A Note from the Pastor

Happy Thanksgiving!

"All good gifts around us come from Heaven above!"
Many blessings upon you and your families. May this Thanksgiving be a blessed celebration.

Please consider joining us for Mass on Wednesday night the eve of Thanksgiving or on the actual day. The word "Eucharist" means thanksgiving.

Lord bless our Nation, our Church and parish.

God bless you! In thanksgiving for you!

Bishop Coyle

God bless Pope Francis!

I recently met with the Holy Father. I asked him to bless my mother the day I met him which was her 80th birthday. He blessed her photo and gave me a special rosary for her. He told me, "This is for your mother!" He extends the blessing of Almighty God to all of us. The bishops from New York then met with him for over 2 hours. He cares for us all deeply. Pope Francis asked, "Please pray for me." We do Holy Father!

Bishop Coyle

Dear Parish Family,

Bishop John Barres has appointed Mr. Joe Raygada as Trustee of the parish.

We are grateful for this appointment. Joe's service to the parish and his ability in finance and accounting will be a special gift for the parish as we review matters of governance and pastoral planning. Joe already serves in many ministries here at the parish.

Joe will serve with Mary Greene as Trustees. We always remember the late Bill Reynolds and his generous service as Trustee.

God bless Joe and his family.

First Sunday of Advent
December 1, 2019
Matthew 24:37-44

"Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come."

1. What are some of the difficulties in staying alert to God in your everyday life?
2. Share a time when you were caught unprepared. How do you see God being a part of that experience?

OUR PARISH
VISION STATEMENT
Welcoming All...Awakening Faith...
Serving Others...

OUR PARISH
MISSION STATEMENT
We, the disciples of Jesus Christ who Worship at Good Shepherd, accept the privilege and responsibility of supporting one another in love and service, of giving witness to the Good News of salvation, thus enabling others to experience the loving presence of Our Risen Lord.

Good News!
December 1, 2019
First Sunday of Advent (A)
Is 2:1-5; Rom 13:11-14; Mt 24:37-44.

Be prepared! But for what? Since we’re entering the season of Advent, we might think that we’re called to prepare for the birth of Jesus. Advent is certainly the time to prepare for Christmas, but it’s much more than that, for God comes into our lives in many different ways, even today. We see evidence of that when, working together, we rebuild not only cities, as Isaiah describes in the first reading, but relationships in families, parishes, and countries.

Remarkable changes take place in our lives when,
as Paul bids us, “we throw off the works of darkness,” works of rivalry and jealousy (Romans 13:12).
God comes to us every day with the power we need to improve ourselves and our world. God often comes quietly in ways so ordinary we might miss them.
That is the point of Jesus’ insistence to “stay awake”
and “be prepared” (Matthew 24:25, 44).

God certainly came long ago as a human being.
That was a one-time-only event. We believe that God will come again at the end. That, too, will happen only once. But God comes more often than this. God comes every day to help us be our better selves. This is what the Advent readings tell us.

What can we do? How are we to prepare for God’s coming? Today’s readings tell us. We must work for the peace that Isaiah describes; we must throw off the works of darkness, as Paul instructs; and we must do as Jesus tells us: stay awake and be prepared.

LESSONS AND CAROLS

DECEMBER 1st @ 2:00PM

ALL ARE INVITED

What is Lessons and Carols?
Lessons and Carols is a prayer service of Scripture and song. Originating in England in the late 19th century, Lessons and Carols was originally conducted on Christmas Eve and consisted of exactly nine Lessons. However, it has since been adapted and can be found being celebrated throughout Advent with a variable number of Lessons. Regardless of the number of Lessons, the service focuses on the mystery of the Incarnation and its role in salvation history. Each Lesson in a Lessons and Carols service consists of 4 things: a reading from Scripture, a carol or hymn, a prayer, and a period of silence.

Why should we participate in Lessons and Carols?
The reflective nature of Lessons and Carols offers calm and quiet, two things in short supply in our world. This service offers an opportunity to focus on God and remember the true meaning of this Holy Season. For many people today, December can be an incredibly busy, noisy, and stressful time of year. It’s easy to let Advent rush by in a flurry of activity that has little or nothing to do with Christ. Lessons and Carols is a beautiful way to step out of all that hustle and bustle and take some time and space to prepare one’s heart for the peace and joy of Christmas. Let us begin this Season of Advent together in prayer as we pause and reflect on the coming of Christ.

“This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad.”

The Mass for Thanksgiving will be celebrated on:

Wednesday, November 27th at 7:00pm

Mass will also be celebrated on:

Thursday, November 28th at 9:00am
Dear Friends in Christ,

Advent will begin the first weekend of December. This holy season will usher in a new year of Grace. Part of our Advent journey will be an opportunity for the parish to reflect on stewardship, during the first three weekends of Advent.

Stewardship is our unique faith response expressing our love for God and neighbor and the parish. We give of our time, talent and treasure to build up the Church here at the Parish of the Good Shepherd.

I have been at the parish as pastor for almost one and a half years. During this time I have had the joy to witness the dedication, generosity and enthusiasm of the parish members in so many ministries, Mass participation and your generous support.

We will reflect as a parish on the treasure part of stewardship this Advent. Each week we will set aside time at Mass to prayerfully think about this aspect of stewardship.

I thank you for your consideration as we continue to build on the legacy of faith that has gone before us and continues on. In June 2020 the Parish will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Church of the Good Shepherd. This will be a great celebration. I pray we will continue to grow in faith and service to one another.

God bless you and your family,

Bishop Robert J. Coyle

Are You Interested in Becoming a Lector?

Lectors are liturgical ministers whose principal duty is to serve the community by proclaiming the readings from Scripture during the liturgy. A thoughtful and prayerful presentation by the lector helps open the hearts of the community so that the Holy Spirit may speak to each one present.

Any Confirmed adult or teen who feels called to proclaim the Word of God to his or her fellow congregants may participate in this ministry after training.

If you would like to come forward and offer your service in this liturgical role, please contact the parish office at (631) 588-7689 and leave a message for Georgiana Hadden, the coordinator.

Thank you!

AT THE MOVIES with Donna…

“Maleficent: Mistress of Evil” – In this sequel to the 2014 film, we find Queen Aurora has accepted the wedding proposal from Prince Philip, to the dismay of Philip’s mother, the Queen. They got the title of this film all wrong. Maleficent is anything but a Mistress of Evil. The evil one is the Queen Mother, who will do just about anything to stop the wedding. And of course, Maleficent must come to the rescue. Angelina Jolie is once again perfect as the misunderstood Maleficent. With a good supporting cast and good writing from Linda Woolverton, Micah Fitzerman-Blue and Noah Harpster and well-directed by Joachim Ronning.

“Motherless Brooklyn” – Adapted from Jonathan Lethem’s 1999 novel, it’s New York in the 1950’s and Lionel Essrog is a private detective with Tourette’s syndrome, who sets out to find the murderer of his best friend and partner. This film noir is produced, directed, written and stars Edward Norton, who is just fantastic as Lionel. With a superb supporting cast, that includes Bruce Willis, Gugu Mbatha-Raw, Bobby Cannavale, Willem Dafoe and Alec Baldwin. This is movie-making at its best. Although it seems simple enough, there are so many layers to this film, with a few side stories going on at the same time. It may be almost two and a half hours long, but it certainly goes by quickly. If you like a good old-fashioned crime drama, this one is for you. One of the best movies of the year!

“Terminator: Dark Fate” – This sequel follows the first two films from thirty-five years ago, bringing back the two characters who started it all, Sarah O’Connor and T-800, the original Terminator. The story is the same - latest Terminator, Rev-9, arrives from the future to kill Dani Ramos, along with Grace, who is sent to protect her. It sounds confusing but believe it or not, it does make for a very entertaining story and movie. Besides, it really is fun watching Linda Hamilton and Arnold Schwarzenegger in action again. Well written by David Ellison, David Goyer, Billy Ray and Justin Rhodes. With top-notch direction by Tim Miller. Throw in a few life-lessons on forgiveness, teamwork, self-sacrifice and dedication.

“Harriet”- This film is based on the life of Harriet Tubman, who escaped slavery and led hundred’s of enslaved people to freedom on the Underground Railroad. This is an inspirational story of courage, strength, and bravery. Harriet was a remarkable woman, who believed that her visions were communications with God, which enabled her to guide so many to safety. Well directed by Kasi Lemmons, who co-wrote the script with Gregory Allen Howard. Top-notch performance by Cynthia Erivo, and terrific supporting cast including Leslie Odom, Jr., Joe Alwyn and Janelle Monae. “I go to prepare a place for you.” “Last Christmas” – It’s Christmas time in London and we meet Kate, whose life is slowly spiraling out-of-control until she meets Tom, a mysterious stranger who starts to turn her life around. This lovely story is about loss, family, love and caring. Both Emilia Clarke and Henry Golding are wonderful in the lead roles. Add in the incomparable Emma Thompson and the wonderful Michelle Yeoh, with good directing by Paul Feig and beautiful cinematography by John Schwartzman, not to mention many well-placed songs by the late George Michael, all adding up to a sentimental holiday movie. “Look Up”. “Ford v Ferrari”- Based on the true story of visionary car designer Carroll Shelby and race-car driver Ken Miles, who together built the revolutionary race car for the Ford Motor Company to race against the unbeatable Ferrari at Le Mans in 1966. James Mangold does an excellent job in directing this fast-paced film with terrific cinematography by Phedon Papamichael. Well-written by Jez Butterworth, John-Nery Butterworth and Jason Keller. Matt Damon and Christian Bale are excellent in the lead roles and are supported by a fine cast that includes Jon Bernthal, Tracy Letts, Josh Lucas, Noah Jupe and Ray McKinnon. Although this is an exciting movie about racing and it is very interesting to watch these men work in the trenches to create the fastest car while clashing with the executives at the Ford Motor Corporation, at its very core it is about true friendship and the deep respect and love these two men had for each other.
