Dear friends in Christ,

A blessed Summer!

Many blessings upon you and your families.

Our Lord Jesus would often go off to a private place to pray and spend time with his close followers. Many of the events recorded in Holy Scriptures took place by the seashore. How blessed we are on Long Island to have the North and South Shore beaches!

The parish will have the regular schedule of Masses for the summer. Please consult the bulletin for the ongoing events that will take place over the summer, especially Vacation Bible School for our parish children.

I am happy to announce Father John Rufus will again spend the months of July and August with us at the parish. He is most generous to travel from his home diocese in India to be with us here in Holbrook.

God bless you!

Ordinary People Connecting Life & Faith

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 30, 2019

“No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

1. When in your life have you been called to change direction (put your hand to a different “plow”) because of your desire to be a follower of Jesus?
2. What does it mean to your everyday life to be a follower of Jesus?

OUR PARISH VISION STATEMENT
Welcoming All...Awakening Faith...
Serving Others...

OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
We, the disciples of Jesus Christ who Worship at Good Shepherd, accept the privilege and responsibility of supporting one another in love and service, of giving witness to the Good News of salvation, thus enabling others to experience the loving presence of Our Risen Lord.

Good News!
June 30, 2019
Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)
1 Kgs 19:16b, 19-21; Gal 5:1, 13-18; Lk 9:51-62

One characteristic of Luke’s Gospel is that he arranges most of Christ’s preaching within a long journey from Galilee to Jerusalem. Jesus leaves behind his home in the north and travels south toward Jerusalem, where his passion and death await. This steady focus on his true homeland is often depicted on early Christian tombs. What better thing to put on a tomb than Jesus’ focus on heaven!

A farmer who plows a furrow or tills between rows of crops can’t be looking back at what he has already plowed or he will inevitably stray off course. He keeps looking forward toward the end of the line. In the same way, we can’t constantly look back at the pleasures, opportunities, and goods we have left behind to follow our Lord.

Elisha burns his plow in sacrifice and also to express his definitive yes to the call. Like an explorer who burns his ships upon reaching a new land, his acceptance of Elijah’s invitation to be a prophet of Yahweh is total; there’s no turning back.

As disciples of Jesus, we’re called to a yes with no ifs, ands, or buts. Contradictory as this may seem, this is true freedom. Freedom isn’t doing what we want when we want. That’s actually slavery to our whims and constantly changing passions. We go nowhere and build nothing. Real freedom is having an unbounded capacity to recognize the truth, choose what’s good, and live in the beauty of a life directed toward where we’ve set our hearts and minds.

“Aladdin” – This live adaptation of Disney’s 1992 animated film, follows the lovable street urchin, Aladdin, as he falls in love with Princess Jasmine and becomes friends with the wish-granting Genie. Beautifully filmed, with magnificent sets and well-staged musical numbers. Director Guy Ritchie, who also co-wrote the script, does a masterful job mixing reality with CGI Technology. So much so, that even Aladdin’s faithful companion, Abu, the monkey, and the flying carpet, seem so real. You can’t help but become entranced watching Aladdin and Jasmine take the magic carpet ride against the stunning night sky as they sing “A Whole New World”. Excellent performances by Mena Massoud and Naomi Scott. Will Smith holds his own as the Genie, not an easy task for a role that belongs to Robin Williams. This is a charming, sweet film about love, tradition, humanity, self-sacrifice and friendship.

“Rocketman” – Based on the early life of rock star Elton John, this biographical musical fantasy tells the story of how a famous and wealthy man almost brings himself to the depths of his own demise by becoming addicted to alcohol, drugs and sex all because he grew up believing that no one would ever love him. Adored by millions, and yet he was filled with incredible loneliness, it is a heartbreaking story and a miracle that he is still standing. Director Dexter Fletcher does a great job bringing us lavish production numbers filled with incredible music. Terrific cast, led by Taron Egerton, who is just phenomenal in the lead role. Overall, this is a well made film, impeccable and appealing. However, the scenes depicting John’s open lifestyle and relationships contain strong sexual content and are over the top. Without these scenes, the movie would have been just as good, or even better.

“Dark Phoenix” – This twelfth installment in the “X-Men” film series centers around Jean Grey, one of the most powerful of the mutants. During a rescue mission, Jean is overtaken by a cosmic force which gives her an unstable power that she cannot control thus pitting her against her family of X-Men. We have come to love many of these X-Men characters, such as Xavier, Magneto, Raven, Storm and, of course, Logan, and some of these movies have been very good. “Dark Phoenix” seems to be missing something. Directed and written by Simon Kinberg, this version lacks the cohesiveness and intensity of the other chapters. Sophie Turner (from “Game of Thrones” fame) who portrays Grey, does her best with the lines she’s given, as does the entire cast. With one exception, Michael Fassbender’s outstanding performance just might be worth the price of admission.

“Men in Black: International” – In this reboot of the 1997 MIB, a devoted rookie and an experienced agent team up to hunt down extraterrestrials on Earth as well as to find the mole inside their agency. Director F. Gary Gray gives us a fun and exciting ride. With a cast that includes Liam Neeson, Emma Thompson, Chris Hemsworth and Tessa Thompson. It is Tessa Thompson’s performance that carries this movie. She is just terrific. If they do make a sequel, they will need to rename the series to “Men & Women in Black”.

“Shaft” – In this fifth film in the “Shaft” series, an FBI data analyst joins forces with his father, John Shaft, to find out who killed his best friend. Samuel L. Jackson is Shaft, Richard Roundtree is Shaft Sr. and Jessie Usher is Shaft Jr. That pretty much explains it all. The film is violent, crass, contains vulgar language and inappropriate behavior. This is not the movie for those of you who will find this offensive. But, if you can put that aside and just accept it for what it is, you will find it funny and entertaining. At the center of it all, it does have a moral compass and that is love, family and friendship.
