A Bishop and a Pastor?

As we await the arrival of a new pastor and a new associate in this time of transition, some may be wondering about the place of a pastor who is also a bishop. This is not commonplace in our Diocese of Rockville Centre. But in large dioceses such as Brooklyn and New York, an auxiliary bishop often takes on the responsibility of pastoring a parish. In Brooklyn there are no less than five bishops who have this dual role of pastor and bishop.

For Bishop Robert Coyle who will soon be the spiritual leader of Good Shepherd, this role will be new for him as well as for us. As mentioned earlier, his primary focus will be on the parish. Nonetheless, there will be certain diocesan responsibilities such as confirmations, that will require his presence. The underlying reality is the priest shortage and an aging presbyterate which means more is being done by fewer priests.

As announced last weekend, Fr Lachlan Cameron will continue to reside at Good Shepherd as he begins a new ministry of campus chaplain at Stony Brook University. Over the summer you will see familiar faces with the return of Fr. Rufus for the months of July and August and Fr. Dan staying on as the weekend assistant.

Members of the staff had the opportunity to meet with Bishop Coyle this past week and members of the Transition Team will meet with him later in June. I will be working closely with the bishop in the next few weeks to provide a smooth transition and orient him to his new surroundings and the various elements of parish life here at Good Shepherd. In our recent meeting over lunch he commented on how quiet it was on the parish grounds. It was the same reaction I had when I first arrived. The tranquility of the geography hopefully reflects a peaceful spirit among those who work and worship here. After 5 years as a traveling bishop serving in the military, he looks forward to settling down in his home diocese and acclimating to parish life.

Pastoring a modern day parish is no simple task, especially as we witness a shift in Catholic identity and Catholic practice. We need only look at our own family circle to recognize this phenomenon. For that very reason I encourage you to offer your support, knowledge, and talents to the new leadership team of Bishop Coyle and Fr. Rudy. They will look to you to learn about the parish, its history and its future. They will rely upon you to begin a new era which will build upon the work that myself, Fr. Tom and others have done. I trust you will be equal to the task.

Farewell Mass

Please join me in a “Farewell Mass of Thanksgiving” on Sunday, June 24, at 12 Noon. There will be a covered-dish luncheon immediately following in Fellowship Hall. If you are attending the luncheon, please sign up at the table in the narthex.

Welcoming All...Awakening Faith.. S...

OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
We, the disciples of Jesus Christ who Worship at Good Shepherd, accept the privilege and responsibility of supporting one another in love and service, of giving witness to the Good News of salvation, thus enabling others to experience the loving presence of Our Risen Lord.

Good News!
June 17, 2018
Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)
Ez 17:22-24; 2 Cor 5:6-10; Mk 4:26-34

The kingdom of God has an inward power, an effervescence with which it is equipped, that makes it a force of growth and multiplication. Jesus compares the kingdom with a seed. You plant it in favorable soil and, you know not how, it springs up into a little plant and then eventually into a full-grown tree. Its life principle is not given by the soil—although that helps it grow—but rather it has power of itself to expand.

The Christian life and the kingdom are very much like this. At baptism we have received supernatural grace in our souls. And if given suitable support, that faith will grow and become the transformative element of our lives. It will drive us toward a life of faith, hope, and love. It will lead us to forgive others, improve society, and transform everything for good.

The same can be said of the Church, Christ’s kingdom of love. Christ planted the seed of faith in his apostles and that seed spread and thrived across all of Europe. Their faith multiplied and grew until all throughout the world the fruits of their faith are on display as a veritable kingdom of charity: hospitals, universities, soup kitchens, AIDS hospices, shelters for the battered and homeless, retreat centers, chapels, churches, museums, research and rehabilitation centers, religious orders, lay associations, volunteer groups, and the list could and does continue on and on. There is a force in faith and love that cannot be contained!

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

Church Renovation Campaign / Donor Book of Remembrance

Our Church Renovation Campaign has been a great success. Thanks goes out to the 724 parish families who helped raise a total of $1,545,000 in gifts and pledges to date. The renovation work already done has resulted in a beautiful worship space as well as major repairs to our cooling system and the church roofing. The final major project will be the replacement of the church boiler this summer.

As this four-year Capital Campaign nears its completion at the end of 2019, a final step is to arrange for the Donor Book of Remembrance to be placed in the narthex. As stated in the campaign brochure, this book will list (in alphabetical order) all of the parish families who have contributed to the campaign. A letter has been mailed to all donors to begin this process. If you would like to remain anonymous, and not have your name engraved in the donor book, please call the church office (631-588-7689) by Thursday, June 7.

Please note, this letter is different than the memorial inscription for the Tree of Life leaf. As stated in the campaign brochure, those who were able to make a most generous gift or pledge of $3,000 or more, will be given the opportunity (if you have not done so already), to have a memorial inscription leaf on the Tree of Life. A separate letter for the leaf will be mailed in the near future.

Fr. Jerry and the Campaign Committee would like to give parishioners who were not part of the parish when the active portion of the campaign was run back in the Fall of 2015, or were not able to make a donation at that time, for whatever reason, an opportunity to be part of the Book of Remembrance. Campaign giving envelopes will be placed in the pews during the weekends of June 2 & 3 and June 9 & 10. Please take one, fill it out with your gift or pledge and get it back to the parish office by Thursday, June 14. Please make checks payable to: Good Shepherd Capital Campaign. If you are using your own envelope, make sure it is marked “Campaign” on the outside. You can also use the form below or go to the parish web site, (www.goodshepherdrcchurch.org), scroll to E-Giving; Proceed to Donor Giving; Quick Gift; then Capital Campaign in drop down menu.

If you have a question on your gift/pledge, reminders, or balance remaining, please call or E-mail Joe C. (cell: 631-921-1578, email: joe81761@gmail.com)

Please tear off and return to the Parish Office or mail to the Parish Office.

Yes, I/we would like to make a gift/pledge to be included in the Donor Book of Remembrance:

☐ $1,000   ☐ $500   ☐ $250   ☐ $150   ☐ $100   ☐ $50   ☐ $25   ☐ Other $_______

☐ Check is enclosed (made payable to “Good Shepherd Capital Campaign”)

☐ I/We prefer our gift to be a monthly donation of $____ for the next 12 months. Please mail a reminder.

Happy Mother’s Day! As we join together to celebrate the wonderful Moms in our lives, let’s also take time to remember and pray for all the thousands of Moms who worry about how they are going to put food on the table for their children this week.

More than 35% of the 300,000 people on Long Island who receive emergency food each year are children under the age of 18.

Please consider supporting the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can continue to care for God’s children and their families through our Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God’s generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

For more information visit www.drvc.org/CMA or call 516-678-5800- ext. 296 Thank You!

Please make checks payable to Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang - During the month of June, the Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on June 16th and June 30th. We begin at 8:30 am. Our mission is to serve those in need and to provide an opportunity to do good for those who choose to serve. Due to the fact that after our June meetings we will not be meeting until September, please do not drop off any donations at church for the PB&J Gang. Save all of your donations for September. Thank you! If you come to volunteer in June, bring a loaf of white or wheat bread. Our supply of peanut butter and jelly is sufficient at this time.

We need the following items for our wash-up kits: new or gently used towels, sample size soap, shampoo and lotion. Please bring these items with you or drop them off at church. Label them “For the PB&J Gang.” Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine. We look forward to having you help us to help those in need.

Senior Group - Please join us after the 9:00 mass on Tuesday mornings. All 55+ are welcome.

Food Pantry - We are in need of cold cereal. Thank you for your generosity.

HUGS from God

Happy Father's Day! Our June Hugs From God meeting is this Wednesday, June 20th, at 7:30 p.m. We meet downstairs at the church in room 1.

We knit and crochet prayer shawls and baby blankets to give to others who need a "hug from God." Come and join us. All you need is the desire to help and we'll show you how Do you know a Senior who is about to graduate from High School?

It is that time of year again – graduation! As many of our teens move onto college, you can help them continue their journey of faith.

Many colleges, secular and parochial, provide a Newman Center for incoming Catholic students. These Centers provide pastoral support and ministry to students, in addition to providing a space to meet other catholic students interested in growing in their faith.

Please send graduate’s first and last name and college they will be attending via email to campusministry@drvc.org. The respective Newman Connection campus leader will be informed and will welcome the student when they arrive in the fall.
