Peter’s Pence Collection

This weekend, June 29/30 we will take the Peter’s Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)
Is 66:10-14c; Gal 6:14-18; Lk 10:1-12, 17-20

There’s a current in modern Protestantism that is popularly called the “prosperity gospel.” Although rejected by many Protestants, it still has its disciples. Its basic tenet is that if you’re faithful and generous with God, he will bless you with prosperity in this life. The kind of prosperity expected is usually health and wealth. The natural conclusion is that economic blessings are signs of your faith. The opposite would also be true. If you are poor, you just might lack faith or God’s favor.

Without a doubt, God promises us prosperity. Just look at the prophecy of Isaiah in today’s reading. Yet, as always for Christians, we have to read the Old Testament in the light of Christ and his revelation in the New Testament. The life of Jesus, the Son of God, was the most prosperous life ever lived. Yet, he wasn’t rewarded with material wealth. In fact, he was downright poor. Although he was faithful and generous, God blessed him with challenges and, ultimately, the cross.

Paul didn’t glory in his apostolic successes but in the cross of Jesus. He knew that the victory of the cross was his greatest treasure. He saw in his difficulties not a curse but a sign of his true authenticity as a follower of Christ.

We should no doubt strive for sufficient material progress and prosperity for ourselves, our family, our business, and our nation. But above all we should strive for eternal prosperity, which is living and rejoicing that our names are written in heaven, whether we are materially wealthy or not.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

Garden Ministry

Adopt-a-Garden
The plants have been safely tucked into the ground and we have a watering crew. But...if you, your family, or a group of friends would like to Adopt-a-Garden for the summer we would be grateful for your help. Spot weeding and cutting dead flowers in your adopted space would keep the grounds looking beautiful.

Contact garden ministry at j buckshaw@verizon.net to offer your help in one of these spaces:

- Atrium
- Grundy avenue gardens
- Rose beds along the circular drive
- Stations of the Cross gardens
- Angel Hill

Good Shepherd Parish is ever grateful for the beautiful work and setting provided by the Garden Ministry volunteers.
