Bishop Coyle Appointed New Pastor of Good Shepherd

As announced at all the Masses last weekend, Bishop Barres has appointed Auxiliary Bishop Robert Coyle as the new pastor of Good Shepherd Parish effective June 27. A biography of Bishop Coyle may be found on page 5, in today’s bulletin which includes his 27 years of priestly service primarily as a Navy Chaplain in the Archdiocese of the Military and for the past 5 years as a bishop in that capacity.

You might be wondering how a bishop gets to become a pastor of a local parish. In larger dioceses such as ours, it is not unusual for such an appointment, particularly when there is a shortage of priests and a bishop may be taking on a variety of roles. Bishop Coyle brings with him a broad range of priestly experience apart from his military role. He served as an associate pastor and for several years as pastor of Corpus Christi Parish in Mineola before being ordained a bishop.

In my recent conversation with the bishop he expressed a real desire to return to parish ministry especially in his home Diocese of Rockville Centre. Despite his many travels, he considers himself a native son of Long Island having grown up in Syosset and having attended Immaculate Conception Seminary in Huntington. When I was on the seminary faculty many years ago, I had Rob Coyle as a student, and even then he distinguished himself as a dedicated and faith-filled young man.

While Bishop Coyle will have traditional Episcopal responsibilities such as officiating at Confirmations in various parishes, his primary focus will be Good Shepherd. I trust that you will welcome Bishop Coyle as you welcomed me and will support him in carrying out the mission of the parish. After many years of travel, he looks forward to settling down in his home diocese and serving the people of God on Long Island.

The other important news announced this past weekend was the assignment of Fr. Lachlan Cameron to serve as full-time campus chaplain at Stony Brook University working in conjunction with the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS). He will also be advising the theology faculties of several diocesan high schools.

At this point the appointment of the associate pastor who will take Fr. Lachlan’s place has not been made. This will be announced in the near future.

These events point to significant changes in the life of Good Shepherd Parish. A new chapter is about to begin. Change evokes a range of feelings: excitement, anxiety, uncertainty, hope and so forth. We have all faced changes in our lives, some of them expected others surprising. But there are also constants in this picture and they include: our Catholic faith, commitment to the parish, generosity of talent, time and treasure, love for the priesthood, and fidelity to the call of Christ to be his disciples. I trust that these constants will carry the parish through this time of transition and bring the parish into a new era of faith, hope, and love.

"Receive the Holy Spirit."
The Gifts of The Holy Spirit are: wisdom, understanding, knowledge, right judgement, courage, reverence, and wonder and awe.
1. What gifts of the Spirit can you identify in yourself that could help transform the world?
2. What gifts of the Spirit can you identify in our community?

OUR PARISH
MISSION STATEMENT
We, the disciples of Jesus Christ who Worship at Good Shepherd, accept the privilege and responsibility of supporting one another in love and service, of giving witness to the Good News of salvation, thus enabling others to experience the loving presence of Our Risen Lord.

Good News!
May 20, 2018
Pentecost (B) Acts 2:1-11, 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13
or Gal 5:16-25
Jn 20:19-23 or Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

The image of Mary—surrounded by the apostles in the upper room, awaiting the Holy Spirit—has a name: Regina Apostolorum, Queen of the Apostles. She is enthroned as Queen Mother because, when her Son the King was enthroned and lifted up, he told her, “Behold your son.” With those words he entrusted Mary to the care of John, the apostles, and the whole Church. As any good queen and mother, she defends her own.

She is also called the Spouse of the Spirit, because it was in union with the Spirit that she engendered the Son. She also engenders him in the apostles and in our souls through her powerful intercession and waiting on the Spirit.

One of Mary’s best qualities is waiting patiently until God’s power arrives. After the annunciation she waited nine months with Jesus in her womb. Then she waited some thirty years while Jesus grew and prepared for his mission. She waited during his public life and watched as his fame spread, but also as his enemies plotted. She waited at the foot of the cross and endured that unending Holy Saturday until the resurrection. And she waited patiently on the first Pentecost Sunday for the coming of the gift of the Holy Spirit promised by her Son. She knew he would come through, as he always did.

We get impatient with God and want him to respond on our timetables according to our expectations. He waits to give us a chance to adapt our hearts to his plan and timing. He waits until the time is just right.

Bishop Coyle was born in Brooklyn in 1964, the son of Robert and Kathryn Coyle. He is the product of a life-long Catholic education. Bishop Coyle graduated from Saint Edward Confessor Elementary School, Syosset in 1978; Saint Mary’s Boys High School, Manhasset in 1982; Fordham University, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics, in 1986 and Immaculate Conception Seminary, Huntington with a Master of Divinity in 1991 and Master of Arts degree in Theology in 1998. He was ordained to the diocesan priesthood by Bishop McGann in 1991 and served as an associate pastor first in the parish of Saint Dominic, Oyster Bay and then in the parish of Saint Patrick, Glen Cove.

Bishop Coyle was commissioned an ensign in the U.S. Navy on June 3, 1988 and served 24.5 years on active reserve duty before his retirement from the Naval Reserve on January 1, 2013. Serving as a U.S. Navy Chaplain, Bishop Coyle was deployed to the Middle East to serve on an aircraft carrier and to Norfolk, Virginia to care for the spiritual needs of sailors and their families. During a three year assignment aboard the USS Harry S. Truman aircraft carrier, Bishop Coyle deployed to the Middle East and served in Operation Southern Watch and Operation Iraqi Freedom. He then served as chaplain to the young men and women studying at the Merchant Marine Academy in King’s Point. While assigned to the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower aircraft carrier and deployed to Middle East for Operation Enduring Freedom, Pope Benedict named him a chaplain of honor with the title of Monsignor in 2008 in recognition of his outstanding service caring for the spiritual needs of Catholics and others of all faiths in the U.S. Navy.

In February 2013, Pope Benedict XVI appointed then-Msgr. Coyle to be an auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of the Military. At that time, Msgr. Coyle was serving as pastor of the parish of Corpus Christi in Mineola. Bishop Coyle was ordained and installed as bishop by His Excellency, the Most Reverend Timothy P. Broglio, J.C.D., Archbishop for the Military Services on April 25, 2013.

Now 5 years later Bishop Coyle is returning to his home Diocese of Rockville Centre as auxiliary Bishop with the approval of Pope Francis. In conjunction with his role as an auxiliary Bishop, Bishop Barres has also appointed Bishop Coyle to be pastor of Good Shepherd Parish in Holbrook. The appointment takes affect on June 27th, 2018.

- Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang
  The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on May 19th. We begin at 8:30 am. Our mission is to serve those in need and to provide an opportunity to do good for those who choose to serve. We need - loaves of white or wheat bread (bring it with you), sandwich size foldover and sandwich size Ziploc bags. Our supply of peanut butter and jelly is sufficient at this time. We need the following items for our wash-up kits - new or gently used towels, sample size soap, shampoo and lotion. Please bring these items with you or drop them off at church. Label them “For the PB&J Gang.” Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine. We look forward to having you help us to help those in need.

- Senior Group
  Last Tuesday got us off to a great start with our meeting and then approximately 40 of us decided to go for lunch at the Chinese Buffet. We celebrate birthdays this month for Gerard P. 5/3, Richard R. 5/16, Donald T. 5/18, Irene G. 5/28, Georgette S. 5/28 and Robert S. 5/28. We hope they all have special days. Please join us in Fellowship Hall after the 9:00 morning mass on Tuesdays. All are welcome.

- Food Pantry - We are in need of the following items: laundry detergent, dish liquid, toilet paper, paper towels, canned chicken. Thank you for your generosity.

- Apartment Needed - A MEMBER OF OUR SENIOR GROUP IS IN NEED OF A 1 BEDROOM APARTMENT IN HOLBROOK, PREFERABLY ON THE GROUND FLOOR. IF YOU HAVE ONE AVAILABLE OR KNOW OF SOMEONE WHO DOES, PLEASE CONTACT THE OUTREACH OFFICE AT 585-4544.

- ATTENTION - PLEASE USE THE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL BIN IN THE PARKING LOT TO DROP OFF CLOTHING OR HOUSEHOLD ITEMS. DO NOT LEAVE ITEMS IN THE BINS IN THE NARTHEX OR BY THE OUTREACH OFFICE. THANK YOU.
Happy Mother's Day! As we join together to celebrate the wonderful Moms in our lives, let's also take time to remember and pray for all the thousands of Moms who worry about how they are going to put food on the table for their children this week.

More than 35% of the 300,000 people on Long Island who receive emergency food each year are children under the age of 18.

Please consider supporting the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can continue to care for God's children and their families through our Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God's generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

Volunteer Appreciation Night
Our Good Shepherd Volunteer Appreciation Night will take place on Friday, May 18. If you or someone you know who volunteers in a parish ministry has inadvertently been missed in the invitation mailing, please inform the parish office.

Garden Ministry
An army of volunteers is needed to prepare grounds for our summer planting. We always count on Confirmation candidates and students requiring volunteer hours but willing hands of all ages are needed for these efforts. The gift of your hands for even a single hour would be appreciated. Gloves are required. Wheelbarrows, shovels, and pitchforks are welcome support.
Saturday May 19th we will meet at 8 am:
- spread mulch on our cultivated areas
- Improve and enlarge the small garden space under the smaller sign on Grundy Avenue
- Prepare Easter altar plants for transplanting into our landscape
- Weed
- Trim bushes as needed
- Put down some sod
- Pre-dig hole for tree planting
- Prepare space for summer planting at rectory
Saturday June 2nd we will meet at 8 am for our summer planting. Your hands, gloves and a small shovel will help set the stage for glorious summer.

The Ministry of Family Healing
When was the last time you laughed with Jesus? That’s right laugh with Jesus. When was the last time you celebrated joy with Jesus. We know what you are thinking, we Catholic’s sometimes take ourselves and others too seriously. We don’t have time to laugh with Jesus. We don’t have time to celebrate joy with Jesus, and we certainly don’t have time to have fun with Jesus. Well that’s just what we are asking you to do. Come and spend one night enjoying Jesus. Have fun, laughter and even a few surprises with Jesus. We invite you to spend a night filled with joy. Come and join us Wednesday, June 6, 7PM in Fellowship Hall. We hope to see you then and please bring a friend.
