Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine.

Our March totals were- 2130 sandwiches and 350 wash-up kits! Thank you for your help!

Are You Interested in Becoming a Lector?
Lectors are liturgical ministers whose principal duty is to serve the community by proclaiming the readings from Scripture during the liturgy. A thoughtful and prayerful presentation by the lector helps open the hearts of the community so that the Holy Spirit may speak to each one present. Any Confirmed adult or teen who feels called to proclaim the Word of God to his fellow congregants may participate in this ministry after training.

If you would like to come forward and offer your service in this liturgical role, please contact the parish office at (631) 588-7689 and leave a message for Georgiana Hadden, the coordinator. Thank you!

RED is for the blood he gave,
GREEN is for the grass he made.
YELLOW is for the sun so bright,
ORANGE is for the edge of the night.
BLACK is for the sins we made,
WHITE is for the grace he gave.
PURPLE is for his hour of sorrow,
PINK is for our new tomorrow.

Dear Friends:

As we celebrate Holy Week, the Easter Vigil, Easter Sunday, Divine Mercy Sunday and, indeed, the entire Easter Season on Long Island, we remember the power of the Risen Christ so eloquently captured in the Resurrection narratives of the four Gospels.

These Resurrection accounts put us in the presence of the Risen Lord and open us up to his power. These narratives reveal the Risen Christ’s glorified wounds.

The light that streams from the glorified wounds of the Risen Jesus touch the wounds of the Church, the wounds of survivors of clergy sexual abuse, the wounds of our families and the wounds of the human family.

The power of the Risen Christ rolls back the stones of spiritual inertia and lukewarmness from our hearts, so that we can embrace a new and compelling spiritual vitality and commitment to advance dramatic missionary growth on Long Island and beyond.

It is my role as your Bishop, as your successor to the Apostles on Long Island, and as your servant, to be a teacher of prayer. Every Pastoral Letter, every Catholic Faith Network Encounter program, every YouTube video, and every Twitter message I share with you, is designed to open us all to a deeper spirit of prayer, holiness and evangelization.

In my 2019 Lenten Letter, www.bishopbarreslentletter2019.org, Encounter program link: https://youtu.be/Ay_yW73b90 I asked us all to recommit ourselves to being deeply biblical Catholics who embrace daily lectio divina, the prayerful, daily reading and praying of Sacred Scripture.

In this 2019 Easter Letter, I am asking all of us to recommit to a period of daily silent mental prayer, a simple, heart to heart conversation with God. St. John Vianney, the holy Curé of Ars and patron saint of all Catholic priests, wrote: “Prayer is nothing but union with God. When one has a heart that is pure and united with God, he is given a kind of serenity and sweetness that makes him ecstatic, a light that surrounds him with marvelous brightness.”

In our current noise-addicted and social-media addicted culture, it can seem almost impossible to commit to a serious period of silence and mental prayer each day.

In the past, we may have tried to be faithful and consistent to mental prayer but found we could not sustain it. We may have given up or become so discouraged that we no longer believe that we could ever be serious about mental prayer.
Father Walter Ciszek, S.J. (1904-1984), was a Polish-American Jesuit priest who was imprisoned for more than twenty years for doing missionary work in the Soviet Union. His cause for canonization is currently underway in Rome.

Father Ciszek wrote a memoir of his spiritual journey in which he explains how prayer saved him through his years in prison, in solitary confinement, and even in the Gulag. In the book He Leadeth Me, he makes the connection between deep faith and deep prayer: “We cannot pray as if we were talking to the empty air; so in the very act of praying we unconsciously remind ourselves of the reality and the presence of God, thereby strengthening our belief in him … Without faith, our lives are just so many empty and boring routines, hollow at the core, as day succeeds day with little sense of meaning or feeling of accomplishment. With faith, however, even the most boring and routine action of every day has merit and significance for us – and for the kingdom of God.”

And so, each Easter, we all together humble ourselves and begin again. The power of the Risen Christ allows us a new beginning and opens us up to new vistas of conversion and spiritual growth.

St. Peter of Alecantara (1499-1562) was a Spanish Franciscan friar who lived in the 1500’s and was a master of spirituality. Consider what this great saint said about how mental prayer transforms our lives: “In mental prayer the soul is purified from its sins, nourished with charity, confirmed in faith, and strengthened in hope; the mind expands, the affections dilate, the heart is purified, truth becomes evident; temptation is conquered, sadness dispelled; the senses are renovated; drooping powers revive; tepidity ceases; the rust of vices disappears. Out of mental prayer issues forth, like living sparks, those desires of heaven which the soul conceives when inflamed with the fire of divine love. Sublime is the excellence of mental prayer, great are its privileges; to mental prayer heaven is opened; to mental prayer heavenly secrets are manifested and the ear of God ever attentive.”

This Easter, may the power of the Risen Christ and the Gospel Resurrection narratives open us to the Holy Spirit expanding the height, depth and breadth of our daily mental prayer and our capacity for contemplative concentration.

May each one of us embrace our call as baptized Catholic Christians to not only pray at a deep level ourselves, but also to teach others to pray as well.

May the Holy Spirit continue to raise up contemplative missionary saints on Long Island!

Sincerely in Christ,
