My Last Column

Ever since I became a pastor in 1989, I have written a weekly column to my parishioners. With each pastorate I would modify the title of the column to reflect the parish to which I was newly appointed. Thus at St. Peter the Apostle it was called, “Aboard the Vessel” referring to the bark or ship of St. Peter who was a fisherman. In Levittown at St. Bernard’s the title of the column was “Clairvaux Chronicle” referring to the first monastery founded by St. Bernard in Clairvaux, France. When I arrived at Good Shepherd, taking the lead from the rustic setting of the church building and the outdoor life of a shepherd, I named the column, “Green Pastures.”

And now that I am approaching retirement in just a few days, this will be my last column as a full-time pastor. I have found this weekly task challenging, creative, and enriching. I hope my readers have felt the same. The feedback I have received suggests that the effort has been worthwhile, and I hope to continue writing by way of a media platform such as a blog in the days to come.

Although this final column is a way of saying good-bye which literally means “God-be-with-you,” it is really a way of saying thank you…. thank you for reading, for listening, and for responding. It’s been a joy!

A Time to Welcome

This coming Wednesday, June 27, the official appointment of Bishop Robert Coyle as pastor and Fr. Rudy Pesongco as associate pastor takes effect. Upon their arrival I know you will welcome them and support them as they begin their new ministry and a new era at Good Shepherd. Let’s hold them in prayer and seek the Spirit’s strength and guidance in the days to come.

Next Sunday, July 1, after the 12 Noon Mass there will be a simple reception for Bishop Coyle and Fr. Rudy in Fellowship Hall, an occasion to meet and greet as they are welcomed to the parish.

2. What are the daily routines that drain you in your faith life?

July 1, 2018
Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)
Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24, 2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15
Mk 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35b-43

Michelangelo’s statue The Pietà, finished before he turned twenty-four, expresses a theme Italians didn’t enjoy seeing in art: death. Even worse, it recalls the torturous death of a crucified son held by his mourning mother. The image is horrific.

In his approach, Michelangelo is revolutionary. Rather than directly representing death, his statue is a meditation on it. Instead of showing the Virgin in the moment of extreme anguish, the normal strategy to achieve pity in the onlooker, the master decides to show Mary in humble acceptance of this heart-wrenching moment.

She doesn’t fight or run from the pain in rebellious screams. Her teeth aren’t clenched, her brow is unwrinkled, and her eyes aren’t filled with tears imploring upward seeking to understand the illogical. She merely sits in the painful moment embracing the Son and abandoning her sorrow to the Father who permitted it.

Her hands reveal her attitude. One holds her Son under his arm firmly. She pulls him to her, sustaining the weight of the mystery. She absorbs the moment, fleeing not. Remaining in the pain, she endures the cost of our redemption, expressing her fiat again, in silence: Let it be done to me according to your word.

The other hand tilts toward us, open. She is letting go, giving over! She knows this Child in her arms was never only hers, but everyone’s. We’re invited to grasp her open hand, join her pain, and do our part to take up our own cross and follow him.

2018 Catholic Ministries Appeal

Happy Mother’s Day! As we join together to celebrate the wonderful Moms in our lives, let’s also take time to remember and pray for all the thousands of Moms who worry about how they are going to put food on the table for their children this week.

More than 35% of the 300,000 people on Long Island who receive emergency food each year are children under the age of 18.

Please consider supporting the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can continue to care for God’s children and their families through our Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God’s generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

For more information visit www.drvc.org/CMA or call 516-678-5800- ext. 296  Thank You!

Please make checks payable to Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang
The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on June 30th. We begin at 8:30 am. This will be our last meeting until September.

Our mission is to serve those in need and to provide an opportunity to do good for those who choose to serve.

Due to the fact that we will not be meeting during the summer months, please do not drop off any donations at church for the PB&J Gang. Save all of your donations for September. Thank you!

If you come to volunteer on June 30th, bring a loaf of white or wheat bread with you. Our supply of peanut butter and jelly is sufficient at this time.

Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine. We look forward to having you help us to help those in need.

Senior Group
Please join us after the 9:00 mass on Tuesday mornings. All 55+ are welcome.

Food Pantry
We are in need of toothpaste, toothbrushes, shampoo, conditioner, paper towels and canned pasta. Thank you for your generosity.

Council Corner

At our May meeting we voted for, and now welcome, new council members: Bill Ayers, Peter Bulla, Eileen Polis and Jack Wrightson.

We also discussed parish social activities and parishioners’ concerns.

We value your opinions so if you have any questions or concerns you would like members to discuss please let us know.
“Deadpool 2” – The sequel picks up where the first “Deadpool” left off. Filled with quick-witted humor, super hero clichés, plenty of wise cracks and graphic-bloody scenes…it’s everything you expected. This film, like the first one, makes no excuses for what it is. Is it for everyone? Absolutely not. Is it appropriate for the younger audience who really want to see it? No way. For that matter, some of the scenes are not appropriate for me! Yes, it is funny and you will laugh. Yet, still underneath it all, it can be very moving as well. These characters suffer real loss and disappointment. Put all the other stuff aside, it really is about love, family, friendship and doing the right thing. Take away all the crude jokes and rude behavior and this would be a really good film because of its strong story line. But then, again, it wouldn’t be Deadpool.

“Solo: A Star Wars Story” – This is the story of a young orphaned boy who dreams of becoming the best fighter pilot for the Imperial Navy. Circumstance leads him on a path where he befriends his faithful companion, Chewbecca and a life-long friend, Lando Calrissian, not to mention ownership of the Millennium Falcon. Not sure if I really wanted to see this movie. After all, who could possibly portray such an iconic character like Han Solo, other than Harrison Ford? In genuine Star Wars tradition, with director Ron Howard at the helm and a screenplay penned by Jonathan and Lawrence Kasdan, here is a film that stands on its own merit. Alden Ehrenreich plays the young Solo, bringing all those intricate details to life and leaving none of Ford’s Solo mannerisms behind. This is a terrific movie! From the characters to the action sequences, it is visually stunning. Well written and directed with a stellar cast, that includes Woody Harrelson, Donald Glover and Emilia Clarke. Take the entire family and enjoy.

“Adrift” – Based on a true story of a young couple who are hired to transport a yacht from Tahiti to San Diego and end up sailing directly into Hurricane Raymond in September 1983. Besides being a love story, here is a story of incredible survival against all odds, the strength and determination to overcome the impossible, and the unbelievable power of the human mind and soul.

“Ocean’s 8” – Danny Ocean’s sister, Debbie, has been planning the greatest heist of all time over the past five years, eight months and twelve days during her prison stint. Now paroled, she and her old friend Lou, hand-pick the other six members to get the job done. Great chemistry between Sandra Bullock and Cate Blanchett is what makes this one work. Quick, concise, clean, fun to watch. The direction lags in spots and the writing could have used a little editing to take this film to another level. Probably one of the best lines in the film comes from Debbie Ocean, “A ‘him’ gets noticed, a ‘her’ gets ignored. And for once, we want to be ignored”.

“Hotel Artemis” - LA 2028…riots in the streets with police battling protestors and where the criminals have their own members-only hospital known as the Hotel Artemis. This hospital is run by a Nurse and has its own set of rules that must be enforced. Break a rule and your membership is voided. On this particular night, the hospital is full with no vacancies. Well-written and directed with a really good cast. Jodi Foster is just brilliant as the Nurse. Besides the make-up that gives her that older and tired look from a hard and difficult life, it’s that added hitch in her walk that really makes her character pop. Yes, this movie definitely has its share of violence and bloodshed. It is not for everyone. But, when all is said and done, there truly is honor among thieves.
