Religious Retirement

Next weekend, 12/8 & 12/9, we will have the Religious Retirement Collection. Senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests ministered for years for little or no pay. Their sacrifices now leave their religious communities without adequate retirement savings. Your gift to the collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious helps to provide medications, nursing care, and more for tens of thousands of elderly religious. Please be generous.

Immaculate Conception

The feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is:
Saturday, December 8th.

This is A Holy Day of Obligation.

The Mass schedule is:
Friday, December 7th at: 5:00pm and
Saturday, December 8th at: 9:00am & 12Noon

There will also be our regularly scheduled 5:00pm Mass on Saturday evening.

Happy Advent!

The next 4 weeks is a wonderful time to prepare for the celebration of Christmas. St. John the Baptist implored the people of his day and our day, "Prepare the way of the Lord." We will all be involved in many wonderful holiday preparations in anticipation of the joyous celebration of our Lord's birth. It is a great time. Yes it can be a little hectic too, but it is worth it. Besides the festive part and the decorations, I will soon help my mother decorate her home, we also prepare ourselves spiritually. Advent is a time to reflect on the great gift of Jesus in our lives and if it has been a while, to go to confession. Jesus, who came to forgive our sins longs for us to be embraced by His forgiveness and grace in the Sacrament of Confession. Our parish will offer many times to take part in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

As we draw closer to the actual celebration of Christmas, I highlight a change in the Christmas Eve Mass Schedule. Thank you for your inputs in the Mass survey. I also surveyed many churches on Long Island. The majority of votes here is to move the "Midnight Mass" to an earlier hour. May I give some additional background as well.

Mass doesn't have to be celebrated at Midnight on Christmas Eve. The actual name for Midnight Mass is “Mass at night,” and it can be celebrated anytime between 9 p.m. Christmas Eve and 4 a.m. Christmas Day. Midnight Mass dates back to the early days of the Church, when services for Christmas and Easter couldn't be celebrated until the day the holiday began. The Church permits Masses called “vigils,” which can be celebrated before holydays and Sundays as we do each Saturday at the 5pm Mass.

The Mass at Night for Christmas will begin at 10 p.m. at Good Shepherd Parish.

This earlier hour provides a time which allows us to mark Christmas Eve, travel more safely, rather then returning home by 1:45a.m. or later. I know it will be a special event.

In most parishes the earlier Christmas Eve Masses at 4 p.m., of which we will have two simultaneous Masses in the church and lower hall will have the greatest attendance. We will also have an 8 p.m. Mass then followed by the 10 p.m. Mass at Night for Christmas Eve.

Christmas Day we have 8:30 a.m., 10 a.m. and 12 Noon Masses.

Enjoy the Advent Season, as we prepare the way of the Lord!

Bishop Coyle
As we begin the new Church Year with the Holy Season Of Advent you will notice an addition to the Mass.

We will have the ringing of the altar bells at Mass at the Consecration of the Holy Eucharist. The ringing of bells is a long standing tradition of the Church. It was not suppressed. It is appropriate for any Mass whether it is celebrated in Latin or in the vernacular. The ringing of the bells is to give glory to God and remind us by the power of the Holy Spirit, the bread and wine are consecrated and become the Body and Blood of Christ.

I am grateful for the beautiful bells and hymns that ring from our church tower before Mass. Bells connect us to something very sacred in our day. The Angelus rings out in many places 3 times a day. 6 am, 12 Noon and 6 pm. This is a wonderful way to pray at these hours each day. I encourage you to consider participating in this ancient church custom.

Bells at Mass is another wonderful option for us. Bells at Mass along with incense and the music parts bring us to a participation in the sacred.

Sounds, are important in our worship. They remind us what we do here each week is special. The singing of the congregation, or the sound of the organ, or other instruments and the sound of bells adds to the reverence and the solemnity of the Mass. Most importantly, bells highlight in a sensible way the sacred action taking place on the altar. This is a tradition that is not only practical but also beautiful to experience.

Luke 3:1-6

“Make ready the way of the Lord, clear him a straight path.”

1. John the Baptist’s message is for all times. In what areas are you challenged to change in the midst of all the worldly attitudes around you?

2. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus. How do you announce the coming of the Lord?

Good News!

December 9, 2018
Second Sunday of Advent (C)
Bar 5:1-9; Phil 1:4-6, 8-11; Lk 3:1-6

Saint Luke loves to be precise in his Gospel, so he documents the exact time and place of the appearance of John the Baptist, the precursor to Jesus. Tiberius was the second emperor of Rome, and the fifteenth year of his reign corresponds to AD 27. Pontius Pilate was prefect from the years 26 to 36. Herod Antipas, son of Herod the Great, ruled in Galilee until his death in the year 39 and is the Herod who had John the Baptist beheaded. On the Jewish side, Caiphas was high priest, and his influential father-in-law Annas was considered a leader of Jewish religious life.

These historical dates align with Luke’s explanation, as well as other events described in his Gospel. Ours is a faith based on real people and events. No doubt there is a great appreciation for the supernatural in our faith, but it is never against nature, just beyond it.

Jesus praised John the Baptist (see Matthew 11:1-11) for his strong will and dedication. Humility, austerity, courage, and a spirit of prayer are also a large part of the testimony John left us. So dedicated and heroic was he in his fulfillment of the mission entrusted to him, Jesus acclaimed “among those born of women there has been none greater” (Matthew 11:11). “He was a burning and shining lamp” (John 5:35) to illuminate the path toward the true light who was coming into the world. Once that divine light arrived, John the Baptist receded into the shadows.

Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang
During the month of December, the Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on December 15th. This is the only time that we will meet during December. We begin at 8:30 am. Our mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve.

For our sandwiches, we need donations of jelly (our stock is very low), creamy peanut butter, paper plates, plastic spoons and knives, paper towels and sandwich-size folder over bags. You may drop them off at church (label for the PB&J Gang) or bring them with you. Please do not drop off bread; bring it with you instead.

If you come to volunteer bring a jar of jelly and/or a loaf of white or wheat bread with you.

For our wash-up kits, we need donations of sample-size soap, shampoo and lotion, individually wrapped hard candy, new or gently used washcloths/towels, and sandwich-size ZipLoc bags.

Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine.

We look forward to having you help us to help others.

Senior Group - Along with planned Christmas celebrations, we celebrate birthdays this month for Tootsie R. 12/18, Charlene Z. 12/25, Mary Z. 12/27 and Deacon Ed T. 12/29. Join us for the 9:00 mass on Tuesday mornings and stop downstairs afterwards.

Food Pantry - We are in need of kids cold cereals, plain oatmeal, kids snacks, jar sauce, cup of noodles, canned chili & canned pasta (chef-Boyardee)
Thank you.

Thank you so very much for your generous donations to help families over Thanksgiving.

“The Hate U Give” – Based on the NY Times best seller since 2017, Starr Carter is a 16 year-old girl who seems to be balancing living in a poor black neighborhood while attending a mostly white prep-school, until she witnesses the fatal shooting of her childhood friend by a police officer. This movie handles a very emotional and volatile topic without placing blame, instead opting to tell the story with honesty and truth. Excellent film. Well-written by Audrey Wells and skillfully directed by George Tillman with top-notch performances by the entire cast.

“Indivisible” – The true story of Army Chaplain Darren Turner and his wife, Heather, and the effect that his deployment to Iraq had on their solid belief in serving God, family and country. As the faith of the soldiers that Turner serves strengthens, his begins to diminish and upon his return home, he becomes a distraught man who is a stranger to his family. We have seen films about PTSD before and the difficulty these men and women have returning to everyday life. But, there are also the struggles of the spouses and children who have to deal with them being gone for long periods of time and then their challenging return home. Yes, this is one of those faith-based, low-budget, independent films, but it is truly an extraordinary movie. Well directed and co-written by David Evans with a terrific cast (many of whom you will recognize from TV shows). “I am not sure there is faith without doubt.”

“Bohemian Rhapsody” – This is the story of the rock band Queen, their incredible music and their lead singer, Freddie Mercury. The story of who these men were, how they meet and their unbelievable talent is extremely interesting. Just watching them create their music is great fun. However, putting aside all of that; along with his homosexuality and flamboyant life-style; there is the tender but sad story of who Freddie really was. On stage, he was this great showman, but off stage, he was lost.

“Hunter Killer” – Director Donovan Marsh brings us this action thriller about an American submarine sent to locate a disabled one only to find itself in the mists of a Russian government take-over. Along the way, the Americans rescue a few Russian survivors including their Captain from a sunken sub. It is the relationship between the American and Russian Captains that makes this film interesting. We can only hope that if our countries are ever faced with the same climatic situation as presented in this movie, that there are men of integrity who can put aside their egos for the greater good.

“The Nutcracker and the Four Realms” – It’s Christmas Eve and Clara and her brother and sister receive presents from their recently deceased mother. Clara receives a musical box that can only be opened with a key which sends her on a journey into the fourth realm. Beautiful set and art decoration and costume design, this movie is visually stunning. Whether or not it can hold the attention of a younger audience, remains to be seen. Even so, its message is clear, “Everything you need is inside”.

“Fantastic Beasts: The Crimes of Grindelwald” – Part 2 of this five-part movie series, begins with the escape of the dark wizard, Grindelwald, who is determined to take over the world. The only person who is strong enough to defeat Grindelwald is Dumbledore, but because of a childhood bond, Dumbledore cannot fight him and must enlist the help of his former student, Newt Scamander. Newt reconnects with Tina, Queenie and Jacob and a former classmate, Leta, who is now engaged to Newt’s brother. Sound confusing? Well, as big and epic as this film is, it is also confusing at times. There are just too many storylines all happening at the same time. The actors are all terrific with the addition of Johnny Depp as Grindelwald and Jude Law as Dumbledore. Once again, good versus evil.

“Widows” – The widows of three thieves killed in their last heist, join together to pull off a heist of their own to overcome the debt they inherit. Clever concept, with a number of storylines intertwined, gritty, violent, strong sexual content (not necessary and distracting) with surprising plot twists. This is not a film for everyone. Despite an excellent cast and good story, this film never takes itself seriously enough to be as good as it could be.
