Most Holy Trinity (C)
Prv 6:22-31; Rom 5:1-5; Jn 16:12-15

The Trinity at first appears as the most abstract belief in Christianity. It touches the mystery of God’s nature, how he exists, and how he acts. So, yes, it is mysterious. But as with all foundational truths, they have far-reaching effects. It is essential to grasp the basics because, if not, everything you build with them will be faulty. Thus it is vital for Christians to understand and believe in the Trinity. This is a basic building block of all we believe. “The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 234).

The pope and one of the earliest councils of bishops confronted just this question of the Trinity. At the Council of Nicaea in the year 325, the bishops discussed what Jesus revealed to us about the Trinity. The fruit of their meetings nearly 1,700 years ago is the Nicene Creed that we still pray today.

The three divine persons are one and the same in their divine nature, but distinct in their relations. God the Father Almighty is the Creator of heaven and earth. Jesus Christ is the Word through whom the Father created all things and the Savior he sent into the world. The Holy Spirit is the love of the Father and Son who is sent to sanctify humanity by leading people in the truth revealed by the Father and Son. God is the Creator, Jesus the Savior, and the Holy Spirit is Sanctifier and Teacher. Three divine persons acting together with a common mission, but one God.

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name—He will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." John 14:26

The Third Pillar of Christian Stewardship: Formation

Imagine a mother being in the hospital as her child is born. She holds the baby for the first time, falls deeply in love and says “I am a mother.” After she says those words, she gets up and disappears, never seeing her child again and never loving the child.

Now, think of someone who has just come to the Faith. They have gone through RCIA, were baptized at the Easter Vigil Mass and then proceeded to go out and live an un-Christian life. There is a comparison between these two stories that teach us that to truly be something, you must live it. Being a Christian is in no way different. We need to be constantly forming our faith. We cannot become stagnant. Think of the Sacraments as workouts and our spirit as our body. The more we go to Mass, the more we go to confession, the more we adore Christ in Adoration... the more we grow as Christians.

Is the Holy Spirit guiding you to something today? Perhaps God is calling you to help others in their faith formation. God may be calling you to form the faith of others through CCD or RCIA, or maybe to guide parents and Godparents as they prepare to Baptize their child. Listen to God and speak to your pastor to see where God may want you.

Living Stewardship

Always let your faith grow. You can never have enough God! Let Him guide you to do His will and make your faith flourish.

When young people encounter Christ in their life, you have helped to empower them to live as disciples in today’s world.

“My faith is so important to me – without it I would be lost. I wouldn’t know what I would be doing right or wrong. I wouldn’t have God’s voice with me at all times.”

- Youth Ministry Participant

“It’s important to place young people in front of the Living God and to create encounters with the Sacraments and with God for the possibility of that conversion moment of instilling in them the Faith – to come face to face with God. It can change their lives.”

- Nolan Reynolds, Director, Youth Ministry
