FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Parish of The Good Shepherd,

THIS IS MY BODY WHICH IS GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD...WHICH WILL BE Poured OUT FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS. DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Words that are very familiar to us, but which of those words do Catholics (and all Christianity) not understand? There is nothing in those words spoken at the Last Supper (a meal when bread and wine are consumed) which can in any way be misunderstood.

The 2019 Pew Survey on the Eucharist strongly suggested that 69% of Catholics in the U.S. believe that the Eucharist we celebrate is merely "Symbolic" of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Just 31% of Catholics in the U.S. say that they believe that the bread and wine actually become the body and blood of Jesus.

Granted that these numbers are four years old and if anything, a new poll today may reveal even more alarming numbers. Nevertheless, even with the possibility of error, the results say a great deal. Certainly, there are times in the gospels when Jesus is using what is called "Semitic exaggeration". Without thinking, we also do it today when we speak about an athlete who is performing extremely high level by saying "he's on fire". It's a figure of speech which we commonly understand in the figurative sense. At times Jesus does the same in making an important teaching point. A notable and recognizable example of this is when Jesus says that if your eye or hand causes you to sin – cut it off. It is better to enter the Kingdom of God (Heaven) blind or crippled than Gehenna (Hell) with both eyes or hands. Jesus is teaching that the eye or the hand is not at fault for the commission of the sin of lust or stealing, but a person's inner heart, spirit and desires. We are not to abuse ourselves in this way, otherwise we'd all be blinded or crippled.

Yet this is NOT the case on Holy Thursday. Jesus speaks of giving the gift of himself which is TO BE TAKEN LITERALLY and exactly. The Eucharist is truly and completely Christ's presence in the visible forms of Bread and Wine. During the first centuries of Christianity, there wasn't the slightest doubt that this is exactly what Jesus meant. And yet in the 6th chapter of John's Gospel Jesus states that he is the "LIVING BREAD" come down from heaven AND unless "YOU EAT THE FLESH OF THE SON OF MAN AND DRINK HIS BLOOD YOU HAVE NO LIFE WITHIN YOU". What is it in those words which are unclear? For Jesus lost a number of his followers who could not accept what he said.

I'm fairly certain that you've heard it said in church the teaching of the Second Vatican Council that "the Eucharist is the source and summit" of our Catholic Identity and our spiritual lives. Those seven words may seem fairly pedestrian, but in reality, through the death and the resurrection of Jesus, they state the foundation of everything which comes afterward in our faith, the body which is GIVEN UP for us is RAISED UP so that we might participate in his life. So how is it that this foundational teaching seems to be brushed aside?

There are a number of reasons (none of them pretty) for this lack of faith, this lack of knowledge and understanding which we can explore in depth in coming days. I write this column, however, not to be pessimistic, but to provide the opportunity for members of our parish to demonstrate their belief in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist by coming together for Eucharistic Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament every TUESDAY at noon to 1pm beginning on Tuesday 12 September.

The Universal Church has come to the realization that we cannot assume that the youngest generation of Catholics (and their parents) believe what Catholics have taken for granted for centuries. The time has come when we who do acknowledge Christ's REAL PRESENCE in the EUCHARIST gather to ask his intercession and strength in proclaiming his true presence in the sacrament by word and action. I invite everyone who is able to come and live the words we sing, perhaps without thought during the Christmas Season, "Come, Let Us Adore Him!"

Dear Parishioners of Good Shepherd,

Because of the increasing number of people testing positive for Covid and a similar increase of hospitalizations, with sadness, beginning today, we will no longer be offering the chalice with the precious blood. I feel it prudent to take this precaution in the light of the number of warnings from health professionals advising greater caution and awareness at this time. Fr. Ken

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Jer 20:7-9 • Rom 12:1-2 • Mt 16:21-27

In 1937, The Cost of Discipleship by a German Lutheran pastor, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, was published. The book reflected on the Sermon on the Mount, and the demands it outlined led to Bonhoeffer’s arrest and eventual death at the hands of the Nazis. It can be very dangerous to be faithful to Jesus’ way of life. This shouldn’t surprise us. Jesus’ teaching cost Jesus his life.

Though the Gospel reading does not provide us with a program of action, it repeats Jesus’ charge to take up our cross and follow him. This cross is different for each of us; it makes very personal demands. We are called to lose our life for his sake. This was true at the time of Jesus; it is true today.

This was true at the time of the prophet Jeremiah as well. He was called to proclaim God’s word to his own people. They would not listen. Instead, “I am an object of laughter; / everyone mocks me” (Jeremiah 20:7). The prophet wants relief from his prophetic responsibility. Who wouldn’t? What follows is quite moving. He makes up his mind that he will stop talking about God—but he can’t. “It [the word of God] is as if fire is burning in my heart... / I grow weary holding back” (Jeremiah 20:9). That is the cost Jeremiah had to pay. The cross was the cost Jesus paid. And what of us?

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults – A journey in Faith

Are you interested in becoming a Catholic or receiving the sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist? Do you know someone who needs to complete the reception of their sacraments or is feeling spiritually lost?

Today, for various reasons, many people are interested or perplexed about what it is to be a Catholic. The Rite Of Christian Initiation (RCIA) is the process or the JOURNEY OF FAITH by which unbaptized adults are brought into the Catholic Faith OR adults who have never received the sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Communion are fully initiated.

The RCIA Journey of Faith begins on Tuesday September 26th right here at Good Shepherd Church. We meet in the church library between 7 & 8pm for instruction, discussion and guidance. During this hour, by participation in Sunday Mass (we begin attending mass formally as a group on the 1st Sunday of Advent December 3rd and every Sunday thereafter) and other celebrations, individuals will gradually be initiated into the community of the faithful, culminating in the celebration of the Easter Vigil and Pentecost.

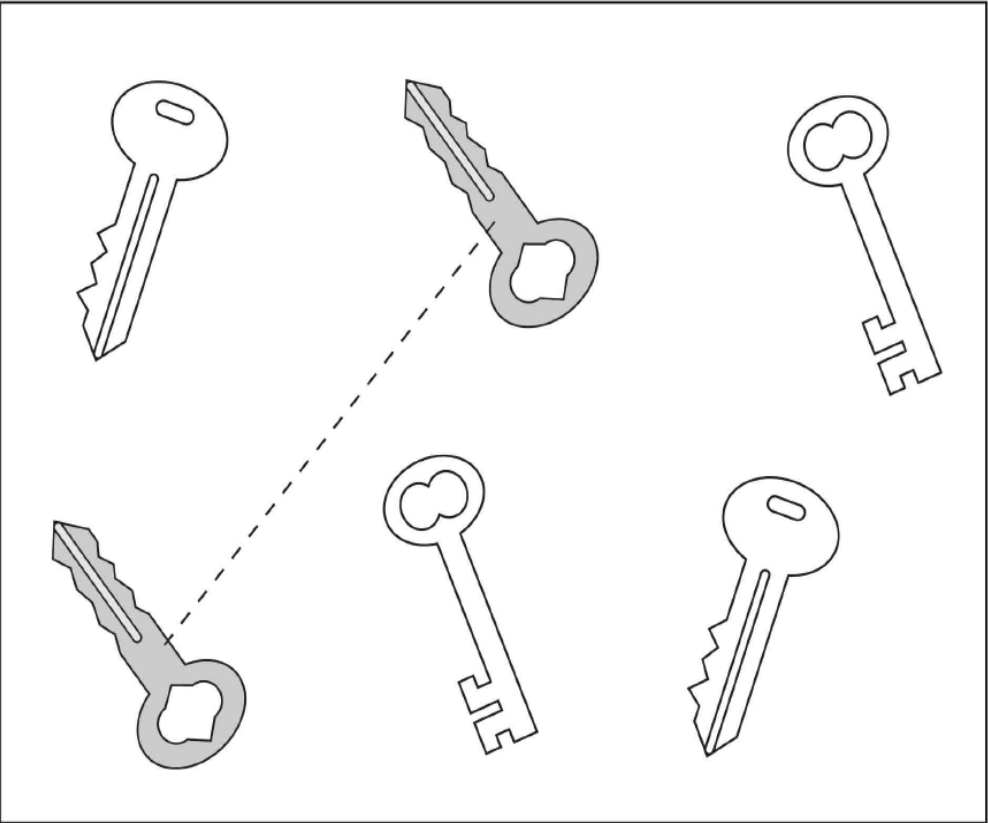

If interested, please leave your name and number at the church office and we will be most happy to contact you and answer any questions you might have.

Peace,
your brothers and sisters in faith at Good Shepherd Roman Catholic Church.

Mass for Peace

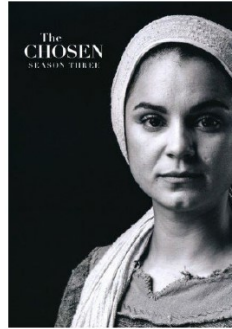

Voices throughout our parish speak of a desire for peace. As we remember the events of September 11, 2001, let us put those words into action.

Join us on September 10, 2023 at the noon mass as we gather as one to light a candle and pray for peace in our communities and in the world.

“The light shines in the darkness and the darkness can never extinguish it.” John 1:15

The Chosen - Season 3

Coming soon – Season Three of The Chosen.

Starting September 14th and continuing for 8 weeks every Thursday Night at 7PM in Fellowship Hall. We invite all those who joined us to view season one and season two over the past two years to continue their journey. We also invite those who may have seen The Chosen “on their own” but would like to delve deeper and learn more about Jesus and the apostles. As we have said before, we are offering a guided tour of the program and we promise to give you many insights into the gospels, the connections to the Old Testament and what may have been going on in the life of Jesus and the Apostles at that time.

Pope Francis said: “There is a great need to listen to and to hear one another. It is the most precious and life-giving gift we can offer each other. Listening without prejudice and openly, gives rise to speaking according to God's style, nurtured by closeness, compassion and tenderness. We have a pressing need for communication that kindles hearts, that is balm on wounds and that shines light on the journey of our brothers and sisters.”

How are we doing at really listening and hearing each other according to God's style?

If you would like to share your personal response with the parish in a future bulletin, please fill out the section below and drop it in the box in front of the main office. All submissions will remain anonymous. You can also email goodshepherdstaf@aol.com with your response.

Community Garden Project

Let's get the children more connected to what God has created for everyone to enjoy and appreciate!

The Garden Ministry proudly announces

The Good Shepherd Community Garden Project

The plan: Over the next few months, we will be adding garden beds behind the church with the hopes of providing an outdoor environment to nurture children's connection to the outdoor world. For the young members of our community this space will foster community involvement where they can actively participate in growing food that will be donated to those in need.

There are many ways to get involved!

We would like to collect potential volunteer contact information. If interested, please email Veronica Miller at Ronki79@icloud.com or Joan Mulhall at Pcmulhall@verizon.net.
