Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang
The Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang would like to wish everyone a happy and healthy 2019 and we thank you for helping us to help others by giving your time and your generous donations.

During 2018, the Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang delivered 11,222 sandwiches and 2,875 wash-ups to St. Anne’s Church in Brentwood. From there, they are distributed to many places on Long Island and NYC.

During the month of January, the Peanut Butter & Jelly Gang will be meeting on January 12th and January 26th. We begin at 8:30 am.

Our mission is to serve those in need and provide an opportunity for others to serve.

For our sandwiches, we need donations of jelly, creamy peanut butter, paper plates, plastic spoons and knives, paper towels and sandwich-size folder over bags. You may drop them off at church (label for the PB&J Gang) or bring them with you.

Please do not drop off bread; bring it with you instead.

If you come to volunteer bring a loaf of white or wheat bread with you.

For our wash-up kits, we need donations of sample-size soap, shampoo and lotion, individually wrapped hard candy, new or gently used washcloths/towels, and sandwich-size ZipLoc bags.

Please note that ALL volunteers must wear some type of head covering; a baseball cap is fine.

We look forward to having you help us to help others.

Senior Group
We wish everyone a BLESSED AND MERRY CHRISTMAS & A HAPPY, HEALTHY AND SAFE NEW YEAR.
Our next meeting will be Tuesday, January 8th, 2019.

Food Pantry
Progresso Soups, maple syrup, children's snacks, juice boxes, and Jar Sauce.
Thank you!
“Boy Erased” – Adapted from Garrard Conley’s memoir, this is his story of his time spent in a gay conversation therapy center as a teenager after telling his parents he might be gay. His father is a Baptist Minister, who has old fashioned beliefs and is deeply religious. His mother has devoted her life to her family. Both love their son immensely and want to help him. His father seeks the advice of the church elders who recommend sending him to the conversion center. A center that uses harsh treatment to “fix” young men and women who think they are gay so they can become “normal” and be accepted by their families, the community and forgiven by the Lord. Well-directed and written by Joel Edgerton, who also plays the center’s program director. There is not one scene that is wasted. Lucas Hedges gives an honest and effective portrayal of this character. With moving performances by Russell Crowe and Nicole Kidman as the parents.

“Creed II” – 33 years ago, Ivan Drago killed Apollo Creed in an exhibition match. Now, his son Viktor challenges Apollo’s son to face him in the ring. In this sequel to “Creed”, where we first met Apollo’s son, Adonis, and watched as he and Rocky Balboa forged a close relationship, it’s time for the young fighter to realize what’s worth fighting for and that there is nothing more important than family (and maybe even both of these older fighters need to be reminded as well). Yes, this is the eighth installment in the “Rocky” film series and it looks like there is no end in sight. Sounds good to me because no matter how many times we may have seen the same story, watched the triumphs and the setbacks, we still find ourselves rooting for our hero to get back up and ultimately, find the goodness within himself. There is nothing like the sound of Bill Conti’s iconic score to bring a smile to the face and inspiration to the soul. Great script by Sylvester Stallone and Juel Taylor. Well directed by Steven Caple, Jr. Top performances by Stallone, Michael B. Jordan and surprisingly, Dolph Lundgren. When it comes down to it, it’s the emotional impact of these movies that really warms the heart.

“Green Book” - Who would have thought one of the year’s best films, would be about an Italian bouncer who is hired to drive a world-class Black pianist on his concert tour in the deep-south in the 1960’s? Inspired by true events and real characters, Tony Vallelonga and Dr. Don Shirley, this movie will make you laugh and will touch your heart from the beginning to the end. Superbly directed by Peter Farrelly. Wonderful script co-written by Nick Vallelonga (Tony’s son). Brilliant performances by Viggo Mortensen and Mahershala Ali. Here is a film that should be seen by everyone. Not just because it is an excellent film, but it’s message is needed today more than ever. It’s about racial harmony, tolerance, dignity, respect, honor and friendship that knows no boundaries. “It takes courage to change people’s hearts.”

“Instant Family” – Pete and Ellie decide to become foster parents to three siblings. Inspired by the real life events from writer-director Sean Anders, this film takes a look at the over-crowded foster-care system and the ups and downs to becoming foster-care parents. A light-hearted film about trust, friendship and love.

“The Mule” – This movie is based on the real life story of Leo Sharp, who at 90 years old became a “mule” smuggling cocaine for a drug cartel. After finding himself broke and with his home in foreclosure, Earl Stone agrees to make his first run without knowing (or asking) what he is smuggling. Although we know what he is doing is illegal, we still feel for this character. He spent most of his life neglecting his family and now he is alone. Basically, he is a nice guy, always stopping to help someone, even giving hard-nosed criminals life advice. Beautiful musical score by Arturo Sandoval. Produced and directed by Clint Eastwood, who also plays the lead role. To say he still got it is an understatement. Only Eastwood can make scenes of an old guy driving alone in a pick-up truck interesting and captivating. “Family is the most important thing. Don’t do what I did. I put work in front of family. I thought it was more important to be somebody out there than the failure I was in my own home.”
