Twenty-fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time
September 13, 2020
Matthew 18:21-35

”Lord, when my brother or sister wrongs me, how often must I forgive?”

1. Mercy and forgiveness need to be received. How has the refusal of mercy damaged you, your family, your Christian community?

2. What is the connection between forgiveness, health, and wholeness?

OUR PARISH
VISION STATEMENT
Welcoming All...Awakening Faith..
Serving Others...

OUR PARISH
MISSION STATEMENT
We, the disciples of Jesus Christ who Worship at Good Shepherd, accept the privilege and responsibility of supporting one another in love and service, of giving witness to the Good News of salvation, thus enabling others to experience the loving presence of Our Risen Lord..

Good News!

September 13, 2020
Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
Sir 27:30–28:7; Rom 14:7-9; Mt 18:21-35

What makes seven such an important number? It's the symbolism. It signifies wholeness, completeness, and totality. So, seventy-seven (or seventy times seven in some Bible translations) suggests infinity. Peter was exaggerating when he suggested that he might forgive his brother seven times. He presumed that if he acted in this way, his behavior would demonstrate the immeasurable extent of his personal graciousness. Jesus' response implied that there should be no end to our forgiving another. To underscore the significance of this magnanimity, Jesus offered God (in the guise of the king who forgave a huge debt) as the exemplar of forgiving.

Forgiving another's offense against us could well be one of the most difficult things we are asked to do. To ask for forgiveness does not seem as difficult. After all, when we bump into a perfect stranger in an elevator, we say, "Forgive me." But to forgive someone who has deliberately offended us, who has dishonored our sense of personal dignity, as slight as that offense might be, is neither as easy nor as casual a gesture. And yet, we must.

We all carry debts to others. Both the first reading and the Gospel passage remind us that the debts owed to us by others in no way compare with the debt we owe God, and yet God shows us compassion and forgives us. If we are grateful children of a compassionate God, we will want to be like God and we will forgive others.

Please note that all participants must wear a mask while in the group and we will be as socially distanced as possible.

Catholic University of America

The Catholic University of America Collection will be next weekend, September 12/13.

The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

Now, more than ever, the University is strategically positioned to pave the way forward and help the laity play a significant role in healing.

Through hosting a conference series focused on laity response, and in creating an Institute for Diocesan Excellence in Administration (IDEA) where lay scholars and professionals can support clergy by providing expertise and accountability, Catholic University will serve as a springboard in renewing and strengthening Catholicism in our country.

Your support of the National Collection will help us solve issues within the Church and educate graduates who will leave campus ready to impact the Church, the nation, and the world.
We appreciate your generosity.

Mission for Dominican Republic

Bishop Conners from the Diocese of San Juan de la Maguana in the Dominican Republic invited Bishop Emeritus John McGann to sponsor two parishes in the Dominican Republic: Saint Peter the Apostle in El Cercado and Our Lady of Fatima in Hondo Valle. These parishes, now the official foreign mission to the Diocese of Rockville Centre, have continued to flourish under the faithful support of Bishop John R. Barres and the generosity of our donors for over 35 years.

Although we currently do not have any Diocesan missionaries present in the DR, among the former leaders in this ministry were Monsignor John I. Cervini, ministering to the people of El Cercado for over 15 years, Sr. Jane Reilly, CSJ serving in the remote parish of Our Lady of Fatima in the mountainous region of Hondo Valle for over 30 years, and Sr. Beatrice "Babs" Barry, CSJ who cared for the sick and poor at the Inn of the Good Samaritan in the capital city of Santo Domingo for over 30 years (now the Sisters of Restoration serve there). Prior to Monsignor Cervini's arrival in the poverty-stricken frontier of the DR, Fathers Andy Connolly and Thomas Mallony served the Mission.

Our Brothers and Sisters in Christ provide help to those in need but also receive their assistance; therefore, creating a ministry for the poor aided by the poor. The people are a very hopeful and happy people. National disasters and setbacks never seem to affect their tremendous spirit. Former missionary Sr. Jane Reilly offered the following, "the palm tree is the best image to describe them. In tropical storms or during a hurricane, a palm tree can be stripped of its branches, but within a few weeks of the storm, one sees the new shoot emerging from the trunk - just like the spirit of our people!"

What is a day like in our Mission to the Dominican Republic? Well just imagine as you wake up, make coffee, shower, drive your car and get your kids to school, someone in our Mission is waking up too. In the Diocesan Missions in the Dominican Republic life is very primitive. The small homemade houses of two rooms have no flooring, no electricity or running water, no glass windows and no toilet facilities. A simple cookhouse a short distance from the home shelters the pit fire where the mother prepares the daily fare of rice and beans. There is little variation and little meat. A few proud owners of chickens have eggs and an occasional meal of rice and chicken. Rarely do they have money to buy such luxuries as clothing or shoes.

At the rivers' edges women squat by rocks where they wash clothes which they hang on nearby trees. Men work in the fields and take care of small farms on which they grow beans, rice, corn or coffee. They plant in rocky, sloping, dry fields using hand-held plows. There is never any guarantee that the plant will produce a harvest. Extremely heavy unexpected dry season can substantially reduce or destroy a crop.

The one event that often presents an almost unsurmountable obstacle is serious sickness. There is so much suffering due to the lack of medical facilities and supplies. For the fortunate who have the strength to walk long distances to rural clinics, basic care can be obtained. But for anything more complicated one must go to a specialty hospital in Santo Domingo, a trip of 5 or 6 hours from their homes.

Over the last 35 years, our local church has donated over $3.2 million to our Mission in the Dominican Republic. These monies have built countless aqueducts, necessary as a source of potable water, approximately 15 chapels and worship sites, regionally, and one Church in the campo of Derummbaderro. The construction of church in San Juan Santiago in the Hondo Valle region is underway but still needs additional funding. The Fe y Alegria, K-8 elementary school and now a high school have been completed, staffed and are full of eager children who are excited to learn. Currently, the last phase of the vocational school building is underway. After high school, the opportunity for employment is practically non-existent so the need for vocational training is evident.

In the height of the cholera epidemic, our donors raised over $20,000 for the building of latrines where no facilities existed and literally provided water to homes where women would use to walk 2 or 3 miles for water and carry in buckets on their heads back to their homes. A retreat center in El Cercado that can accommodate 64 persons overnight was built and serves as a meeting site for many of the faithful groups and visitors. The senior center and peanut factories were built with donor funds as well as the founding of the agricultural programs. The St. Vincent de Paul Society for the Mission is solely funded by our donors and provides monthly baskets of food to those who normally go without. In Hondo Valle, the NutrInfancia program has been established to identify women and children at high risk of malnourishment. Most of the donor funds have been and are continued to be used to help sustain the overhead expenses of the 2 parishes and the INN, which on average operate on approximately $5000 per month.

Your continued support of our Diocesan Mission to the Dominican Republic is greatly appreciated by the people we serve. It is vital to the everyday lives of so many. Please consider donating today.

"What we imagine as the poorest of the poor pales in comparison to the reality that exists in our Mission. Yet, the JOY of Christ in the hearts of those who live there is greater than any I have ever encountered. I never wanted to "Go Forth" more in my life than when serving my brothers and sisters in Christ who had so little but offered all they had to this stranger; their homes, meals, love and greatest of all, sharing of faith." ~ Sarah McAteer

PLEASE PRAY:

We adore you, Jesus our Shepherd and Savior. And we praise and thank you for your living among us. We ask you to walk beside your missionaries as they seek to proclaim your Gospel. Cherish, guide, and strengthen them; help them to be patient when they meet frustrations, and encourage them when they are disappointed. Lead them, we beseech you, along the path you desire for them. For you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever. AMEN
