Reflections on the Past, a Look to the Future

These last few weeks of my time here as pastor of Good Shepherd, has prompted me to reflect on the past five years and all that has transpired. I am grateful for the privilege of serving the people of the parish and being your spiritual leader. Five years cannot compare to the thirty years that Fr. Tom pastored this parish, but I hope that in my tenure the parish has moved forward and the vision of welcoming all, awakening faith and serving others has been fulfilled in some way.

Many people have been asking about what my future will be like, where I will be living, and what retirement will mean for me. As for my residence, I will be residing in a one-family home in the hamlet of Laurel which is on the north fork of Long Island near Mattituck. For many years a close priest friend of mine and I have shared this residence, a kind of getaway on my day off, which will now be my full time residence. Beginning in September I will be the weekend assistant at St. Elizabeth of Hungary Parish in Melville, similar to Fr. Dan’s role here at Good Shepherd. I also plan to devote more time to my role as Diocesan Spiritual Advisor to the St. Vincent de Paul Society. No doubt new opportunities will emerge which will enable me to share my priestly gifts and talents in the future. In that respect I think this next phase of my life is more like “semi-retirement.” Those who have retired repeatedly tell me that I will be quite busy in the days ahead based on their experience.

Another aspect of retirement is the opportunity for leisure time. I don’t mean time to loaf around or turn into a couch potato. Rather leisure creates the opportunity for prayer and study, the pursuit of special interests, developing new talents, etc., without the pressure of overseeing a large suburban parish. Several people have also suggested that I continue to write. With that in mind I intend to pursue some avenue in social media, such as a blog, that will provide a platform to communicate to a larger audience. Stay tuned.

This new chapter in my life is both scary and exciting, things known and unknown. But there is nothing unknown about the past. My 46 years of priesthood has been an immeasurable gift and privilege., a way of life few choose and few can comprehend. For me it has been tremendously fulfilling, yet at the same time a mix of joys and sorrows. The changing role of today’s pastor requires a variety of skills and talents, knowledge and wisdom, courage and perseverance. He is the bearer of the vision and the initiator of change- no easy task. He leads the people of God in a post Vatican II era in an ever more secular world. In weaker moments I have asked myself how this can be done. I would have to say it is no less than the grace of the Holy Spirit that makes this even possible - or should I say miraculous. And God will continue to raise up those who choose this narrow path and the priesthood will continue on. And the people of God will rejoice.

“For surely the hand of the Lord was with him.”

1. Like John, we are all called to be prophets. How do you feel about that? When/how have you been a bold and courageous prophet to the people?
2. Recall a time when “the hand of the Lord” was with you. Was it the hand you expected?

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang

The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on June 30\(^{th}\). We begin at 8:30 am. This will be our last meeting until September.

Our mission is to serve those in need and to provide an opportunity to do good for those who choose to serve. Due to the fact that we will not be meeting during the summer months, please do not drop off any donations at church for the PB&J Gang. Save all of your donations for September. Thank you!

If you come to volunteer on June 30\(^{th}\), bring a loaf of white or wheat bread with you. Our supply of peanut butter and jelly is sufficient at this time. Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine.

We look forward to having you help us to help those in need.

Senior Group

Please join us after the 9:00 mass on Tuesday mornings. All 55+ are welcome.

Food Pantry

We are in need of cold cereal. Thank you for your generosity.
