Interested in becoming a Catholic or completing your Sacraments?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process by which adults are brought into the Catholic Church. If you have never been baptized, confirmed, or received First Holy Communion, or if you are a member of another Christian Church and wish to become a member of the Catholic Church, please contact the parish office.

Pray the Rosary

Please join us in the Church Monday through Saturday @ 8:30am. We will pray the Rosary aloud asking for the intercession of the Blessed Mother for the health and safety of our families, our parish community, and for peace in our troubled world!

FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Parish of The Good Shepherd,

There are three words that we all need to hear on a regular basis – “I LOVE YOU”. There are four words, when we truly understand them, which can transform our lives. We’ve heard these four words more times than we can remember and they may be the ultimate way of hearing God say to us “I LOVE YOU”. Jesus, the Son of God tells us how much he loves us each time we hear these four words, “THIS IS MY BODY”. Our Lord Jesus Christ is saying, “Here I am, my friend, my child, my brother, my sister. Here I am as the ultimate gift, the ultimate sacrifice, the ultimate life-giving food, the ultimate nourishment, the ultimate act of love. There is no way on this earth today or tomorrow (until I return) that shows my love for each of you individually and communally than when I declare to you through the priest presiding at the Eucharistic Liturgy, “THIS IS MY BODY. THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD”. In a way that you can see, I’m shouting, “HERE I AM! HERE I AM FOR YOU”.

We’ve sung the song “Here I Am Lord”, many times and we’re well acquainted with the question asked before the refrain, “Whom Shall I Send? – Here I Am, Lord. Is It I Lord?” Before time began, Jesus sang to His Father, “Here I AM, send me.” As we celebrate our Eucharist, as we come before Him in adoration, Jesus is singing to you and me, “I have heard you calling in the night”. I know of your fears. I know your loneliness. I know of the darkness of disease and war which surrounds you. I know of ALL your needs and I hold you in my heart- HERE I AM IN THE HOLY EUCHARIST. SO COME TO ME; speak to me; adore me as the Lord of sea and sky, the wounded one who constantly hears his people cry and feels their pain.

The bishops’ call to a Eucharistic Renewal and Revival has its source in the 2019 Pew Forum of Catholics (of all ages) in regard to their belief in the Eucharist. For some reason, far beyond any understanding, despite the unambiguous teaching from the Second Vatican Council that the Eucharist is the “source and summit of the Christian life”, CATHOLICS DO NOT UNDERSTAND this central mystery of our faith. If we do not understand the incredible wonder of Jesus’ REAL PRESENCE in the Eucharist, how can we hold it dear?

There are moments when I distribute Holy Communion when I wonder when presenting the host that instead of saying “The Body of Christ”, we instead should say, “Receive Jesus”. Or perhaps as the host is presented to each person, the minister should say “This is Jesus” as we emphasize that each person truly know that their “Amen” is proclaiming, “This is indeed JESUS CHRIST coming to ME”.

It is indeed so beautiful and humbling that our children should readily accept that the Bread (the host) becomes the Body of Christ and the Wine now is His Blood. They have amazing questions about HOW this is possible, but they believe. It’s ironic that these little children believe and have a greater faith and trust in this miracle more than their parents do. Yes, the Kingdom of God belongs to these innocents.

Because every time Mass – the Eucharist – is celebrated, a tremendous miracle occurs. Through the priest calling down the power of the Holy Spirit these gifts of bread and wine are sanctified, Jesus Christ IS REALLY AND TRULY PRESENT. And Jesus remains REALLY AND TRULY PRESENT AS THE BLESSED SACRAMENT IN THE TABERNACLE AT ALL TIMES.

I strongly urge you to BE PRESENT TO HIM in our church at 7pm on WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6TH for a very special night of adoration of Jesus Christ. I assure you, you will be inspired by the thoughts and reflections of Bishop Andrzej. Our theme is “Come, Let Us Adore Him”. If you do only one thing as your Advent Preparation to celebrate Jesus’ birth among us, be here that evening and Come, Adore Jesus that evening as you would bow before him on Christmas Day. Jesus is here for you – be here for him!

Good News!

December 10, 2023
Second Sunday of Advent (B)
Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11 / 2 Peter 3:8-14 / Mark 1:1-8

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

In 1992, Forbes magazine published an issue titled “Why Do We Feel So Bad When We Have It So Good?” It featured articles by such luminaries as newsman Dan Rather, President George H. W. Bush, and author John Updike. Many of the writers reflected upon our passion for more and our hunger to live in affluence and how that fails to satisfy. In so many ways, we as a nation find ourselves seeking distractions from living with ourselves lest we be confronted by our ultimate loneliness. As a nation we are addicted to entertainment and smartphones, to drugs and pornography, to finding something new. We are confronted by rising suicide rates and a pervasive, deep-seated anger. Why are we not satisfied?

John the Baptist called the people of his day to repent, which is another way of asking them—and us—to look at life differently. Advent is really about getting in touch with our deep longing for more, a part of our human condition that ultimately is only satisfied by God. We have been created to long for more, a longing that feels like loneliness, a longing that seeks to be satisfied. In the end, we can only find a sense of peace in the midst of such longing by accepting that it can never be fully satisfied in this life. Like the spirituality of Alcoholics Anonymous, accepting rather than fleeing from our human reality becomes a path to new life. ●

Signs of Things to Come

The Son of Man will come in great glory.

Connect the dots.

A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O

DO YOU HEAR WHAT I HEAR?

Is it the voice of an angel? Perhaps. Is it the voices of a choir? Maybe.

I hear YOUR VOICES, the people of GOOD SHEPHERD PARISH, singing Christmas hymns of praise to God in our church on THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14TH AT 6:45 PM in the church.

Children of all ages are invited to come and learn to sing some of the wonderful and beautiful Traditional Christmas Carols like "The First Noel" and "O Come All Ye Faithful." We'll sing a couple of fun songs like "Jingle Bells" and "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

Parishioners are invited to come together and sing in praise of God for the gift of Jesus whose birth we will celebrate this year on Monday, December 25th.

Parents, Grandparents, and Adults of every age are invited to help guide the children in this festive sing-along with Hot Chocolate and Candy Canes served by our Knights of Columbus in the Parish Hall afterward.

Parish Social Ministry

Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

Food Pantry

Please call 585-4544 and leave a message if you need assistance.

Senior Group

If you are 55 years of age, or older, come join us on Tuesday mornings after the 9am mass in Fellowship Hall. We are men and women who help support each other and the parish through many social activities.

Friendship Ministry

Friendship Ministry is a group that meets every Thursday from 10:00 a.m. until noon in Fellowship Hall. If crocheting or knitting is not your thing, just come and socialize with us; we would love to have the chance to meet you.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang

The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang whose mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve will meet on Saturday, December 9th from 8:30 to 9:30 in the Fellowship Hall. At our last meeting, with the help of our volunteers, we were able to make 350 sandwiches and 50 wash-up kits. Thank you!

In addition to your time, we need individually wrapped hard candy (no chocolate please) and sample size soap and shampoo for our washup kits.

These items can be dropped off in the library of the church; please label them- "For PB&J Gang." DO NOT drop off bread.

When you come to volunteer, if you are able to, please bring any of the above mentioned items and/or 1 loaf of white or whole wheat bread.

If needed, 1 hour of community service will be given to those who attend.

Our sandwiches and wash-up kits will be brought to Lighthouse Mission located at 1543 Montauk Hwy, Bellport, NY 11713.

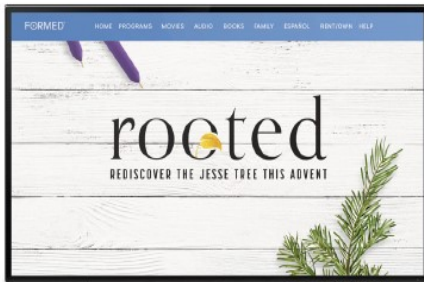

The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang would like to thank the Good Shepherd Knights of Columbus Council #8607 for their very generous donation and support.

The Chosen

Coming Soon: Christmas with the Chosen, The Messengers (The Story of the Nativity)– Join us on December 12th at 7PM at Good Shepherd Fellowship Hall to view this beautiful episode of the Chosen. You will experience the Nativity Story like never before. Come and experience the Birth of Jesus through the Eyes of Mary and Joseph. This is a great way to prepare yourself for the Christmas Season. Please bring your family, friends, and fellow parishioners. All are welcome.

Prepare for Christ's coming with two new Advent series on FORMED.

Rooted presents a beloved tradition in a new light.

This new 22-episode series guides Catholics through a daily Advent reflection using the Jesse Tree model traditionally practiced by families. Each seven-minute episode introduces the ancestors of Jesus Christ, shares a Scripture passage, and offers an engaging, practical reflection.

Hosted by Dr. Scott Hefelfinger, Rooted helps viewers apply the passage and related teachings to each day of Advent, guided by the Church's teaching. Episodes begin on December 3, the First Sunday of Advent, and end on December 24, the Fourth Sunday of Advent.

Drawing Closer to God prepares your family for the Messiah's coming.

Journey through Advent with the whole family! Join art teacher Ms. Kim as she teaches children to draw different scenes from the Christmas story, including the Annunciation, shepherds' visit, the Nativity scene, and more. With compelling storytelling, Ms. Kim points out key details from Scripture and Catholic tradition.

As kids follow along and learn new art skills, they also learn to see the connections between the big picture of God's story and their place within it.

There's still time to join us on FORMED this Advent. Explore more today!
