FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Sisters and Brothers of the Parish of the Good Shepherd,

Today we celebrate PENTECOST – the 50th and final day of the Easter Season. Today we look back at the incredible wonder of God's love for us. At the Last Supper, Jesus reminds his disciples that there is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends. Yet it is to be noted that St. Paul also reminds us that in a spiritual sense, Jesus did this while we were still enemies, unreconciled with God. It is Jesus who, at that Last Supper, gives himself to us in the Institution of the Holy Eucharist. It is Jesus who promises the gift of the Father, the gift of another advocate, the Holy Spirit at that farewell gathering. It is Jesus who sheds his blood on the cross for the forgiveness of sins, reconciling us with God. It is Jesus who, through the loving power of God, fulfills his promise to his friends and rises victoriously from the dead on Easter Sunday.

Considering all of the above, I don't think we appreciate this Solemn Feast of Pentecost as greatly as we should. Today, we celebrate the gift of God's own life, God's own spirit, given to us specifically as a GIFT. Everything that God is, we receive through the power of the Holy Spirit. This gift of God's love for us is so powerfully obvious to us in the Mass and the reception of Holy Communion, the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. In a physical act of receiving the host in our mouths, we have a visual image of this spiritual food becoming one within us just as physical food is incorporated within the body for its nourishment.

What isn't as obvious is that this union with God FIRST becomes possible in the sacrament of Baptism. Indeed, we see the visual sign of the pouring of water most prominently in our minds as the washing away of Original Sin, inherited from the sin of Adam and Eve. Yet, simultaneously, the visual sign of the pouring of water, is the INVISIBLE SIGN of the outpouring of the HOLY SPIRIT of God into our immortal souls. This Holy Spirit is the very bond of the perfect, everlasting love between the Father and the Son. Everything of Who and What God is beyond our intellectual understanding, everything in that perfect bond of love, is sealed within us – just as at His Baptism the Spirit of God descended upon Jesus in the form of a dove and the words were heard – This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased.

It is on PENTECOST that this final gift from God comes in the form of “a strong driving wind...and there appeared to them tongues as of fire which parted and came to rest on each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.” Throughout the Old Testament, wind and fire have been constant signs of the manifestation of God's presence to particular individuals like Moses or Elijah. Although visibly absent, it is that same Holy Spirit which we also receive in a special way within the sacrament of CONFIRMATION. Just as the apostles were given special gifts to “speak in different tongues as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim”, so we too at confirmation, are given Seven Special gifts – Knowledge, Understanding, Wisdom, Counsel, Fortitude, Piety, Fear of the Lord to live and proclaim in our own tongue “the mighty acts of God.”

This Sacrament of Confirmation, “confirms” both the promises made by our sponsors (Godparents) at our baptism and our personal renewal of those promises before we are anointed on the forehead with Sacred Chrism (the same oil dripped on the crown of our heads at baptism and anointing the hands of a priest in Holy Orders). It also confirms the promises God has made to us in receiving us as beloved adopted children with all the rights and privileges possessed by Jesus, the Only-begotten Son of God.

I ask you to please pray for those preparing to receive this special sacrament. Our 8th graders will be confirmed by Bishop Barres this coming November, but today I also will have the special privilege of confirming adults. They have been studying and preparing for many months and I join you in those prayers that they will enjoy and revel in this moment of special union with God.

The Holy Trinity
June 4, 2023
John 3:16-18

“Yes, God so loved the world...”

Trinity Sunday praises God the Father for creating us, thank God the Son for redeeming us, and honors God the Holy Spirit for living within us. We are co-sharers in God’s creation, redemption, and inspiration.

1. Recall the times when you created a new attitude towards an old problem, saved someone or something from disaster, or encouraged a “loser” to try again.
2. Walk on the beach or in the neighborhood and give praise and thanks for the wonders of God’s creation ever-present around you.

The Most Holy Trinity (A)

Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9 / 2 Corinthians 13:11-13 / John 3:16-18

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Which of these images best describes your God: gardener, friend, policeman, Santa Claus, magician, doctor, lover, parent, judge, the Force?

Theologically, God is both transcendent and immanent, up there and down here. In other words, God is powerful, majestic, awesome, and all-knowing but always close, caring for us, forgiving, and comforting. Most of us lean toward one or the other in our spirituality. Whichever image you choose will tell you something about how you usually relate to God. None of the images are necessarily right or wrong unless it locks us into relating to God in only one way.

Our tendency to relate to God as either transcendent or immanent may influence our preference for liturgical style. If we view God primarily as transcendent, we will tend to appreciate the Mass as a sacrifice, celebrated formally with processions, incense, and majestic music. If we tend to relate to God as more immanent, we will tend to appreciate the Mass as a eucharistic meal with the community gathered around the altar table singing simpler music. As God is both transcendent and immanent, we should not have to choose. The ideal liturgical style would incorporate something of both transcendence and immanence.

Today’s story of Moses, who climbs Mount Sinai and there bows down in worship before God, is a story of the transcendence of God—majestic, powerful, awesome to behold. Today’s gospel is of an immanent God who loved the world so much that he sent his Son, not to condemn it but to save it. ●

Pope Francis said - "We have to tell the truth, the fight for women's rights is an ongoing fight because in some places women have equality with men but in other places they do not."

Pope Francis was referring to political and social equality for women in nations. Do you believe that women have the right to decide what happens to their own bodies?

Important Spiritual Information

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Parish of the Good Shepherd,

We all know the havoc the Covid-19 pandemic has played with our spiritual lives and how long it has taken all the churches to get back to a feeling of normalcy.

I am happy to announce that on the weekend of June 10/11, the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the celebration of the gift of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, we will reinstitute the custom of receiving under both species of both the host and from the chalice.

As in the past, receiving from the chalice is always a PERSONAL OPTION and no one should feel pressed to receive from the chalice if you are uncomfortable for any reason. While receiving from both the consecrated host and from the chalice has powerful sign value – one always receives Jesus Christ in his entirety – in the reception of a single species.

To begin we will add just 2 additional stations for the ministers of the cup.

Fr. Ken

Memorial Day 2023

O Lord, Our Mighty God, we honor the memory of the men and women who have fought and died for us as family, friends, country. We honor every woman and man every soldier, sailor, flier and marine who had the courage to stand in harm's way and died for the cause of freedom. To each we give thanks and praise as they made these United States of America the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave.

O Lord, Our God, strong to save, it has been written that honor and glory go to those who rely on you and who rely on your strength when they take the greatest risks. Today we continue to rely on you to give honor and glory to those who have taken those greatest risks for us and have made the greatest of sacrifices.

We remember those who fought and died for a BELIEF. We honor those who fought and died for a NECESSITY. We celebrate those who fought and died for faith in all this country stands for.

God of every nation truly, you give your servants the strength to face any grave matter. You turned to you as their strength, their rock and fortress and they did not trust in vain. Grant us to know as they knew that it is not the beginning of the battle for freedom but the continuance of the battle until it be finished which yields the true glory – the glory which is theirs today.

O God of the ages you have taught us that a life fought to protect others is a noble calling; a life given for others is a even more noble gift. Teach every American of every race, creed and background to truly appreciate those who have given us these noble gifts. And may those who have made the ultimate sacrifice, today and always rest in peace. May they rest with the knowledge that they possess the gratitude of a grateful nation.

Ordination to the Holy Priesthood

Dear Good Shepherd Parish Family,

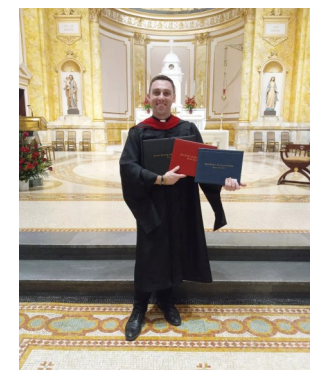

It has been seven years since I first entered seminary formation, and now I am only weeks away from being ordained a priest for our diocese. The journey to reach this point was difficult at times difficult, but the joy of serving the people never wavered. Thanks to all of you for being so supportive of me every step of the way; we truly have a blessed parish!

I would like to invite all of you to the events of Ordination Weekend. On Saturday, June 10th at 11 AM at St. Agnes Cathedral in Rockville Centre, Bishop Barres will ordain me a priest. On Sunday, June 11th at 12 Noon, I will celebrate my first Mass of Thanksgiving. Please know you are welcome to attend one or both of these events.

Let's continue to pray for each other and that more men from our parish might hear God's call to be a priest.

In Friendship,

Steven McClernon
