FATHER KEN'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Parish of The Good Shepherd,

I bring to each and all of you, tidings of great joy! The Christmas Season, the Christmas celebration goes on! We're in the middle of the TWELVE DAYS OF CHRISTMAS – twelve days of rejoicing on earth in the great loving gift of Jesus, the Son of God from Our Eternal Father in heaven. We exchange gifts and presents in imitation of the gift the entire world, the entire universe, has received in the Son of God coming to live among us; coming to teach us; coming to heal us, coming to forgive us; coming to comfort us; coming to give himself to us; coming to bestow on us the gift of salvation, eternal life. Check out and pray Psalm 118. Emmanuel, Our God is with us! How sad it is if we can't find reasons for rejoicing.

Yes, each of us have experienced the death of a loved one. Yes, each of us has experienced tragedy. Yes, each of us has experienced physical and mental pain. Yes, each of us knows the depths of frustration, disappointment, suffering. Yes, each of us has walked through the dark tunnel of life looking and searching for that light somewhere in the distance. The birth of Jesus Christ and the personal and public celebration of His birth is that wondrous light in the distance, at the end of the tunnel - that "light the darkness shall never overcome".

We do have reasons for rejoicing, even in the midst of life's difficulties and tragedies. At the birth of their child, that mom and dad may be in difficult straights, yet, this arrival of new life, this physical evidence of an act of love can bring a sense of joy and wonder that can overcome any other hardship. This is what both Mary and Joseph discovered in their lives. I'm sure that looking back on the experience, they both would have exclaimed that it was the challenges of getting to Bethlehem, of finding that rude stable which they faced together that gave them the strength to endure and perhaps even to smile in memory of all they experienced.

Our children and grandchildren find all sorts of reasons to be happy during this time – even if it is just because of days off from school. How many of us would be ecstatic if people celebrated OUR BIRTHDAY for a series of 12 days? Please consider the absolute wonder and awe of what we have been celebrating! Our God, creator and king of the universe, has CHOSEN to live among us as one of us so that we might choose to live forever with him! Our God chooses to do this not because we are so good and deserving (we are not), but despite our tendency to sin because we are so loved! That Love of God is beyond reason and yet, those are our reasons for rejoicing – our reasons to continue our celebration all the way to the feast of Epiphany – the arrival of the Magi.

My personal reasons for rejoicing are many. They include the beautiful response of this parish to the invitation to attend the Holy Hour of Adoration back on December 6th. Bishop Andrzej was impressive (and humorous) with his discourse of the grave importance of our understanding and love of the mystery of Our God's continued abiding love for us. I tell you that he was impressed by the large number of people who attended this Holy Hour. I can also tell you that we are arranging for him to return during the season of Lent – always closer on the calendar than we might think.

I thank those who came out for our first sing-along of Christmas music and I'm grateful that Jim Marino was able to lead us on the guitar. It was wonderful to see our families gather to sing and to think about the meaning of the words of these songs which are so uplifting. I'm also very thankful to Sr. Ellen and Linda Mongan and their assistants for arranging and directing the Christmas pageant which filled the church with excited children and parents. I find joy in our men who again assembled our almost life-sized creche in the atrium and the number of adults and teens who coordinated the outside lighting around the church. Special thanks go out to all those who worked so diligently to create such a beautiful Christmas celebration: Doreen Bacile with our environment committee, our garden club, our liturgical ministries and our music ministry. For some the Christmas celebration ends on December 26th; others wish that our celebrations could last the 40 days until the 2nd of February the Feast of Candlemas.

HAPPY NEW YEAR OF 2024! Let us find JOY in this New Year.
Let us bring JOY to a world in need of JOY!

The Epiphany of the Lord (B)

Isaiah 60:1-6 / Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6 / Matthew 2:1-12

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

I live at a parish in downtown Milwaukee. From my window I watch the world pass by, everyone below in search of one thing or another. Students from the local university seek an education, business folk look for a sale, street people often look for a place to spend the night, teenagers hope to find love. Yet beneath all of those longings, in each one there is a deeper hunger that wonders what life is all about and the hope that they might find it. Hidden amidst it all, the real hunger is for God, a longing sewn into our being, sometimes recognized but too often not.

The story of the Magi is a story of seekers making their way from afar in hopes of finding the promised one, a newborn king. Perhaps they knew of this child’s divine nature, more likely not, yet it was ultimately that same hunger that exists in all of us that drove them, a deep desire to know God.

Every serious religion seeks to experience God in life and tells the stories of those who have done so. There are Christian mystics like St. John of the Cross and St. Teresa of Ávila, Jewish mystics of the Kabbalah tradition, the Sufis of Islam, Native Americans who go on vision quests, the Hindus who practice yoga, as well as the Buddhists and Taoists and Confucians. Like the Magi, we all seek to find God. ●

Merry
Christmas and Happy
New Year !

Pope Francis asks: “Are we guardians of all that has been given to us?”

“To be attentive to the Lord, not to fall asleep – we need to be alert. At the end of our life, he will call us to account for the goods he has entrusted to us. Therefore, being vigilant also means being responsible, that is, safeguarding and administering those goods faithfully.

We have received so much: life, faith, family, relationships, work, but also the places where we live, our city, creation. We have received so many things. Let us try to ask ourselves; Do we take care of this inheritance the Lord has left us? Do we safeguard its beauty or do we use things only for ourselves and for our immediate convenience? We have to think a little about this: are we guardians of all that has been given to us?”

This Christmas season: How are we taking care of this inheritance the Lord has left us?
