FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sister of the Parish of the Good Shepherd,

Every year the parishes of the diocese publish their annual financial reports to you, the people who support your local church. Typically, after all the calculations have been finalized at the end of the fiscal year (31 August 2022), this is the time when we make our findings public and invite any who may have questions to bring them up so that we can be as transparent as possible. As pastor, I do want you to know that I truly appreciate your goodness and generosity both in terms of your financial support and your prayerful presence both on weekends and during the week.

The priests, deacons and parish staff have worked extremely hard in past years to serve you as best as possible both in the good times and through the pandemic. We continue that service and I am personally very grateful for so many people both as a part of our staff and as volunteers and ministers of the gospel who have made my first year as your pastor such an easy transition (and I hope you feel the same). You, the parishioners of Good Shepherd have made me feel very welcome and appreciated and at the same time, I have tried to do the best I could to serve you as the latest in a line of pastors so distinguished in reputation.

I am extremely happy to report that both spiritually and financially we are indeed making visible strides in the right direction. Over the summer Father Jerry, Sr. Ellen and Linda Mongan have worked diligently with me to not only to give the Faith Formation Office a well needed physical overhaul – but in making a number of needed enhancements in the overall program. The effort is to bring about a greater presence of our children and catechists on our campus in the next couple of years. As our schools have noticed that many children have lagged in progress because of their physical absence during the pandemic, it is also apparent that we need to provide greater opportunities for both children and parents to go beyond computer google sessions and experience in the liturgies the great depth and wealth of our faith – a journey of faith we all share. Fr. Jerry and I have been sharing the 10am family mass and we've been gratified to see that families have responded to our open invitation to all to experience the simple beauty of our younger families coming together in prayer and worship.

Environmentally, we have successfully moved the tabernacle to the sanctuary with a minimum disruption in parish life and we had a beautiful celebration with Bishop Coyle. A number of you have asked what's going on in the former Blessed Sacrament Chapel. My response is that you will see very shortly and I think you'll be pleasantly surprised.

Please take a look at the Financial Highlights printed in today's bulletin (page 8). I believe that the numbers speak for themselves and again, I most sincerely thank you for your generosity and support. Your support has brought an increase in our weekly collections and it has made a tremendous difference in our cash flow and our ability to meet our regular expenses. We have also tried to be as economical as possible in our expenses. While we all are fighting the monster we call inflation, and we've been able to make a few adjustments to use your contributions in the best possible way. One expense that will be coming up in next year's report will be the recent and pretty hefty but necessary cost of repairing the elevator.

Our annual report while including the spiritual and financial aspects of parish life also needs to mention three important social events – the 50th anniversary dinner dance this past spring; the very successful crafts fair; and the return of the spaghetti dinner as hosted by the Knights of Columbus. The main 'function' of our parish is walk together on the pilgrimage of faith; to worship, to work charitably for the common good in helping those less fortunate and finally to give strong support each other in hope. Yet we are a social people – made more aware of our need to be together by our isolation during the pandemic. I am hoping that we will be able to gather on a more frequent basis to laugh together and to enjoy each other's company. So again, thank you for the fervent practice of your faith and thank you for the many different ways that you support the life and work of Good Shepherd RC Church.

Peace, Fr. Kenneth M. Zach, Pastor

Good News!

November 20, 2022
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (C)
2 Sm 5:1-3; Col 1:12-20; Lk 23:35-43

The readings for today's feast create a collage of images that capture different characteristics of Christ's kingship. "Shepherd" assures us his kingly rule is characterized by tenderness. "King of Israel" locates him squarely within human time and space. "Image of the Invisible God" acclaims his divine origin. "Firstborn of all Creation" places him over the entire created world. "Source of all Created Things" acknowledges him as the model after which all things were fashioned. "Head of the Body, the Church" underscores the intimacy and interrelationship between him and all those joined to him through faith and baptism. "Firstborn of the Dead" acclaims his resurrection and guarantees the resurrection of those who will follow him into death.

The Gospel's image of Christ as the crucified king clearly interprets all the other images. He is a shepherd who protects his flock with his life, a king who rules with dedication despite shame and defeat, divine yet accepted death on a cross. He was God who became a vulnerable child of earth, a simple man who offered himself as sacrifice, the one through whom we will all enjoy resurrection from the dead.

In the last words of the Gospel, Jesus opens the gates of his kingdom to a repentant sinner: "Today you will be with me in Paradise." This is what all of us long to hear, words that are empty when coming from one who has no authority, but charged with power when spoken by the one who is king over us all.

Fellowship Activities

Good Shepherd's Fellowship Activities Ministry is looking for volunteers.

If you are interested in shopping for, planning for and helping at various Church activities and functions, please reach out to Deacon John and leave a message at the Main Office.

"This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad."

Masses for Thanksgiving will be celebrated on:

Wednesday, November 23rd
at 7:00pm
and Thursday, November 24th
at 9:00am

It is such a blessing to have the freedom to offer thanks at Mass with you. At our Thanksgiving Masses, Wednesday at 7pm and Thursday at 9am, it would also be quite appropriate to bring an item from your Thanksgiving Table to church to be blessed and shared with your family and guests.

What a beautiful gesture if you are visiting family or friends, to bring a food gift blessed at Mass. Many people bring bread, wines, desserts, but anything you desire can be part of the blessing. 2 tables will be set up at the bottom of the sanctuary for you to leave these items – just be sure to depart with the same one you came to have blessed (LOL)!

Peace, Fr. Ken

Congratulations Deacon Steven

Dear Good Shepherd Parish Family,

What an honor and privilege it was to come back to Good Shepherd and serve you as a deacon. I feel incredibly blessed to come from a vibrant and faith-filled parish. Thanks to Fr. Ken, Fr. Jerry (especially for the posters), Fr. Rudy, and Fr. Jerry Ringenback for celebrating over the weekend; as I stated on Sunday, Fr. Jerry Ringenback made such an impact on my vocation, he vested me at my diaconate ordination. Thanks to Judi Montemurro, Jim Marino, and the entire music ministry for providing beautiful music for a beautiful celebration. Thanks to the hospitality team for helping with the reception and the ushers for assisting with seating, especially at the 10. A special thanks to my family and friends who came to the Mass. Thanks to the entire Good Shepherd parish. Good Shepherd is such a special faith community, always remember that.
Remember all the different gifts and talents we bring to the altar each week and how God is working through each of us to bring His salvific message to the entire world. Lastly, remember to keep our eyes on heaven and the promise that Jesus has for each of us-everlasting life.

Sincerely,
Deacon Steven Anthony McClernon

Dear Brother and Sisters of Good Shepherd,

Greetings of Love, Peace and Joy!

This year, 2022 is a special year for me as I mark the 40th year of my Priestly Ordination. In gratitude for a grace-filled life and ministry, I humbly invite you to join me in thanking the Lord for the gift of my priestly vocation, unworthy though I am! You are part of my blessings and I am grateful for your gifts of friendship, understanding, concern and generosity. Your prayers and continuous support help me in many ways to make my ministry in a parish meaningful and encouraging.

This special prayer to "launch into the deep" on the year for priests, by the Archdiocese of Jaro resonates in my heart and captures the sentiments that I would like to share with you.

"Loving God, in the midst of my fears, anxieties and weaknesses I, your priest, hear you call me 'to launch into the deep.' I hear you inviting me to put my trust in you as you are always present in every turn of my journey.

Whenever I hesitate to follow you, whenever the daily struggles to carry with you my cross seem too much, whenever I become obsessed of my plans rather than your own, gently lead me Lord into your wounded heart and renew in my commitment to Your mission of love and service.

You are my desire, Lord God. You are my treasure. You are worth more than whatever I need to leave behind, whatever I need to let go. You are the way when I seem to be lost. You are my strength in my weakness. Joy in my sadness, light in my darkness. You are the home where I find fullness of life.

May my life bear witness to my loving you. May my heart beat every desire to 'feed your sheep.'

May I be made worthy by your love, find fulfillment in keeping my promise to strive to be holy and faithful. Lord, you know my heart, You very well know that, 'I love you.' Amen."

With love, gratitude and assurance of prayers,

Fr. Rudy Pesongco

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang

We are coming back! The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang whose mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve will begin meeting in January. We are planning to meet 4 times starting in January of 2023. Our dates are as follows- 1/7, 2/11, 3/11, 6/10 and WE NEED YOUR HELP. We need jars of creamy peanut butter and jars of jelly. We need sample size soap, shampoo and wash cloths for our wash-up kits. These items can be dropped off in the library of the church; please label them- "For PB&J Gang." If you are able to, when you come to volunteer, please bring any of the above mentioned supplies and/or 1 loaf of white or whole wheat bread. We meet from 8:30-9:30 and if needed, 1 hour of community service will be given to those who attend. Our sandwiches and wash-up kits will be brought to Lighthouse Mission located at 1543 Montauk Hwy, Bellport, NY 11713. Please help us help those in need and welcome us back by supporting us with your time and needed supplies.
