FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Parish of the Good Shepherd,

This past Thursday, we observed the 40th day of the Easter Season with the celebration of Ascension Thursday; the day, according to St. Luke both from the last words of his gospel and in the first chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, which tells of Jesus giving his apostles their last instructions before he ascends up into the skies and into heaven. Ascension Thursday signals the last days of the Easter celebration as we, like the apostles, wait for the promise of another advocate, the gift of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. You and I will celebrate that second greatest (after Easter itself) feast in the church (liturgical) calendar next Sunday – the 50th day of the great Easter celebration – the resurrection of Jesus from the dead.

So, the question today is this – “How has this year’s celebration of the greatest event in human history touched your life? How has this year’s celebration of Easter affected your prayer and your relationship with God? Has the celebration of the resurrection of Jesus made any true difference to you over the past six weeks?”

My sense is that except perhaps for those first few days after Easter Sunday, not much has changed for the great majority of us. We wake up and we don’t continue to wish each other “Happy Easter”. We take our meals, but the food doesn’t taste any different. We go to work or to school, we do our daily chores, we keep on rooting for our favorite teams and nothing has substantially changed for us. And yet, you and I know that there should be some effect, however minimal, toward an increase in the recognition of the wonder of the central mystery of our faith as followers of Jesus Christ each day of our lives.

Now, don’t get me wrong; I’m not criticizing or picking on you (and me) and the present generation. The world would be far different if Christians both in far past centuries all the way till today truly allowed the Easter celebration to affect the daily routine of how we live and how we interact with each other. Simultaneously, as we look out at the world and all the ills we complain about, we do in fact need something to shake us up. We need something to change us, to motivate us rather than accepting that we’re doomed to continue down the present path of intolerance, prejudice, hatred, injustice, violence on all levels and the continued pollution of the earth, our home.

Could it be that we understand what ‘resurrection’ means only in our heads, but we haven’t internalized that understanding within our hearts? Certainly, ‘rising from the dead’ can be as confusing for us as it was when Jesus first mentioned this to his apostles. Without a doubt, we find it easier and more comfortable to live in the present (and for some people to live in the past) than to look toward an endpoint in the future. We try to look ahead and plan for our ‘golden years’ and that task of looking at ten or thirty years into the future is difficult enough. To plan for eternity is still more difficult but, truthfully, that’s exactly what our annual celebration of Easter – The Resurrection of Jesus – from the dead and his promise that we too shall rise – is all about. The Easter Season is that potent reminder that we are called to share in a wonder that’s almost unimaginable; eternal life, eternal joy, eternal peace with God.

Perhaps the thought and frightening acceptance of our own death is what prevents us from fully embracing the Easter Mystery. We may not want to go there just yet since it is difficult enough to accept the deaths of those closest to us even if we can take comfort that on the Last Day our loved ones will be raised to eternal life. In these next few days before Pentecost, perhaps we can live a little more consciously in awe of the wonder of what Easter is. Perhaps we can use these next days before Pentecost to contemplate and to rejoice that Our God calls us to explore and accept more deeply the wealth of why we choose to be followers of Jesus; not for the gifts of this earth but for the gift of heaven.

Pentecost Sunday
May 28, 2023
John 20: 19-23

“Receive the Holy Spirit.”

1. The gift of the Holy Spirit has been given to you through your Baptism. How will you use your gift to draw others to God this day, this week at home, work, or school?
2. On the first Pentecost, the Holy Spirit came as a powerful wind and blew away the disciples’ fears. On this Pentecost what fear of yours may be turned over to the power of the Holy Spirit and transformed into positive action?

Acts 2:1-11 / 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 / John 20:19-23

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Fear can be a most powerful imprisoning force. Like the apostles who locked themselves behind closed doors after the resurrection for fear of the local leaders, there are times when our own fears lock us out of the future and into our past.

We find ourselves choosing not to be generous for fear that if we are, we will find ourselves empty-handed with no one to care for us because all of our resources have been used up. And so, because of our fear, we lock ourselves into our own selfishness. At other times, we hesitate to be kind for fear that our care will be misconstrued or, worse, will be taken advantage of and abused. And so, for fear of continual demands upon our kindness, we lock ourselves into indifference. At other times, we find ourselves too cautious to speak out in the face of injustice because of a misguided respect for “someone else’s business” or because we are afraid anger or rejection will come down upon us. So, we lock ourselves into silence.

It is always the Spirit, however, that enables us to unlock those doors once locked by our fear. While that new power enables us to venture into a sometimes-shattering world, it does not promise we won’t be shattered in the process. All that Jesus promised is that the Spirit would bring us peace. Such peace happens to us whenever we choose not to succumb to our fears. It is indeed a new creation taking place in us, even now. ●

Pope Francis said - "We have to tell the truth, the fight for women's rights is an ongoing fight because in some places women have equality with men but in other places they do not."

Pope Francis was referring to political and social equality for women in nations. Do you believe that women have the right to decide what happens to their own bodies?

Good Shepherd Church
"Please Take a Seat!"
Memorial Fundraiser

Remember ???

Do you remember being in school and the teacher would say...

Please Take a Seat!!!

(Well WE Remember !)

Usually that meant sitting in a hard uncomfortable chair until the class or meeting was over. We want to invite all who come to learn more about our faith to a comfortable and welcoming space! Now that our tabernacle has moved to the center of our church sanctuary, we will be able to use the small chapel for prayer, meetings, presentations, and devotions. We have replaced the heavy wood chairs with lightweight, moveable, padded ones. Here is your chance to help... We are asking that you "please take a seat" (or two or more!) By helping us cover the cost of the chairs, you can have a chair memorialized and a "memory plate" will be placed on the chair. The donation is $ 50.

Order forms available at the parish Office.

Orders will be taken after all the masses on the weekend of
May 20/21.

Cash, check or charge card accepted.

Orders can also be taken at any time at the parish office

Cash or check accepted

Thank you for your continued support of Good Shepherd!

Parish Social Ministry

Senior Group

If you are 55 years of age, or older, come join us on Tuesday mornings after the 9am mass in Fellowship Hall. We are men and women who help support each other and the parish through many social activities. We celebrate birthdays this month for Donald T. on May 18th and Georgette S. on May 28th. Best wishes for a wonderful blessed day.

Friendship Garden

Friendship Garden is a place where women come to share love and laughter. We meet each Thursday morning after the 9:00 am mass in Fellowship Hall.

The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang

The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang, whose mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve, will be meeting on June 10, 2023 at 8:30 am in the Fellowship Hall.

This will be our last meeting until September.

At this time, we ask that you hold all donations until we meet again in September.

When you come to volunteer, if you are able to, please bring a jar of peanut butter (Jif spreads very easily), jelly and/or 1 loaf of white or whole wheat bread. We meet from 8:30-9:30 and if needed, 1 hour of community service will be given to those who attend.

Please help us to help those in need and support us with your time.

Just a reminder that for all of May 2023, Church of the Good Shepherd Food Pantry will receive $1 from every $2.50 Community Bag sold at:
Stop & Shop - 425 Portion Road, Lake Ronkonkoma NY
