Pastor’s Notes

Thank you for the warm welcome for Father Rudy and myself. We look forward to serving at Good Shepherd.

We keep Msgr. Jerry Ringenback always in our hearts and prayers. We are ever grateful for his ministry to the parish and the diocese.

We are greatly blessed by a familiar face this summer. Father Rufus is with us for the months of July and August.

Enjoy the summer and time with family and friends. September will be here sooner than we would like!

May the Good Shepherd continue to bless you.

Ordinary People Connecting Life & Faith

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 22, 2018
Mark 6:30-34
"Come by yourselves to an out-of-the-way place and rest a little."

1. Where is the "out-of-the-way place" that gives you peace? Why do you feel this way about this place?

2. When have you tried to escape the needs of others only to find that their needs for your attention were greater than your need to be away from it all? How did you feel about the demands placed on you?

Good News!
July 22, 2018
Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)
Jer 23:1-6; Eph 2:13-18; Mk 6:30-34

In his 1622 painting The Penitent St. Mary Magdalene, Giovanni Francesco Barbieri, known as Guercino, portrays Mary Magdalene with shoulders uncovered and disheveled hair. These details remind us of her shameful past without defining her present. Rather, it is her humble, penitent spirit from which her heroic love for Jesus springs. The sinful Mary, who had been forgiven so much, is also one who has loved much.

One angel holds out before her the symbols of the passion to remind Magdalene of the ransom her Beloved paid to set her free from sin. A second angel pointing to heaven reminds her that these nails no longer bind him. Or as the angel would tell Mary Magdalene in the garden, “He is not here, he has risen.”

Many mistakenly conflate Mary Magdalene with the unknown woman from Luke 7:36-50. The woman offers an act of humility by breaking into the dinner party of Simon and sobbing over the feet of Jesus. She bathes his feet with tears of repentance and dries them with her lovely hair. Despite the confusion, we admire this woman’s and Mary’s humility. Neither were too proud to repent.

The painting is called The Penitent St. Mary Magdalene because Mary looks purposely like a person kneeling in confession. Speaking with head downcast, she admits her failures. And as in confession, the representative of God sits on the other side encouraging her to consider Jesus’ passion, love, and mercy. The angel in the center reminds Mary to whom she is really confessing. By pointing to heaven we are all reminded of the source from whom all forgiveness comes.

Happy Mother’s Day! As we join together to celebrate the wonderful Moms in our lives, let’s also take time to remember and pray for all the thousands of Moms who worry about how they are going to put food on the table for their children this week.

More than 35% of the 300,000 people on Long Island who receive emergency food each year are children under the age of 18.

Please consider supporting the work of the Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can continue to care for God’s children and their families through our Parish Outreach programs and Catholic Charities.

Our hope is that each family will make a gift. We cannot ask everyone to consider the same size gift, but after prayer and reflection, each family is invited to make a gift in response to God’s generosity in their lives.

No gift is too small and all gifts make a difference in the lives of others!

For more information visit www.drvc.org/CMA or call 516-678-5800- ext. 296  Thank You!

Please make checks payable to Catholic Ministries Appeal.

ATTENTION

Please do not use the Coates Avenue driveway to enter the parish grounds as this is an exit only driveway, entry only for the residence. All entries should be made off Grundy Avenue.
Dear Parishioners,

The Farewell Mass of Thanksgiving on June 24 was everything I had hoped for. But I was glad to express my thanks at all the Masses that weekend. Your words of affirmation and appreciation to me will remain with me and encourage me to continue my priestly ministry in new ways. The past five years have been a wonderful experience of serving the Lord in Green Pastures as your shepherd.

I also wish to thank you for your cards and gifts as well as the festive covered dish luncheon. All ate and were satisfied! The planning committee headed by Christine Burns did an outstanding job – my thanks to all of them as well.

As I mentioned in a previous bulletin, I will be residing on the north fork of Long Island.
My new address is 1367 Aldrich Lane, Laurel, New York 11948

No doubt I will be returning to Good Shepherd for various events, so I look forward to being in touch with you in the days ahead. Until then may the Lord bless you and keep you in his heart.

-Fr. Jerry Ringenback

HUGS FROM GOD
Come in out of the heat! Join us in room 1 in the air conditioned church basement Wednesday, July 18th, at 7:30 p.m.
We knit and crochet prayer shawls and baby blankets to give to others who need a "hug from God." All you need is the desire to help and we'll show you how!

Wherever you are in the United States you can always find the closest church by visiting http://www.masstimes.org.

Angry

Herod promised to have John killed. The deed was done, but the king was very sad.
He made a foolish promise.

But during the party,

King Herod gave a great party on his birthday.
