Dear Friends in Christ,

Advent will begin the first weekend of December. This holy season will usher in a new year of Grace. Part of our Advent journey will be an opportunity for the parish to reflect on stewardship, during the first three weekends of Advent.

Stewardship is our unique faith response expressing our love for God and neighbor and the parish. We give of our time, talent and treasure to build up the Church here at the Parish of the Good Shepherd.

I have been at the parish as pastor for almost one and a half years. During this time I have had the joy to witness the dedication, generosity and enthusiasm of the parish members in so many ministries, Mass participation and your generous support.

We will reflect as a parish on the treasure part of stewardship this Advent. Each week we will set aside time at Mass to prayerfully think about this aspect of stewardship.

I thank you for your consideration as we continue to build on the legacy of faith that has gone before us and continues on. In June 2020 the Parish will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Church of the Good Shepherd. This will be a great celebration. I pray we will continue to grow in faith and service to one another.

God bless you and your family,

Bishop Robert J. Coyle

Good News!

November 24, 2019
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe (C)
2 Sm 5:1-3; Col 1:12-20; Lk 23:35-43

In his Gospel, St. Luke, the good doctor, often brings in kingly themes related to Christ’s crucifixion. He does this to highlight that Jesus fulfilled the Jewish belief that the Messiah would unite the three important leadership roles—priest, prophet, and king. The inscription the Romans nailed to the cross above Jesus’ head inadvertently supports the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy—he was indeed the King of the Jews.

He was also the priest who offered his body as a sacrifice for the Chosen People: “It was Caiaphas who had counseled the Jews that it was better that one man should die rather than the people” (John 18:14). He is both the priest offering obedience to the Father, but he is also the victim who is offered on the altar of the cross. The cross is altar and throne because, as well as priest and victim, Jesus also is the king reuniting his kingdom under God the Father. In so doing, he undoes the sin of Adam, which had been the cause of this division.

Jesus’ final prophetic words, “It is finished,” means he has fulfilled his mission as priest, prophet, and king from the throne of the cross. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (1047) sums it up when it says that as king and high priest, his sacrifice is total, universal, and definitive. Now all of God’s creatures, man and beast, both natural and in the heavens, can return to the one from whom they came forth and who declared each one good.

LESSONS AND CAROLS
DECEMBER 1ST @ 2:00PM
ALL ARE INVITED

What is Lessons and Carols?
Lessons and Carols is a prayer service of Scripture and song. Originating in England in the late 19th century, Lessons and Carols was originally conducted on Christmas Eve and consisted of exactly nine Lessons. However, it has since been adapted and can be found being celebrated throughout Advent with a variable number of Lessons. Regardless of the number of Lessons, the service focuses on the mystery of the Incarnation and its role in salvation history. Each Lesson in a Lessons and Carols service consists of 4 things: a reading from Scripture, a carol or hymn, a prayer, and a period of silence.

Why should we participate in Lessons and Carols?
The reflective nature of Lessons and Carols offers calm and quiet, two things in short supply in our world. This service offers an opportunity to focus on God and remember the true meaning of this Holy Season. For many people today, December can be an incredibly busy, noisy, and stressful time of year. It’s easy to let Advent rush by in a flurry of activity that has little or nothing to do with Christ. Lessons and Carols is a beautiful way to step out of all that hustle and bustle and take some time and space to prepare one’s heart for the peace and joy of Christmas. Let us begin this Season of Advent together in prayer as we pause and reflect on the coming of Christ.

PRAYER SERVICE & DISCUSSION

On Wednesday, November 20th at 7:30pm, Good Shepherd will hold a prayer service and have an open discussion about the book “Letter to a Suffering Church: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis” by Bishop Robert Barron. Bishop Robert Barron, founder of Word on Fire Catholic Ministries and Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, explains why in this time of crisis, it is not the time to leave the Church, but the time to stay and fight. If you are interested in attending this discussion on November 20th, please stop by the Main Office and pick up a copy of the book.
