Extraordinary Ministers

The Extraordinary Ministers congratulate Cathy Doran, who was recently commissioned as a minister on Sunday, June 30, 2019. We also welcome Richard and Celia Selmer, Jerry and Lori Patalano, and Michael Hellstrom, who have joined the Good Shepherd parish and will be serving as Extraordinary Ministers at our Sunday liturgies.

Please keep these ministers in your prayers as they begin serving the people of our parish.

We also extend our deepest and heartfelt condolences to the family of Bill Reynolds, especially his wife, Melinda, their children and grandchildren. Bill, a long time parishioner, who served as an EM at the Sunday 7am mass for many years, passed away on July 8, 2019. He will be truly missed.

The Israelites had beenunkind to the poor.

“Toy Story 4” – Woody, Buzz and the entire gang of beloved toys are back again as they set out on a new adventurous journey. This fourth installment of Pixar’s “Toy Story” series is just as heartfelt, wholesome, touching and uplifting as its predecessors. These stories never get old and the characters are never stale. Woody, Buzz, Jessie, Bo Peep, Rex, Hamm, Slinky Dog, Mr. & Mrs. Potato Head, not to mention the new additions - Forky, Ducky, Bunny, Gabby, Gabby and the creepy ventriloquist dummies, and, of course, the highly entertaining Duke Caboom (voiced by Keanu Reeves). Who could ask for more? The animation has become so top notch that it’s very easy to forget that you are watching an animated movie about toys. And then there is the storyline, it’s sentimental, poignant, and filled with so many life lessons. These movies are about belonging, family, devotion, loyalty, friendship, love and even romance. It is hard to find a franchise of films with such consistently high quality, excellent writing, directing, musical score, animation and voice-overs then this one. Yes, you will laugh, but you will also find tears in your eyes more often than you want to admit. Rumor has it, that this will be the last one. Let’s hope not. Perhaps, “to infinity and beyond…”

“Anna” – This highly entertaining film takes place in 1985 Russia, and follows the destructive path of a beautiful assassin, with the KGB on one side and the CIA on the other. Reminiscent of two recent films that are similar “Red Sparrow” and “Atomic Blonde”, we find the main character thrown into a position where she doesn’t seem to have any way out. Like those two films, this film also contains extreme violence, strong sexual content and offensive language. This is for adults only, and even then, a limited adult audience. With some very good performances, including Helen Mirren, who is superb. There are more twists and turns in this film than a roller coaster ride. It’s sad, because if you removed the sexual content and the crude language, you would have an interesting storyline and a good movie that many people could have enjoyed.

“Spider-Man: Far From Home” – The much awaited sequel is finally here and it doesn’t disappoint. This time we find Peter Parker, our hometown hero, setting off to travel to Europe on a summer trip with his high school class. He has one plan, to try to court his classmate MJ. Well, we all know what happens to best made plans, especially if S.H.I.E.L.D.’s Nick Fury needs your help combating a mysterious creature, whose target is - you guessed it – Europe. It’s funny, and sweet, and action-packed. On one hand, we have this incredible super hero, Spider-Man and then, there is Peter, who is so innocent and just wants to be a regular high school kid. Tom Holland is absolutely perfect in this role. With an outstanding cast, including Samuel L. Jackson, Jake Gyllenhaal, Zendaya, Jon Favreau and Marisa Tomei. Terrific direction by Jon Watts and well written by Chris McKenna and Erik Sommers. Although he is only sixteen, Peter begins to learn that with power comes much responsibility. Take the family and enjoy. Just can’t wait for the next installment.

“Yesterday” – During a brief global blackout, a bus hits a struggling singer and when he awakens, he finds he is the only person who can remember the music of The Beatles. You know what comes next. He makes his career by “borrowing” Lennon/McCartney tunes and begins to become famous, only to finally realize what is most important in life. This charming, sweet movie is such a delight. What a clever and interesting premise! Well written by Richard Curtis and skillfully directed by Danny Boyle. Himesh Patel is terrific and not a bad singer and guitar player either. Whether you are a fan or not, it would be a strange and sad world without their music in deed.

“Stuber” – A LA police detective, who just had Lasik eye surgery, gets a hot tip on a cop-killer and hires an Uber driver to pursue him. What could have been a very funny concept ends up being a silly, violent movie with crude jokes that try to pass for humor. The characters are as opposite as you can find and the actors try their best to make it work, but in the end, the script just fails.
