FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Parish of the Good Shepherd,

Yesterday, November 11th was Veterans Day. To all those veterans, especially those veterans who were wounded in combat, we, your fellow citizens of the United States, owe you a tremendous debt of gratitude for your bravery, your courage under fire along with your spirit of duty, fraternity and the example you set for the generations coming after you.

War is a terrible demon. It goes back to the beginning of time when we hear that Cain killed his brother Abel. Humanity has suffered under that curse of violence ever since. War is indeed a nightmare of horrors – just ask any combat vet. The preparation for war, the sending of the flower of a generation into battle is the last thing that anyone who has experienced war desires. It was General William T. Sherman who stated that “I am tired and sick of war. Its glory is all moonshine. It is only those who have neither fired a shot nor heard the shrieks and groans of the wounded, who cry aloud for blood, for vengeance, for desolation. War is Hell”. This is the man who burned Atlanta on his march to the sea and that sums up the case very succinctly and accurately. Our veterans know all too vividly what most of us can’t imagine – even from the images we see on television and the other outlets of social media.

We know of the various tensions simmering around the world waiting to explode. We have tensions in southeast Asia over the free transit of the seas. After more than a year and a half, the armed forces of Ukraine are still battling the Russian invaders with all the spit and vinegar in defense of their democracy that should make the world proud. Russian President Putin thought he’d be in Kiev in a couple of weeks. In almost every way, the whole People of Ukraine are experienced veterans surviving against the almost countless bombs and missiles thrown against them.

Before October 7th, there was a cease-fire in place between the Israeli’s and the terrorist organization called Hamas in Gaza. Knowing all that Hamas knew, and all that the Palestinian People have experienced over the last number of years, why did they go and break that cease-fire? In a surprise attack, they slaughtered and tortured some 1400 innocent people; they kidnapped and still hold as hostages hundreds more. And we all know what the result has been – a reply by the forces of Israel which have brought more killings, maiming, slaughter and sorrow. Has any even the slightest good come from the actions of three weeks ago? How many more innocents will have to suffer the results of all these actions long after a new cease-fire is eventually reached. Again, we all ask, when is enough, enough? When does protection bleed into revenge?

Indeed, we honor and thank our veterans who have fought to protect the ideals held (yet not quite entirely achieved) by our forefathers and their successors. We have heard that there is a time for laughter and a time for tears, a time for war and a time for peace. I believe that our veterans would tell all they know not only to pray for peace, but to work for peace, and if there is no justice, there can be no peace. In a closing note and plea, let us do justice to our wounded vets – if you can, join me in giving to the Wounded Warriors Project.

Let each of us pray for peace in an extra-special way this weekend. Let us pray that there be no escalation which brings additional innocent lives into danger. Let us support the causes that are just, let us also pray that both leaders and citizens have the moral courage to condemn and to act against those causes which are unjust, discriminatory and are blatantly wrong. Let us turn to the Prince of Peace to bless us with an “inner peace” a peace which the world cannot give. For if we are not at peace with ourselves and our families, how can we bring peace to strangers?

Good News!

November 19, 2023
Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31 / 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6 /
Matthew 25:14-30 or 25:14-15, 19-21

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Those who are willing to take great risks are often the ones who give birth to dreams of growth and new life. Often it is at the scary edge of life where such growth ultimately takes place. In 1776, those who sparked a revolution and risked their personal wealth founded a new nation. President Abraham Lincoln issued his Emancipation Proclamation in 1863, when many were urging him not to do so, thus opening the door of freedom to those who found it locked. In South Africa, Nelson Mandela risked speaking out against apartheid, was imprisoned for twenty-seven years, and was eventually freed to become the leader of a new South Africa.

So often those who risk to make life new are those who are living at the growing edge of God’s reign, instruments of God bringing creation to new life.

In the parable in this week’s Gospel, three individuals are entrusted with a treasure of great worth. The third person backs away from any risk, burying it because he is stifled by fear. God’s dynamic presence, on the other hand, grows when individuals risk doing the right thing in spite of the consequences, when they are willing to speak an unpopular truth, when they take a stand for those on the edges of society, when they break down the barriers of racism and oppression. In the end, we need to listen less to our fears and more to our dreams. It’s where God does God’s best work: at the edges. ●

Pope Francis talks about the journey of Synodality

The journey of synodality is the path along which the people of God walk together. Pope Francis said “Ensuring the synodality of the whole church will be impossible if people misunderstand the church's hierarchy and see it as a structure in which some people are placed above others. The church's structure is like an upside down pyramid with the top on the bottom, which is why the ordained are called ministers – they serve the others.”

“Let us trust in our People, in their memory and in their 'sense of smell', let us trust that the Holy Spirit acts in and with our People and that this Spirit is not merely the property of the ecclesial hierarchy.”

Do you trust that the Holy Spirit acts in all of us and not just in the hierarchy when it comes to issues in church life?
