New Pentecost and a New Pastor

The feast of Pentecost we celebrate this weekend is often called the “birthday of the church,” an opportune time to be mindful of who we are as disciples of Jesus Christ and members of the faith community called Good Shepherd. To be Catholic is to be part of a church which is worldwide and at the same time very local. We are connected to one another not only as the mystical Body of Christ but as members of this earthly organization called the church which manifests itself specifically in the local parish.

Given the change in pastors which is soon to take place, I suspect we are even more aware of what means to be part of a diocesan church under the leadership of a bishop. A new pastor is not chosen by vote of the faithful but my appointment of the diocesan bishop as the head of the local church. Even when that pastor might be a bishop himself as is the case of Bishop Robert Coyle, he is subject to the chief bishop, John Barres, to whom he pledges obedience and respect.

This time of transition is also an opportune time to call upon the gifts of the Spirit, especially wisdom, understanding, and fortitude. In preparing for a new spiritual leader we ask the Spirit to guide us in sharing our knowledge and love of the parish, to keep us open for what is to come, and to give us courage in the face of the unknown. As much as a new pastor means change in the life of the parish, so for this priest there is also a great deal of change in his life and his ministry. Moreover Bishop Coyle is not coming from a previous pastorate but from a ministry as a bishop serving men and women in the armed forces both at home and abroad. Thus he will experience a change in where he lives, how he serves and for whom. To this add his limited duties as an auxiliary bishop, and you can appreciate the great change he faces in his personal and ministerial life.

At the same time I place great trust and confidence in the people of Good Shepherd who have witnessed many changes in personnel and parish life. There have been any number of pastors and associates; you have lived through the effects of Vatican II and beyond over the past 50 years; there have been disastrous fires and a new building rising out of the ashes; you have witnessed the expansion of ministries, supported a recent capital campaign and renovation, and lived through so many other events - great successes and some failures. With all of this the parish goes on.

There is something new about every Pentecost, because the Spirit makes all things new. And this year of 2018 is no exception. We need only to be open to what the Spirit can do in us. It happened at that first Pentecost and it will happen again.

Gold Star Project

You may have noticed the beautiful statue of Our Lady on the lawn opposite the main church entrance. It is the result of the Girl Scout Gold Star Project initiated by Catherine Tinti, a member of Good Shepherd. Similar to the Eagle Scout Project for boys, Gold Star is achieved by an outstanding girl scout who undertakes an approved project, raises the funds needed and sees it through to completion. We congratulate Catherine for this achievement and for creating such a lovely addition to the parish grounds. We will hold a dedication ceremony on May 27 after the 12 Noon Mass.

Good News!
May 27, 2018
Most Holy Trinity (B) Dt 4:32-34, 39-40,
Rom 8:14-17, Mt 28:16-20

Christian iconography commonly represents the Godhead as a triangle with the all-seeing eye in the center, often with rays of glory flooding forth. Yet, in a fresco painted for Pope Julius II, Raphael chooses to make it much more personal, more real. He depicts the three persons of the Trinity.

God is not merely an idea, a first principle, or a mental criteria for moral choosing, but three real divine persons, each one active in your life. A triune God, an eternal explosion of love in which the Father begins by creating you; the Son continues by saving you; and the Holy Spirit consumes their love by inspiring and sanctifying you.

Although all things change, God never changes. He is still, the point of the pendulum from which all things hang and are supported. He wisely governs with his one hand lifted in authoritative and assuring purpose. In his other hand, the sphere of the world rests secure. His decisions are not arbitrary, sway by public opinion, or motivated by insecurity needing affirmation. He is who is. It is we who need him and not the other way around.

Yet, his absolute authority doesn't convert him into an aloof despot. God lovingly takes interest in everything! Nothing is unimportant—from the greatest things on earth to the smallest minutiae of my day. If it is important to me, it is important to him, and his providential hand keeps it all in balance.

Parish Social Ministry

Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang - Our mission is to serve those in need and to provide an opportunity to do good for those who choose to serve. We need loaves of white or wheat bread (bring it with you), sandwich size foldover and sandwich size Ziploc bags. Our supply of peanut butter and jelly is sufficient at this time. We need the following items for our wash-up kits - new or gently used towels, sample size soap, shampoo and lotion. Please bring these items with you or drop them off at church. Label them “For the PB&J Gang.” Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine. We look forward to having you help us to help those in need.

Senior Group - Please join us in Fellowship Hall after the 9:00 morning mass on Tuesdays. All are welcome.

Food Pantry - We are in need of the following items: laundry detergent, dish liquid, toilet paper, paper towels, canned chicken. Thank you for your generosity.

Parish Events

Garden Ministry - Saturday June 2nd we will meet at 8 am for our summer planting. Your hands, gloves and a small shovel will help set the stage for glorious summer.

The Ministry of Family Healing - When was the last time you laughed with Jesus? That’s right laugh with Jesus. When was the last time you celebrated joy with Jesus. We know what you are thinking, we Catholic’s sometimes take ourselves and others too seriously. We don’t have time to laugh with Jesus. We don’t have time to celebrate joy with Jesus, and we certainly don’t have time to have fun with Jesus. Well that’s just what we are asking you to do. Come and spend one night enjoying Jesus. Have fun, laughter and even a few surprises with Jesus. We invite you to spend a night filled with joy. Come and join us Wednesday, June 6, 7PM in Fellowship Hall. We hope to see you then and please bring a friend.
Happy Mother’s Day! As we join together to celebrate the wonderful Moms in our lives, let’s also take time to remember and pray for all the thousands of Moms who worry about how they are going to put food on the table for their children this week.

More than 35% of the 300,000 people on Long Island who receive emergency food each year are children under the age of 18.

Please consider supporting the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can continue to care for God’s children and their families through our Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God’s generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

“Beirut” – It’s the 1970’s and Mason Skiles is a US diplomat working in Beirut as a trade negotiator. Tragedy strikes and his wife is killed. Ten years later and a now alcoholic union mediator, Skiles must return to Beirut to try to help negotiate the release of an old friend who has been taken hostage by the men who killed his wife. Intelligently written and well directed, they just don’t make movies like this anymore. With terrific performances by all including Jon Hamm, Rosamund Pike, Mark Pellegrino and Dean Norris. If you like intrigue and espionage and a movie that puts the story and its characters in the forefront, then this one is for you.

“Miracle Season” – This movie is based on the true story of a girl’s high school volleyball team after their captain is tragically killed in an accident. Overcome by deep sorrow, the team battles back on the strength of their coach, the inspiration of a grieving father, and the new found determination of her best friend. In the end, it’s really not about “winning”. Instead, it’s all about how we live each and every day that really matters.

“Avengers: Infinity War” - The long awaited next installment is here…filled with more superheroes then you have ever seen in one film. To fight an adversary like the villainous Thanos, you need them all and perhaps, dare I say, even more. Bringing together the Avengers and the Guardians of the Galaxy – Iron Man, Thor, Dr. Strange and Star-Lord, just to name a few, as they fight for the salvation of all humanity. As grandiose and epic as this film is, it still comes down to one simple belief, that not even one innocent life can be sacrificed for the common good. Excellent writing by Christopher Markus and Stephen McFeely and top-notch direction by the brothers Anthony and Joe Russo. With an all-star, stellar cast. As you may have heard by now, the film does not have its usual ending. Instead, I sat in disbelief as I watched the final scenes unfold. Disappointed, shocked, surprised, yes, a little bit of each. It’s going to be one long year, as we wait with anticipation for the continuation of this saga in 2019.

“Lean on Pete” – This is the story of a lonely teenager who becomes attached to a broken-down race horse. After the sudden death of his single father and with nowhere else to go, he sets off on his own with the horse as his only companion. Cold, frightened, alone and distraught, Charlie barely survives one trauma after another. This movie can be very tough to watch at times, but in the end, it is this young man’s determination and inner-strength that allows him to survive. Well written and directed, with an incredible performance by Charlie Plummer (this is one young actor to watch) along with a strong supporting cast.

“Breaking In” – Shaun Russell visits her late-father’s house in the country, with her son and daughter in tow, preparing to put the vacation home up for sale. Little does she know that a group of thieves have decided to break into the house at the same time. Exactly what you expect ensues. Is it far-fetched that a “normal” wife and mother can fight these violent ex-cons? Sure. Does it contain excessive violence? Of course. Is it a thriller, even though you know what is going to happen next? Definitely. Granted, there is a lack of story content that leaves so many unanswered questions. However, for all of us that were in the movie theater that day, it still was enjoyable to watch just the same. “I’m just a mom. You have no clue what I’m capable of.”
