FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Sisters and Brothers of the Parish of the Good Shepherd,

Mother's Day Weekend is one of those wonderful occasions when we can express our love for the person who in many, many instances is the premier person who shapes and guides our lives. From birth until that time when we approach adolescence and we seek to become more independent, she is the one we turn to for healing, for protection, for advice, for understanding, and for comfort when we're hurting. Indeed, moms and their children disagree, argue, become angry and frustrated with each other as no earthly relationship is perfect; yet I think it's safe to say that our mothers show us how to love through the love they give us in those early formative years of our lives.

It's in this regard that we celebrate Mother's Day. We aren't patriotic with love of our country only on the 4th of July, but we gather together in a special way to demonstrate that patriotism that is present all through the year. The same with the celebration of Thanksgiving. There is a day to express the thanks that we may not fully show on any number occasions when we should. Mother's Day, Father's Day are those occasions when we more fully explicit the love we may fail to show on a regular basis.

On this Mother's Day, we look to our Blessed Mother and we remember the story of how she became a mother, while still remaining perpetually a virgin. Her 'Yes' was a yes of love – a love of God the source of all love – a 'yes' to bring this special life into the world despite taking on a mission that must have been very intimidating and somewhat fearful. If you think about it, what woman when she discovers that she's pregnant doesn't have similar feelings as Mary had? Her 'yes' to an act of love brings her into unexplored territory. Will my child be born healthy? Will I know what to do in those first days after this baby is born? Will this child's father support me and stand by me in the same way as St. Joseph stood by Mary, even in his own uncertainty and fear?

We see the joys and fears, the trust and the sorrows in Mary's life as she watched her son grow and develop. Was Mary any different in these feelings than any other mother before or after? We can assume, that as difficult as it was for Jesus to leave her to begin his ministry of preaching and teaching and healing, it was just as hard for Mary – and any mother – not to interfere when it's time for her bird to leave the nest and fly on its own.

Let us commit ourselves to celebrating this Mother's Day with all our heart. Let us put any misunderstandings, frustrations or anger behind us in honor of who our mothers are. Last year, my siblings and I gathered to see our mom in her room at the assisted living facility where she was living guessing that it would be the last holiday we would have together – and she did pass away a month later. Like many others who have lost either of their parents, I look back wondering if there were times when I could have expressed my love for her a little more obviously beyond Mother's Day or her birthday or Christmas. What were those instances when I could have made her feel more special on a regular basis? I ask the question of myself as a inducement for anyone whose mom is still living. I ask this question of myself for all of us who may not actively show the love we feel for anyone close to us.

As we honor and celebrate our mothers in a special way this weekend, beyond the extraordinary treatment of taking her out for a meal, Mother's Day cards, sweets or various presents, I ask you to tell mom two things. First, tell her that you love her. Second, tell her that you're praying for her. That's what I'm going to do to celebrate the gift of my mom's life – that's what we all should do every day.

HAPPY AND BLESSED MOTHER'S DAY!!

Called to be Church Ordinary People Connecting Life & Faith

Seventh Sunday of Easter
May 21, 2023
John 17: 1-11

“I am in the world no more, but these are in the world as I come to you.”

1. With the gift of eternal life comes the responsibility to care for the world Jesus entrusted to us. In what ways do you use the gifts God has given you to enrich our world?
2. Recall an incident where you experienced conflict between the ways of the world and the ways of God. How did you resolve it?
3. Jesus prays that we experience the oneness with God that he enjoys. How do you seek the oneness with God that Jesus desires for each of us?

OUR PARISH
VISION STATEMENT
Welcoming All...Awakening Faith..
Serving Others...

OUR PARISH
MISSION STATEMENT
We, the disciples of Jesus Christ who Worship at Good Shepherd, accept the privilege and responsibility of supporting one another in love and service, of giving witness to the Good News of salvation, thus enabling others to experience the loving presence of Our Risen Lord..

The Ascension of the Lord (A)

Acts 1:1-11, 14-17 / Ephesians 1:17-23 / Matthew 28:16-20

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

When the Lone Ranger and Tonto rode across our TV screens in days of old, someone would often ask, “Who was that masked man?” Folks never learned his identity, and it didn’t matter. For that man had saved them from evil, restoring their lives. In a sense, the Ranger, with Tonto, had passed on to them the power to live safely and productively.

As he was about to return to his Father, the risen Lord said to the apostles, “You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses” (Acts 1:8). Yet being blessed with the power that raised the Lord Jesus does not always feel much like a blessing. At times it can feel more like a burden that falls upon our shoulders, one to heal and mend as we try to bring peace and a better world. We wonder why we always must be the one who says, “I’m sorry.” Why must we always be the one who plans the evening out or writes the Christmas cards or calls Mom or spends time with the children or listens to someone’s tale of woe? Yet such is the power of Jesus for bringing about healing to both spirits and bodies, for creating joy, for designing bridges into the hearts of others, all because the Messiah rode off on a cloud of silver to be welcomed to the right hand of God. Thus, he empowers us. ●

Responses to Pope Francis

Thank you for you well– thought responses to Pope Francis’ question: Do you believe that gun control is just a second amendment issue or should it be seen as a pro-life issue? We appreciate hearing the personal opinions from our parishioners.

- To conflate the second amendment with pro- life issues perpetuates meaningless rhetoric. Anything short of instilling respect for human life is but a band-aid. Let's return to The Ten Commandments to fight the blind descent into a soul-less society. Any society/government that supports abortion as health care loses credibility when it comes to framing the second amendment as a threat to human dignity. "Guns don't kill people; people kill people." I agree with The Pope about supporting non violence, but such a philosophy begins with formation, not with the heavy hand of politics. Idealism is noteworthy, but it needs a strong and consistent underpinning to support it.
- The second amendment comes into play with a responsible person being able to own firearms that are in common view while also having the ability to bear/carry these arms discretely. (concealed from general view). This is done for their own safety as well as for the safety of others around them. It is also a pro-life issue because the tool, which is a firearm, can be used to save lives. It can be used to protect people from others that mean them harm. If a crazed person entered the church intent on harming people, I pray that there would be someone there within the congregation that had the training and tool (firearm) needed to stop the person. I whole heartedly believe in what Pope Francis stated; that nonviolence should always guide our actions. The unfortunate reality is that there are people within our society that no amount of talking or de-escalation will work on. The question is, and then what? The good shepherd carries a staff to defend his flock from the wolf. A good community member, if they so choose, should likewise be able to carry a firearm and be that same defender of the flock. (Edited for space)
- I believe it is definitely a pro-life issue; when so many of our innocent school children and people just going about their daily lives, at church, at work, shopping have been killed by assault rifles. These assault rifles should be banned to the general public and licensing of other firearms should strictly be monitored by age and only given after stringent background checks and a long waiting period.
- The 2nd Amendment states: the people have a right to bear arms under a well regulated militia. This amendment has been interpreted, reinterpreted and distorted by the masses to bring us to this point in history. Gun control is the logical consequence of this distortion. That being said, thinking of pro-life as a gun control makes perfect sense. If you are pro-life, you should be in favor of gun control at the very least and anti-gun at its best.
- The 2nd Amendment is only a part of things to be considered when addressing the issue of gun control. As you said in your column, we are entitled to freedom from fear. All people/all Americans should be allowed to feel safe as they live life day by day. Yes, pro-life is an aspect of this issue as well. Something must be done. NOW!
- Politics aside I believe the 2nd Amendment should be considered for repeal. (Although I know that this will never happen) For Catholic Christians, gun control should be seen in the light of our Hebrew counter parts, in the law given to Moses from God. Love thy neighbor...And thou shall not kill. In these laws there are no caveats or exceptions just direct law to obey and gun control should cease to exist if we all instead respect all Life.
- Gun control is a 2nd Amendment issue, 100%. Always has been, always will be. How to stop shootings? Pass a law: gun felonies – 10 years in prison, no plea bargain/no parole. But that won't happen for two reasons. Lawyers. The Democratic Party's never ending quest for gun confiscation and total control of the people. Please keep gun control off the pulpit. I personally would walk out of Mass in a heartbeat if my Church preaches any form of Gun Control! Don't ban the gun; ban the finger that pulls the trigger!
- In my opinion, it's NOT a 2nd Amendment issue, nor has it anything to do with pro-life issues. We do not have a gun problem, we have a mental health crisis!! So please know, it's not the weapon (guns or axes or knives, etc.) it is the person holding the weapon. As far as "guns" – the media always omits the fact that 99% plus of all tragic shootings are the result of illegal guns!
- The issue is violence (not necessarily "gun" violence). Do we seriously think that gun control will stop violence? Abortions and shootings are a product of a lack of respect for human life, yet many who favor gun control see abortion as a "right". From a politician's standpoint, "control" sounds appealing but it will have little impact if we fail to respect and value the dignity of all.
- It should be considered a pro-life issue. No one needs an assault rifle for a 2nd Amendment right. War should be the only use for these weapons that are used to massacre. Politics should be funded differently and then things will change.
- Persons using guns easily kill themselves and others; so, it would seem, that having a near total ban on multiple-shot weapons would save many lives, but not all. As Christians we are called to love the Creator of Life and, therefore, life itself. A simple deduction would lead us to conclude that guns are designed to destroy life; using a gun, except for supplying needed food or protecting life from harm, is an anti, pro-life activity.

Good Shepherd Church
"Please Take a Seat!"
Memorial Fundraiser

Remember ???

Do you remember being in school and the teacher would say...

Please Take a Seat!!!

(Well WE Remember !)

Usually that meant sitting in a hard uncomfortable chair until the class or meeting was over. We want to invite all who come to learn more about our faith to a comfortable and welcoming space! Now that our tabernacle has moved to the center of our church sanctuary, we will be able to use the small chapel for prayer, meetings, presentations, and devotions. We have replaced the heavy wood chairs with lightweight, moveable, padded ones. Here is your chance to help... We are asking that you "please take a seat" (or two or more!) By helping us cover the cost of the chairs, you can have a chair memorialized and a "memory plate" will be placed on the chair. The donation is $ 50.

Order forms available at the parish Office.

Orders will be taken after all the masses on the weekend of
May 20/21.

Cash, check or charge card accepted.

Orders can also be taken at any time at the parish office

Cash or check accepted

Thank you for your continued support of Good Shepherd!

If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.*

Food Pantry

Please call 585-4544 and leave a message if you need assistance.

Senior Group

If you are 55 years of age, or older, come join us on Tuesday mornings after the 9am mass in Fellowship Hall. We are men and women who help support each other and the parish through many social activities. We celebrate birthdays this month for Donald T. on May 18th and Georgette S. on May 28th. Best wishes for a wonderful blessed day.

Friendship Garden

Friendship Garden is a place where women come to share love and laughter. We meet each Thursday morning after the 9:00 am mass in Fellowship Hall.

The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang

The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang, whose mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve, will be meeting on

June 10, 2023 at 8:30 am in the Fellowship Hall.

This will be our last meeting until September.

At this time, we ask that you hold all donations until we meet again in September.

When you come to volunteer, if you are able to, please bring a jar of peanut butter (Jif spreads very easily), jelly and/or 1 loaf of white or whole wheat bread. We meet from 8:30-9:30 and if needed, 1 hour of community service will be given to those who attend.

Please help us to help those in need and support us with your time.
