Pope Francis asks that we pray the Rosary in October to address the difficult times the Church finds herself. To seek God's strength and seek protection from the attacks of the Devil. He asks that we also pray the following prayers.

The invocation “Sub Tuum Praesidium”

SUB tuum praesidium confugimus, Sancta Dei Genetrix. Nostras deprecationes ne despicias in necessitatibus, sed a periculis cunctis libera nos semper, Virgo gloriosa et benedicta. Amen. WE fly to thy patronage, O holy Mother of God; despise not our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

St Michael Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Please keep a copy of these prayers in your daily prayer book.

I pray we can take time to pray for the Church in these difficult times. The Lord will help us as we seek healing of all divisions. We seek reconciliation and forgiveness. We pray for all who endured abuse and great harm on the part of members of the Church.

My Jesus Mercy.

Christmas Eve Mass Time Survey

Many parishes schedule the late Christmas Eve Mass in the Evening at an earlier time than 12 Midnight. This is a way to accommodate family schedules. Mass at Midnight usually ends by 1:30 AM and is a late night for all involved. St. Peter's in Rome and many other churches have moved up the time to accommodate present day schedules. Please indicate by the options below the best time for you and your family to attend the Mass referred to as Midnight Mass. Please drop off the choice form in the collection basket next Sunday at Mass. Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 14, 2018
Mark 10: 17-30
"For mortals it is impossible but not for God. With God all things are possible."

1. When have you abandoned something or someone you valued in order to better follow the gospel?
2. What would you let go of right now to increase your trust in God?

Faith Formation—There will be another commitment ceremony next weekend October 13-14 at the Saturday 5PM, Sunday 8:30AM, 10AM, 12 Noon, and 5PM.

Prayer for Confirmation Candidates
Lord, You send out Your spirit to touch the hearts of all people, so that they may believe in You and in Jesus whom You sent.
Look kindly on all candidates for Confirmation as they listen to Your voice.
Open their hearts to your Spirit and bring to fulfillment the good work that You have begun in them.
As we prepare these children for Confirmation, make each of us an instrument of Your love.
Teach us to appreciate what is holy in others, and to be patient with what we do not understand.
Deepen our faith in the Gospel and help us to pass it on by our example.
We pray that You will continue to guide us and sustain us. Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Respect Life Sunday
Sunday, October 7 is Respect Life Sunday. As we celebrate Respect Life Sunday, we are reminded that the assaults on human dignity come in many forms. The Respect Life Office is charged with deepening our already strong commitment to pro-life activities and parish education. Please support this vital work through participation in the special Respect Life envelope collection. Your prayers and assistance are greatly appreciated.

Golf Outing Thank You!
We thank the Golf Outing Committee for a great day at our 3rd annual outing. We also thank the players and all those who joined us for dinner at the Holbrook Country Club. The Committee put a lot of time and effort organizing and planning this event. A great time was had by all!

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament (*Date Change *)
October has been designated Respect Life month and, along with other parishes, we will pray to promote the principle that human life, at all stages from conception to natural death, is a gift from God, worthy of respect and protection. Please join us in prayer on Wednesday, October 10th at 7:00pm in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

Chinese Auction

CHINESE AUCTION 2018

Our Twenty-second Annual Chinese Auction (Gifts & Certificates Auction) is planned for November 16 at 6:00 PM.

Ticket drawing will begin at 8:00.

We are in need of help in requesting donations for this event. If you work for or own a business that may donate to our auction or you feel you have some time to visit merchants, you can pick up a letter soliciting the donation at the front desk during the week or before Mass. Please help solicit if you can. We are very low on helpers to get donations this year.

If you or your religion class/ministry/group/small church would like to put together a basket, that would be greatly appreciated.

We are also looking for help setting up the Auction from 9:30AM-3PM on the day of November 16th.

Come lend a hand and meet more nice people like yourself!

Because of space limitations and keeping with the reputation for quality gifts our Auction enjoys, we only accept NEW merchandise.

Because of the late hour and a lack of space, no children please.

Call Ann Hernandez 631.275.7587 annhernandez2000@yahoo.com SUBJECT: CHINESE AUCTION for further information.

THE CRAFT FAIR AND AUCTION PREVIEW WILL BE NOVEMBER 10 & 11.

At That Time You Will Be Able to Buy Handmade Seasonal Crafts and Raffle Tickets

PLEASE DON’T FORGET TO RETURN YOUR RAFFLE TICKETS!

CRAFT DAY & NIGHT-
OCTOBER 16 & 30

Are you a crafter? Do you want to meet up with some other very talented people to help create some crafts for the Preview? Join us.

There will be two sessions each day.

Come to one or come to all.

October 16 & 30 1 - 3pm & 6-9 pm

Please bring scissors, glue gun, glue gun sticks, and any flowers or trims or baskets and containers you would like to donate. Bring ideas for projects you like.

We are especially looking for sleds and non plastic watering cans.

If you have questions, contact Ann Hernandez 631.275.7587 or email: annhernandez2000@yahoo.com SUBJECT: CHINESE AUCTION
Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang - During the month of October, the Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on Saturday, October 20th. We begin at 8:30 am. Our mission is to serve those in need and to provide an opportunity to do good for those who choose to serve. For our sandwiches, we need donations of creamy peanut butter, jelly, paper plates, plastic spoons and knives, paper towels and sandwich-size folder over bags. You may drop them off at church (label for the PB&J Gang) or bring them with you. If you come to volunteer bring a jar of jelly and/or a loaf of white or wheat bread with you. For our wash-up kits, we need donations of sample-size soap, shampoo and lotion, individually wrapped hard candy, new or gently used washcloths/towels, and sandwich-size Ziploc bags. Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine. We look forward to having you help us to help others.

Senior Group - This month we'll be celebrating our 11th anniversary. So hard to believe so much time has passed since we started and amazing to see how we've grown. We remember our members who have passed away and those that have moved and keep them in prayer. We celebrate birthdays this month for Dot P. 10/1, Ann D. 10/5, Helen M. 10/8, Frank R. 10/12, Cora S. 10/14, Ruth O. 10/22, Jessie H. 10/22, Dorothy G. 10/26, Fred C. 10/29 and Florence M. 10/29. We wish them all a happy special day. Join us as we meet after the 9:00 mass on Tuesday mornings.

Food Pantry - Our pantry needs replenishing of the following items: jarred tomato sauce, pancake mix & syrup, crackers & cookies, children’s snacks, canned chicken and deodorant. We thank you for your support.

Lazarus and All Souls Remembrance Mass
On Sunday, November 4th at 2PM a Mass will be celebrated for all members of our parish family who have died this year and were buried from Good Shepherd Church.

It will also be a time to join in prayerful remembrance of all our loved ones who have gone before us. If you have a family member who passed away this year and wish to have them remembered at this Mass, please call the Main Office at 631 588-7689 by October 29 to have their names included. Any name given after this date will be added to next year's list.

All Souls Day Remembrance Novena envelopes will be placed on the altar at the Lazarus Mass and also will be prayed for during the following nine days at the 9AM Mass in the Daily Mass Chapel.
At the Movies with Donna...

“An Interview with God” – A young journalist returns home from covering the war in Afghanistan, to find his life and his faith in crisis. Struggling to repair his troubled marriage and desperately trying to find help for a depressed soldier, he is offered the interview of a lifetime. With just a 3-day release and only one 7 pm showing at a few select theaters, this film was completely sold out. Writer and producer Ken Aguado brings us this profound story that captures your attention throughout. With a terrific cast that includes a stellar performance by David Strathairn, as the man who claims to be God. This is an excellent film. Whether you believe, or not; you need to see this film. “Everyone has their own journey, but there is only one path.”

“Operation Finale” – Based on the true story of Peter Malkin, the Mossad agent who captured the Nazi war criminal, Adolph Eichmann, while he was in hiding in Argentina in 1961. Directed by Chris Weitz and written by Matthew Orton, this fast-paced film uses flashbacks to show the horrors of Nazi Germany and the atrocities committed by Eichmann. An unlikely relationship forms between these two men which is based, oddly enough, on mutual respect. It is the strong performances by Oscar Isaac and Ben Kingsley that makes this movie worth seeing.

“Peppermint” – After surviving a drive-by shooting which killed her husband and daughter, Riley North must watch as the gang members she identified for the crime are set free. After several years, she returns to deliver her own brand of justice on both the criminals and corrupt law enforcement officials. Director Pierre Morel, who brought us such films as “Taken”, gives us another action packed thriller, only this time a woman is in the lead role. Isn’t it interesting how the critics pan this as too violent and discriminating against Latinos who portray the gang members? Would that be the case if Bruce Willis or Liam Neeson would have been in the lead? Yes, this is a violent film with a lot of bloodshed. This is not a movie for everyone. But, let’s give credit where credit is due- kudos to Jennifer Gardner. She certainly can hold her own.

“God Bless the Broken Road” – A young mother struggles to raise her daughter after her husband is killed serving in Afghanistan. A once active member of her church community, she blames God for taking her husband and for shattering her life that is quickly falling apart at the seams. Add in a race car driver who needs to find something to believe in other than himself and yes, we have a film that is predictable with no surprises. From the faith-based film maker Harold Cronk, who brought us “God is Not Dead” and “God is Not Dead 2”, sometimes these films are too busy trying to get its message across that they forget about movie production and character development, etc. The story has a good message about doubt, redemption, faith, friendship, family and love. It’s a shame that not enough people will hear it.

“White Boy Rick” - This film is based on a true story about a single father who is raising two teenagers in drug-infested Detroit in the 1980’s. The father sells guns illegally to put food on the table. The daughter is a drug addict. And the fourteen year old son is recruited by the local FBI to become an undercover drug informant. Well directed and written with outstanding performances by Matthew McConaughey, Richie Merritt and Bel Powley. There is nothing pretty about this movie and it is definitely not for everyone. It is a tragic story, sad and powerful. But, even more so, it is a story of overwhelming love between father and daughter, father and son and sister and brother.

“Unbroken: Path to Redemption” – The unofficial sequel to the 2014 film “Unbroken”, this one continues the true story of Louis Zamperini upon his return from WW II after surviving captivity in a Japanese prison camp. Dealing with devastating nightmares and alcoholism, Zamperini’s life spirals out of control, until he finds Christianity after attending Billy Graham’s church revivals. Another film by Harold Cronk, which is well directed with excellent cinematography. The final scene of this film will bring tears to your eyes and will lift you up. “For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your Heavenly Father will also forgive you.” (Matthew 6:14)
