Happy Veterans Day!

This Monday 11 November we celebrate our military veterans. We honor them and their families for the sacrifices they made and continue to make on behalf of our Nation and peace for the world.

I spent 25 years in the Navy as a chaplain assigned to Navy ships, Marine Corps units and the Merchant Marine Academy. I spent many years at sea and in the Mideast and Far East. My additional 5 years as a military bishop also bought me all around the different branches of the military. I am ever grateful for the honor to have served alongside our men and women in uniform. We lift them all up in a great prayer of thanksgiving! My father is an Air force Veteran. I will remember him and his late brothers who also served in the Air force and Army.

This week I am in Rome for a required visit with the Holy Father Pope Francis. Every 5-8 years all bishops from around the world are called to Rome to meet with the different departments that help guide the Holy Roman Catholic Church. The highpoint of the week is a meeting with the Holy Father. Pope Francis will meet with the New York Bishops on Thursday 14 November. This day is my mothers 80th birthday. I will ask for a blessing for her personally from the Holy Father. I will take you and the parish with me as I pray at the Tomb of St. Peter and the daily Masses that will be celebrated at the Four Major Basilicas in Rome.

May Jesus, Our Good Shepherd bless you and your families!

In Christ,
Bishop Coyle

Update on the Child Victims Act

Dear Friends in Christ,

I shared with you previously the Parish of the Good Shepherd and the Diocese of Rockville Centre were named as co-defendants in two separate legal filings. These suits have been brought under the Child Victims Act and make allegations of child sex abuse by two priests who served at the parish many, many years ago. I promised to keep you up to date as the process develops. I was just informed there is a third accusation that has been filed in a law suit regarding an allegation of child sex abuse from this same period.

At this time, these matters are being handled by legal counsel.

I again thank you for your prayers for the parish. I thank you for your devotion to the Good Shepherd parish family. May Our Lord Jesus give us His strength and blessing as our Good Shepherd.

In Christ,
Bishop Coyle

Dear Friends in Christ,

Advent will begin the first weekend of December. This holy season will usher in a new year of Grace. Part of our Advent journey will be an opportunity for the parish to reflect on stewardship, during the first three weekends of Advent.

Stewardship is our unique faith response expressing our love for God and neighbor and the parish. We give of our time, talent and treasure to build up the Church here at the Parish of the Good Shepherd.

I have been at the parish as pastor for almost one and a half years. During this time I have had the joy to witness the dedication, generosity and enthusiasm of the parish members in so many ministries, Mass participation and your generous support.

We will reflect as a parish on the treasure part of stewardship this Advent. Each week we will set aside time at Mass to prayerfully think about this aspect of stewardship.

I thank you for your consideration as we continue to build on the legacy of faith that has gone before us and continues on. In June 2020 the Parish will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Church of the Good Shepherd. This will be a great celebration. I pray we will continue to grow in faith and service to one another.

God bless you and your family,

Bishop Robert J. Coyle

“All will hate you because of me, yet not a hair of your head will be harmed By patient endurance you will save your lives.”

1) Describe a time in your life when you had to persevere in order to stand up for what you believed to be right.

2) With wars, famine, suffering, etc., how do you find God's love and trust in your life?

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)
Mal 3:19-20a; 2 Thes 3:7-12; Lk 21:5-19

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, the readings prepare us for the conclusion of our earthly pilgrimage. In this Sistine Chapel fresco, Moses is punishing the rebellious Israelites who were acting as priests without being authorized by him or called by God.

This chaotic scene seems similar to what Jesus describes of the end times in today's Gospel. He warns us not to follow false prophets who will arise and claim to come in his name. He prophesies a time of war, natural disasters, famines, and plagues. Persecution will fall upon his followers, allowing them the chance to give testimony—martyrion in Greek. Jesus' monitions for that time are simple: do not follow false prophets or prepare a defense, but persevere instead. In the section “I Believe in Life Everlasting,” the Catechism of the Catholic Church also speaks to us about the last times. We believe in heaven, hell, and a personal, universal judgment. These last things await us all, and Jesus doesn’t keep us in the dark about these realities.

We don’t know when the end times may come. But regardless, our call is to live prepared by fulfilling God’s will and trusting in him. Jesus clearly wants us to be aware of the end of the world, but he doesn’t want us to be overly anxious about it. If we are in Christ, we are already a new creation. The old has passed away. Behold the new has come. Be not afraid!

LESSONS AND CAROLS
DECEMBER 1ST @ 2:00PM
ALL ARE INVITED

What is Lessons and Carols?
Lessons and Carols is a prayer service of Scripture and song. Originating in England in the late 19th century, Lessons and Carols was originally conducted on Christmas Eve and consisted of exactly nine Lessons. However, it has since been adapted and can be found being celebrated throughout Advent with a variable number of Lessons. Regardless of the number of Lessons, the service focuses on the mystery of the Incarnation and its role in salvation history. Each Lesson in a Lessons and Carols service consists of 4 things: a reading from Scripture, a carol or hymn, a prayer, and a period of silence.

Why should we participate in Lessons and Carols?
The reflective nature of Lessons and Carols offers calm and quiet, two things in short supply in our world. This service offers an opportunity to focus on God and remember the true meaning of this Holy Season. For many people today, December can be an incredibly busy, noisy, and stressful time of year. It’s easy to let Advent rush by in a flurry of activity that has little or nothing to do with Christ. Lessons and Carols is a beautiful way to step out of all that hustle and bustle and take some time and space to prepare one’s heart for the peace and joy of Christmas. Let us begin this Season of Advent together in prayer as we pause and reflect on the coming of Christ.

PRAYER SERVICE & DISCUSSION

On Wednesday, November 20th at 7:30pm, Good Shepherd will hold a prayer service and have an open discussion about the book “Letter to a Suffering Church: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis” by Bishop Robert Barron. Bishop Robert Barron, founder of Word on Fire Catholic Ministries and Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, explains why in this time of crisis, it is not the time to leave the Church, but the time to stay and fight. If you are interested in attending this discussion on November 20th, please stop by the Main Office and pick up a copy of the book.

Our Twenty-third Annual Basket & Certificate Auction (aka Chinese Auction) is planned for November 22 at 6:00 PM.
Ticket drawing will begin at 8:00.
We are in need of help in requesting donations for this event. If you work for or own a business that may donate to our auction or you feel you have some time to visit merchants, you can pick up a letter soliciting the donation at the front desk during the week or before Mass. Please help solicit if you can. We are very low on helpers to get donations this year.
If you or your religion class/ministry/group/small church would like to put together a basket, that would be greatly appreciated. We are also looking for help setting up the Auction from 9:30AM-3PM on the day of November 22.
Come lend a hand and meet more nice people like yourself!
Because of space limitations and keeping with the reputation for quality gifts our Auction enjoys, we only accept NEW merchandise.
