Archdiocese for the Military Services

The Triennial National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS) is scheduled for the weekend of November 2-3, 2019. Unlike a territorial diocese, the AMS has no parishes and must depend on the support of the Catholic faithful throughout the United States for its pastoral care and services to 1.8 million Catholics serving in our U.S. Armed Forces and federal installations worldwide. The nation’s largest archdiocese, AMS spans the globe and its priests go wherever American servicemen and women are stationed, bringing them the sacraments, spiritual support and the Good News of eternal salvation through Jesus Christ. Thank you for your generosity.

Matthew 5:1-12a
“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”
  1. Of the eight beatitudes which do you desire most in your life and why?
  2. How do these blessings compare with what you prize?
     How do they compare to what our society prizes?

Luke 19:1-10
“Jesus said, ‘Zacchaeus, hurry down. I mean to stay at your house today.’
  1. Tell about a time when you accepted someone as is and thereby brought about a change in them, or vice-versa!
  2. Zacchaeus did all he could to get a better look at Jesus. What do you do in your life to get to know Jesus better?

OUR PARISH
MISSION STATEMENT

Good News!
November 3, 2019
Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)
Wis 11:22-12:2; 2 Thes 1:11-2:2; Lk 19:1-10

Jesus, on the road to Jerusalem, passes through the town of Jericho. His intention was to move right through, yet when he catches sight of Zacchaeus, he stops and changes plans. Jesus was on the move, yet not so obsessed with plans and objectives that he didn’t notice the needy soul of Zacchaeus peering down upon him from a sycamore tree.

Part of being an apostle of Christ is having a heart that’s always attuned to the inspirations of the Holy Spirit. We can’t be so consumed with our good fortunes that we miss opportunities to offer Christ’s salvation to those around us.

Zacchaeus was a public sinner and a public who, as we know, were the hated tax collectors and collaborators of the Romans. Rather than a person to visit he was, for the Jews, someone to be avoided. Not for Jesus! Our Lord came to seek and save the lost. And Zacchaeus wanted to be found. He was so driven to see Jesus, he made himself look ridiculous by climbing a tree, admitting to his short stature and curiosity.

How many souls along our path are showing their unquenchable thirst to discover Jesus and, even more, to be discovered by him. While amassing worldly riches, they realize that their deep hunger can only be satisfied by something else. Only spiritual things can satiate the Spirit. Let’s be willing to go off-road and facilitate these encounters with Jesus—of course, after we ourselves have been encountered by him.

- Where do we need to forgive?
- Why do we need to forgive?

ADORATION

“Whenever I go to the chapel, I put myself in the presence of our good Lord, and I say to him, ‘Lord, I am here. Tell me what you would have me to do’ . . . And then, I tell God everything that is in my heart. I tell him about my pains and my joys, and then I listen. If you listen, God will also speak to you, for with the good Lord, you have to both speak and listen. God always speaks to you when you approach him plainly and simply.” St. Catherine Laboure

Please Note: Adoration will now be on the 1st Tuesday morning of the month after the 9am Mass through 12Noon. Adoration will take place on November 5th in the daily Chapel.

PRAYER SERVICE & DISCUSSION

On Wednesday, November 20th at 7:30pm, Good Shepherd will hold a prayer service and have an open discussion about the book “Letter to a Suffering Church: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis” by Bishop Robert Barron. Bishop Robert Barron, founder of Word on Fire Catholic Ministries and Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, explains why in this time of crisis, it is not the time to leave the Church, but the time to stay and fight. If you are interested in attending this discussion on November 20th, please stop by the Main Office and pick up a copy of the book.

What is Lessons and Carols?
Lessons and Carols is a prayer service of Scripture and song. Originating in England in the late 19th century, Lessons and Carols was originally conducted on Christmas Eve and consisted of exactly nine Lessons. However, it has since been adapted and can be found being celebrated throughout Advent with a variable number of Lessons. Regardless of the number of Lessons, the service focuses on the mystery of the Incarnation and its role in salvation history. Each Lesson in a Lessons and Carols service consists of 4 things: a reading from Scripture, a carol or hymn, a prayer, and a period of silence.

Why should we participate in Lessons and Carols?
The reflective nature of Lessons and Carols offers calm and quiet, two things in short supply in our world. This service offers an opportunity to focus on God and remember the true meaning of this Holy Season. For many people today, December can be an incredibly busy, noisy, and stressful time of year. It’s easy to let Advent rush by in a flurry of activity that has little or nothing to do with Christ. Lessons and Carols is a beautiful way to step out of all that hustle and bustle and take some time and space to prepare one’s heart for the peace and joy of Christmas. Let us begin this Season of Advent together in prayer as we pause and reflect on the coming of Christ.
