“Do we have to go to Grandma's?”
Children aren't the only ones who sometimes dread the family Christmas gathering. Adults might, too. Why is that? Our family is the cradle that embraced us at birth, nourished us, and helped us grow. At least that's what it was supposed to be. Perhaps we didn't come from such a family. Still, when our time comes, it is within our power to form such a family. How are we to do it?

In today's readings we have two quite different descriptions of family dynamics. The first, from Sirach, focuses on children's respect and support of parents. The Gospel passage recounts parents' protection of a vulnerable child. Together these readings tell us that every family member, regardless of age or position within the family, owes all the other members concern and care. Paul provides a short list of what I like to think of as genuine family values: "heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another” (Colossians 3:12-13). Are these values asking too much of us?

It's not by accident that we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family during Christmastime. Some think that this is a season for children. It's actually a season for family, a time when generations—three, sometimes four or five—at least contact each other. It's a time for us to decide whether or not Paul's list of virtues reflects our own family portrait. How authentic are our smiles? How deep are our family values?—Dr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Ordinary People Connecting Life & Faith

Christmas - December 25, 2019
John 1:1-18

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.”
1. Where does the light of Jesus shine in your life? What are the dark corners in your life that need you to bring the light that is Jesus?
2. Share some ways in which God's message of good news is light and life for you, during this season.

Feast of the Holy Family - December 29, 2019
Matthew 2:13-15,19-23

"Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you."
1. Relate a time in your life when you experienced family unity in the face of danger, difficulty or crisis. Why was there unity?
2. Describe an experience of God guiding you out of danger or difficulty. How did God “speak” to you? Through a friend, family member, a stranger, your feelings, prayer?

Stewardship

Dear Friends in Christ,

Advent will begin the first weekend of December. This holy season will usher in a new year of Grace. Part of our Advent journey will be an opportunity for the parish to reflect on stewardship, during the first three weekends of Advent.

Stewardship is our unique faith response expressing our love for God and neighbor and the parish. We give of our time, talent and treasure to build up the Church here at the Parish of the Good Shepherd.

I have been at the parish as pastor for almost one and a half years. During this time I have had the joy to witness the dedication, generosity and enthusiasm of the parish members in so many ministries, Mass participation and your generous support.

We will reflect as a parish on the treasure part of stewardship this Advent. Each week we will set aside time at Mass to prayerfully think about this aspect of stewardship.

I thank you for your consideration as we continue to build on the legacy of faith that has gone before us and continues on. In June 2020 the Parish will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Church of the Good Shepherd. This will be a great celebration. I pray we will continue to grow in faith and service to one another.

God bless you and your family,

Bishop Robert J. Coyle
Pastor

Stewardship Prayer

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

I come to You in Thanksgiving, knowing that all that I am and all that I have are gifts from You. Teach me to be generous as You have been generous with me. I offer to You this day all the facets of my life, whether at home, at work or at school – to be patient, to be merciful, to be generous and to be holy.

Keep me mindful that as Your disciple, I am called through the Holy Spirit, to be an instrument of dramatic missionary growth, radically faithful to participation in the Sunday Mass, deeply devoted to the presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and courageous in living the truths of our Faith and sharing the “Good News” with the world.

Make us One Family in Mission so that together, we may ignite our Church with the joy of the Gospel.

Amen.

Our office is reaching out to you or anyone you know in our area that is in need of assistance for food, temporary financial help, counseling, advice or referrals or is sick, home bound, lonely and hurting. If in need of our services, please call our office at 585-4544. All information taken is treated privately and confidentially except where disclosure is made at your request or with your permission.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang
During the month of January, the Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on January 11th and January 25th. We begin at 8:30 am. Our mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve. At this time, we need donations of creamy peanut butter, jars of jelly, fold-over sandwich size bags and individually wrapped hard candy. When you come to volunteer, please bring 1 loaf of whole wheat or white bread and a jar of peanut butter or jelly. Please make sure that the bread is not frozen or expired. ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine. During 2019, the PB&J Gang made 11,760 sandwiches and 3,070 wash-up kits. WOW! We thank you for your help and support and we wish you a very Merry Christmas!

Senior Group
We will not be meeting Tuesdays, Dec. 24th and Dec. 31st. We wish you all a happy and healthy Christmas season. Our next meeting will be Tuesday, January 7th, 2020.

The entire Parish Social Ministry office hopes you all had a wonderful Christmas and wishes you a very Happy and Healthy New Year. Thank you for all you've done for so many throughout the year.
Christmas 2019

To the People of God of the Diocese of Rockville Centre:

In his December 1, 2019 Apostolic Letter Admirabile Signum: On the Meaning and Importance of the Nativity Scene, Our Holy Father Pope Francis writes:

“The nativity scene is like a living Gospel rising up from the pages of sacred Scripture… I wish to encourage the beautiful family tradition of preparing the nativity scene in the days before Christmas, but also the custom of setting it up in the workplace, in schools, hospitals, prisons and town squares.

Great imagination and creativity is always shown in employing the most diverse materials to create small masterpieces of beauty. As children, we learn from our parents and grandparents to carry on this joyful tradition, which encapsulates a wealth of popular piety. It is my hope that this custom will never be lost and that, wherever it has fallen into disuse, it can be discovered and revived.”

The Holy Father captures so poignantly how we creatively share our Catholic faith generation to generation through the Nativity sets and creches that bring Christ’s light and love into our homes, our parishes and our public squares.

He also captures how the poor, the outcast, the ignored, the forgotten and the vulnerable have a privileged place in every Nativity scene: “The presence of the poor and the lowly in the nativity scene remind us that God became man for the sake of those who feel most in need of his love and who ask him to draw near to them. Jesus, ‘gentle and humble in heart’ (Mt 11:29), was born in poverty and led a simple life in order to teach us to recognize what is essential and to act accordingly. The nativity scene clearly teaches that we cannot let ourselves be fooled by wealth and fleeting promises of happiness. We see Herod’s palace in the background, closed and deaf to the tidings of joy. By being born in a manger, God himself launches the only true revolution that can give hope and dignity to the dispossessed and the outcast: the revolution of love, the revolution of tenderness. From the manger, Jesus proclaims, in a meek yet powerful way, the need for sharing with the poor as the path to a more human and fraternal world in which no one is excluded or marginalized.”

As we celebrate the joy of Christmas and the power and presence of the Prince of Peace in our families, in the Church and in the World, we realize at the same time that the Christmas Crib can never be separated from the agony of Calvary’s Cross.

Even as we rejoice this Christmas of 2019, we remember and stand with the poor, the hungry, the addicted, the mentally ill, the global refugees and non-documented immigrants, and survivors of sexual abuse.

As we pray before the Christmas manger and see the beauty, the hope, the possibility in the birth of Jesus, we are compelled to remember that far too many children do not receive the welcome and joy they deserve for the miracle of their existence.

We cannot forget this Christmas season the great sadness that New York State, through the passage of the horrific Reproductive Health Act\(^1\), has enshrined into law the killing of innocent human beings through abortion up until the moment of actual birth and beyond, as this radical law permits the killing of those children who survive abortion.

Together, we invoke the power of the Prince of Peace and His compassionate Word found in the Beatitudes and in His call to serve the poor and the most vulnerable among us in Matthew 25. Our Lord gives us the courage and the voice as the Catholic Church in New York State and around the world to speak of the beauty, the sanctity and the dignity of every human life.

We will continue to be “a sign of contradiction” by witnessing relentlessly and courageously to the Gospel of Human Life. As is said in the first words of the Didache, the earliest known non-Scriptural Christian writing: “There are two Ways, one of Life and one of Death…” We will always stand with our earliest ancestors in the Christian faith in favor of the Way of Life and opposed to the Way of Death.

We will continue to seek the intercession of St. Thomas More, patron of statesmen, politicians and lawyers for the conversion of the public servants who have supported this tragic legislation.

The Cistercian biblical scholar Father Simeon writes: “The Child, while present only in Bethlehem by his poverty and weakness, is already present in the pattern of the constellations by his splendor and his glory.”\(^2\)

May our praise and glory of the Prince of Peace fill our hearts and homes and give us the courage and prayerful determination to bring the Joy of the Gospel and the Splendor of Truth to every public square in New York State and throughout the world.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres

Christmas Dinner Prayers
Christmas dinner prayer, choral concerts, and candle-lit services fill the schedule for modern Christmas celebrations. Prayer helps us communicate with God and as we sit down to eat Christmas dinner, we want to acknowledge the birth of Jesus. Speak from your heart to God in Heaven.

Dear Heavenly Father,
Love brought Jesus to the earth, and love brings us to this Christmas table. Today as we share this holiday feast, may we also share with one another a joyful heart and a warm smile. May our Christmas dinner be filled with kindness. And may the memories of today warm our hearts for years to come. Amen

OR

Dear God,
We give thanks for this time when we can all be together. We give thanks for this food which is bountiful and delicious. We give thanks for this joyful holiday when we can celebrate our Savior and his love for us. With joy we pray, Amen

Blessing of the Christmas Tree
When the tree has been prepared, the household gathers around it. All make the Sign of the Cross.

The leader begins: Blessed be the name of the Lord. All respond: Now and for ever.

The leader may use these or similar words to introduce the blessing:
This tree is a blessing to our home. It reminds us of all that is beautiful, all that is filled with the gentleness and the promise of God. It stands in our midst as a tree of light, that we might promise such beauty to one another and to our world. It stands like that tree of paradise that God made into the tree of life, the cross of Jesus.

Then the Scripture is read: Listen to the words of the apostle Paul to Titus: 3:4-7

But when the kindness and generous love of God our Savior appeared, not because of any righteous deeds we had done but because of his mercy, he saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he richly poured out on us through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs in the hope of eternal life.

The reader concludes: The word of the Lord. All respond: Thanks be to God.

After a time of silence, all join in prayers of intercession and in the Lord's Prayer. Then the leader invites: Let us now pray for God's blessing upon all who gather around this tree.

After a short silence, the leader prays:
God of all creation, we praise you for this tree which brings beauty and memories and the promise of life to our home. May your blessing be upon all who gather around this tree, all who keep the Christmas festival by its lights. We wait for the coming of the Christ, the days of everlasting justice and of peace. You are our God, living and reigning for ever and ever. R. Amen.

The lights of the tree are then turned on.

All Loved Ones
The Birth of Jesus

This is how the birth of Jesus the Messiah came about: His mother Mary was engaged to be married to Joseph.

But it was found that she was going to have a baby through the Holy Spirit.

Joseph awoke and took Mary as his wife.

Help Joseph get to Mary.

She gave birth to a son, and Joseph gave Him the name Jesus.
