Dear Friends in Christ,

Thank you for the wonderful Mass of Installation and the reception that followed!

This past Saturday, every aspect was exceptional. The sea of faces, music, reception, decorations and the church setting was most special.

I am ever grateful for the opportunity to journey with you as your pastor. We rejoice in the great legacy of all who have gone before us in faith and the people of God here now at Good Shepherd.

May the Lord bless and keep you and your family always in His love and Grace.

The Gifts of Bread & Wine are donated this week:

- For the Intentions of:
  - David Haas - In Gratitude for his service to Good Shepherd Church as Cantor & EM

  Donated by:
  - Judi & Nick Montemurro

Collection for Natural Disasters

This weekend we will have a special second collection to assist those impacted by some of the most recent natural disasters. The monies collected will be used to support the efforts of Catholic Charities USA and /or Catholic Relief Services, the official relief agencies of the US Catholic Church, as they and their local agencies respond to the immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter and medical care and aid in the long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts, and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church.

Ordinary People Connecting Life & Faith

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 11, 2018
Mark 12:38-44

“They gave from their surplus wealth, but she gave from her want all that she had to live on.”

1. By giving from her ‘want’, the widow shows her trust in God. Can you recall an experience when you let go and put your trust in God?

2. From your experience, what are some practical ways you can contribute to the Church besides money?

Our Parish Vision Statement
Welcoming All...Awakening Faith.. Serving Others...

Our Parish Mission Statement
We, the disciples of Jesus Christ who Worship at Good Shepherd, accept the privilege and responsibility of supporting one another in love and service, of giving witness to the Good News of salvation, thus enabling others to experience the loving presence of Our Risen Lord.

Good News!

November 11, 2018
Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)
1 Kgs 17:10-16; Heb 9:24-28; Mk 12:38-44 or Mk 12:41-44

Elijah is quite bold. He finds this poor woman collecting sticks to make her “last supper” on earth. She has run out of money, food, and energy. Even so, the prophet asks her to prepare him a cake and, in exchange for her hospitality, he promises she will not run out until God sends rain again. In her faith and humility, she says yes, and gives away all that she had to live on. God blesses her generosity!

Jesus observes something similar. A poor widow willingly gives all she has when, without anyone noticing, she drops her coins in the donation basket. God always notices our acts of generosity and multiplies them into eternity.

The first part of the Gospel stands in contrast with these two mighty widows. It shows us how not to be apostles. Jesus chastises the scribes and teachers of the law for three defects in their religious practice: pride, greed, and showing off. They love public greetings and special seating at church and parties. Jesus goes even further by saying they use their authority to devour widow’s houses. Could Jesus’ irony be any starker? While the widow is giving her last coins, the priest is using it to devour her livelihood.

We may never see in this life how God blesses our small or large acts of love, prayer, and generosity. Yet, we should keep doing them, not to be seen or rewarded, but because we love God, and to love is always the right thing. God sees, and a great reward awaits us.

CHINESE AUCTION 2018

Our Twenty-second Annual Chinese Auction (Gifts & Certificates Auction) is planned for November 16 at 6:00 PM. Ticket drawing will begin at 8:00. We are in need of help in requesting donations for this event. If you work for or own a business that may donate to our auction or you feel you have some time to visit merchants, you can pick up a letter soliciting the donation at the front desk during the week or before Mass. Please help solicit if you can. We are very low on helpers to get donations this year.

If you or your religion class/ministry/group/small church would like to put together a basket, that would be greatly appreciated. We are also looking for help setting up the Auction from 9:30AM-3PM on the day of November 16th. Come lend a hand and meet more nice people like yourself!

Because of space limitations and keeping with the reputation for quality gifts our Auction enjoys, we only accept NEW merchandise. Because of the late hour and a lack of space, no children please.

Call Ann Hernandez 631.275.7587 annhernandez2000@yahoo.com SUBJECT: CHINESE AUCTION for further information.

THE CRAFT FAIR AND AUCTION PREVIEW WILL BE NOVEMBER 10 & 11.

At That Time You Will Be Able to Buy Handmade Seasonal Crafts and Raffle Tickets

PLEASE DON'T FORGET TO RETURN YOUR RAFFLE TICKETS!

Garden Ministry

Please mark your calendars. Garden Ministry will host our annual Fall Cleanup at 9 a.m. on November 10th. No rain date is scheduled. We welcome all volunteers with work gloves and a trash bag to join us as we remove litter from the grounds and put our gardens to bed for their winter rest. Confirmation candidates are especially welcome to share their youth and strength in this effort.

On October 20th with the help of an army of young, cheerful volunteers Garden Ministry planted 3,000 bulbs at the newly renovated Stations of the Cross. We look forward to a beautiful spring display.
Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang
The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting November 17th. We begin at 8:30 am. Our mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve. For our sandwiches, we need donations of jelly (our stock is very low), creamy peanut butter, paper plates, plastic spoons and knives, paper towels and sandwich-size folder over bags. You may drop them off at church (label for the PB&J Gang) or bring them with you. If you come to volunteer bring a jar of jelly and/or a loaf of white or wheat bread with you. For our wash-up kits, we need donations of sample-size soap, shampoo and lotion, individually wrapped hard candy, new or gently used washcloths/towels, and sandwich-size ZipLoc bags. Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine. We look forward to having you help us to help others.

Senior Group - We meet after the 9:00am Mass on Tuesdays in Fellowship Hall.

Food Pantry - We are low on the following items and would appreciate your help restocking: Paper towels, men & women's deodorants, shampoo & conditioners, bar soap, sugar and canned fruits. Thank you.

Holidays - Parish Outreach is now accepting food certificates for the upcoming holidays. Our holiday sign up table will be in our Narthex beginning this weekend, October 20th & 21st & the following Sunday, October 28th. Thank you again for your ongoing support and generosity for those families in need this holiday season.

Thank you - Thank you to Joe’s pizza for their assistance with providing the pizza for the Confirmation Retreat last month.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament -
St. Padre Pio (1887 to 1968) Patron Saint Of Adorers
"A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent in sweetly communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." "When you want to find me, come near the tabernacle." Padre Pio considered adoration so important that this was the directions he gave to his fellow friars if they went looking for him.

We invite you to spend some time before our Lord Jesus in the Blessed Eucharist this Tuesday, November 6th at 7:30pm in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

Jesus said, “The end is this.”
At the Movies with Donna

“Life Itself” – Written and directed by Dan Fogelman, the mastermind behind the smash hit TV show “This Is Us”, this film consists of several stories spanning over a few generations about people whose lives intertwine and are connected by one single tragic event. The stories are interesting and they could very well have been told separately. With several plots and many characters all condensed into two hours, at times the movie seemed to be out of sync. With very good performances by Oscar Isaac, Antonio Banderas, Sergio Peris-Mencheta and Laia Costa. A film about family and love and life itself.

“Small Foot” – Based on the book “Yeti Tracks” by Sergio Pablos, this animated film follows Migo, a friendly Yeti who sets out to prove the existence of “small foot”, aka a human and in this case, the human is Percy, a TV host. Yetis are afraid of humans, humans are afraid of Yetis. Why? Because they have been taught to fear each other from generation to generation. Migo and Percy both learn that sometimes we need to question what we have been told is true, even if it was meant to keep us safe. Overall, it is a sweet film with such a relevant message.

“A Star Is Born” – In this fourth remake, the story remains the same. A seasoned musician, who is also an alcoholic, meets a talented unknown singer and they fall in love. He continues to succumb to his addictions while she becomes a star. The difference here is the undeniable love, admiration and respect that exist between these two characters. You feel it every time they look at each other. Partly due to the chemistry between the lead actors, Bradley Cooper and Lady Gaga, and an excellent musical score that includes songs with such haunting lyrics like “Shallow” and “I’ll Never Love Again”. Cooper not only gives a mesmerizing and heart-breaking performance, but he also makes a stellar directing debut and turns out to be a terrific musician in his own right. Lady Gaga gives a moving performance as do Sam Elliott and Andrew Dice Clay. “Tell me something, boy. Aren’t you tired trying to fill that void? What do you need more? Ain’t it hard keeping it so hardcore?”

“Venom” – In this superhero film based on the Marvel Comics character, we find the down –and-out TV journalist Eddie Brock the perfect, unwilling “host” for the alien whose species plans to invade earth. I knew absolutely nothing about this character, but Marvel Comics never fails to bring us exciting and entertaining movies. Besides, with Tom Hardy in the lead role, how could it not be good? It was entertaining, and extremely funny. Hardy was terrific. Just to see him in such a different role was worth the price of the ticket. However, since Brock is also Venom, there is constant bickering that goes on between the two characters that inhabit the same body, and it took the entire film to finally not be distracted by it... just something for the sequel’s production team to keep in mind. This film may not be for everyone, but it will have its share of followers. Putting aside Venom’s 200 teeth and very bad habits, this movie is really about doing the right thing even if it means self-sacrifice.

“First Man” – Based on the book by James Hansen, “First Man: The Life of Neil A. Armstrong”, this film tells the story of NASA’s mission to land a man on the moon, focusing on Armstrong and the astronauts who worked alongside him during this period. As we watch the trials and tribulations of the Gemini and Apollo missions, and the ultimate landing on the moon, it is the personal story of Armstrong himself that really takes center stage. Ryan Gosling is superb as Armstrong. With terrific performances by Kyle Chandler, Jason Clarke, and the supporting cast.

“Bad Times at the El Royale” – It’s 1969, and seven strangers, each with a secret, find themselves at the old El Royale hotel, that sits directly on the border between California and Nevada. Nothing is as it seems, with several story lines that bring all the characters together for a climatic ending. This movie has its share of violence and may not be suitable for everyone. Well written and directed by Drew Goddard, with a fantastic cast that includes Jeff Bridges, Cynthia Erivo, Dakota Johnson, Jon Hamm, Lewis Pullman (with a break-out performance) and Chris Hemsworth (like you have never seen him before). There is a specific attitude towards faith with some religious overtones that run throughout the film. Ultimately, this movie is about seeking redemption.
