A Prayer for Mothers

Merciful God, we humbly ask you to bless our mothers today.
Be with those mothers who have raised us, those who have adopted children, those who are in labor at this moment, those who are no longer with us, those who suffer separation from their children and those mothers who are raising their family at this time.
Through the intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary, bless every mother, Amen.

John 13:31-33, 34-35

“I give you a new commandment: Love one another. Such as my love has been for you, so must your love be for each other.”
1. Describe a time in your life when someone close to you went out of your life. What did that person leave behind for you? How did that person affect your life?
2. How do you love someone who is very difficult to love?
Congratulations to Deacon John C. Newhall on the 10th Anniversary of his ordination to the Diaconate on May 16th.

May God reward him and bless him for his caring and dedicated service to us here at Good Shepherd. In gratitude and prayer, we wish John, his wife Patti and his family many blessings in the years to come.

Parish Events

Hail Mary, full of Grace

Congratulations Deacon John Newhall

Hail Mary, full of grace, how did you do it?

An evening to come together prayerfully reflecting on how Mary can lead us by example through the sacrifices, triumphs and tribulations of family life. Please join Sr. Ellen Zak and our Faith Enrichment Ministry for this special evening.

Tuesday, May 21st 7pm-9pm

Women’s Auxiliary

Happy Mother's Day! Did your mother, grandmother or aunt teach you how to knit or crochet? Come use that talent at our Hugs From God meeting this Wednesday, May 15th, at 7:00 p.m. We will meet downstairs at the church in room 1.

We knit and crochet prayer shawls and baby blankets to give to others who need a "hug from God." All you need is the desire to help and we'll show you how!
Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang - will be meeting on May 18th.
- We begin at 8:30am. Our mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve. For our sandwiches, we need donations of Creamy Peanut Butter and Jars of Jelly. If you come to volunteer, bring one loaf of white or wheat bread with you.
- For our wash-up kits, we need donations of Sample-Size Soap, New or Gently Used Washcloths/Towels and Sandwich-Size ZipLoc Bags.
- You may drop your donations off at church or bring them with you. Please label them for the PB&J Gang.

Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine.

Our April totals were- 560 sandwiches and 150 wash-up kits! Thank you for your help!

Senior Group - Join us on Tuesday mornings after the 9:00 mass.

First Holy Communion

First Communion is one of the three sacraments of initiation. The process of preparation for 1st Communion is our opportunity to help children to form strong life long habits as Catholics. Initiating people into the faith community is a major focus of parish life. It is at liturgy that children see and experience the faith of the parish community. The full, conscious and active participation of all the faithful forms them to live out the true Christian spirit. All of our liturgies need to express the strong Catholic faith of our people who live to worship God with thanksgiving in their hearts. On the weekends of May 11 (Sat), May 18/19, and June 1 (Sat) our youngsters will be celebrating their First Communion at the 5PM Mass on Saturdays and at the 10AM and 12Noon Masses on Sunday.

Let us pray for each child:

“May you always know the peace of Jesus, the light of His love, and the joy of His life within you.”

Congratulations to all the Children who have joined us at the Table of the Lord

“The Mustang” – Based on a real-life horse-taming program for prison inmates operated by the Bureau of Land Management, this film tells the story of one of those inmates, who is chosen to train an unbreakable mustang. With very little dialogue, we watch as this hardened criminal finds his own humanity as he tames what is considered the most difficult horse to train. At times, you wonder who is training who; perhaps this beautiful wild animal has its own lessons to teach. First-time director, Laure de Clermont-Tonnerre, who also co-wrote the script, does a masterful job. Heartbreaking from beginning to end. A film about redemption and forgiveness. Matthias Schoenaerts has always been a brilliant actor, and this performance is no different. He is just terrific.

“Dumbo” - This Disney live-action film tells the same story as the classic 1941 animated film, also based on the novel by Helen Aberson. Only this time, Dumbo, the elephant born with oversized ears who can also fly, is just too adorable — thanks to CGI technology. Put Tim Burton at the helm and you have some new characters and added story lines. But the same message is clear… it’s ok to be different and family is all that matters. With an outstanding cast that includes Danny DeVito, Colin Farrell, Michael Keaton, Eva Green, and the two children portrayed by Nico Parker and Finley Hobbins. Great music score by Danny Elfman. “But, you’re so precious to me. Sweet as can be, baby of mine.”

“Hotel Mumbai” – Based on the horrific terror attacks in 2008 in Mumbai, India, this film centers on the attack at the Taj Mahal Palace Hotel. This is not an easy film to watch. It is beyond terrifying as these terrorists infiltrate the hotel and sadistically execute men, woman and children. The director gives us a haunting glimpse into the world of this group of terrorists, as we hear the unseen leader giving these young men a continuous pep talk over the phone, always reminding them that God is on their side and their reward awaits for them at the end of their mission. In the midst of this mindless killing, we find ordinary people brought together by circumstance helping one another, like the brave chef and kitchen worker who risk their own lives to try to protect the hotel guests. Well directed by Anthony Maras. With an excellent cast. Films like this remind us of the madness in the world and of the courage of the everyday hero who comes forward to make a difference.

“The Best of Enemies” - Fact based drama set in 1971, Durham, North Carolina, where a civil rights activist serves as co-chair with the head of the local KKK to decide on a court-ordered school desegregation decree. The two most unlikely people, Ann Atwater and C.P. Ellis; working together for a common goal. Who would have thought these two would become lifelong friends? Well directed and written by Robin Bissell. Fine performances by Taraji P. Henson and Sam Rockwell. “You ought to know, C.P., same God made you, made me.”

“Shazam!” – Based on the DC Comics character, Shazam, this is the story of a 14 year old boy who can transform himself into an adult superhero. This may be an action-packed film, but down deep inside it tackles some serious issues like bad parenting, being bullied because of a physical disability and having a foster family who accepts and loves you for who you are. This movie is a lot of fun and you will laugh out loud. And yet, there are some tender moments that will touch your heart. A terrific screenplay by Henry Gayden. Well-directed by David Sandberg. The cast is just perfect! Zachary Levi, Asher Angel, Jack Dylan Grazer and Mark Strong, to name a few. Honestly, I had my doubts about this one. However, I am happy to report; I was pleasantly surprised.

We Pray...Celebrate...Remember...
Happy Mother’s Day! As we join together to celebrate the wonderful Moms in our lives, let’s also take time to remember and pray for all the thousands of Moms who worry about how they are going to put food on the table for their children this week.

More than 35% of the 300,000 people on Long Island who receive emergency food each year are children under the age of 18.

Please consider supporting the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can continue to care for God’s children and their families through our Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God’s generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!
